CORNHUSKER GOLFERS TURN IN GOOD SCORES

Cornhusker Golf Club turned out in a wave which resulted in the best golf shot since the Club was formed. Bill Graves was the "Hot Shot" turning in a score of 71 which is not often recorded on this course. "B-29" O'Toole and "Marine" Murrell were shelled off of the course by "Graveyard" Graves and Malcolm Geo. Scott in the only partners' match played. "Ken Smith" Wilson stood on the first tee and watched with amazement as Malcolm sank a long putt on the first green for a three. He played the first nine rather jittery from the effects. Raising the last nine with a sloppy 38. "Mort" Thomas shot a very smooth and commendable game, but claims he was hampered by the inconsistency of his competition. "Marine" Murrell came home from the "Wars" with a "Pro" diploma secured somewhere in the Virginia Hills. The boys warned that the "Marine" was teaching golf in Wash. D. C. and was thinking seriously of making that his living. But a few of the boys have reversed his ideas pronto. The following scores were turned in Sunday: Graves, 71; Scott, 74; Thomas, 75; O'Toole, 76; Wilson, 78; Murrell, 79; Solomon, 85; Hollins, 88; Collins, 89; Caldwell, 95; Mosley, 102.

Authors Of New Book

ELLEN TERRY

MARIE HALL ETS

MY DOG RINTY

A modern version of The Pied Piper of Hamelin, but placed in Harlem is the plot of a book for children, MY DOG RINTY, which the Viking Press will publish May 27th. It is a very human, appealing story about a Negro boy named David and his beloved, but misunderstood, dog, a wonderful ratter. When the dog begins tearing up all the things in sight, it looks as though he will have to be sold, but Alexander Alland, the Harlem editor who is a standing Harlem editor helps to bring happiness and prosperity where before there was nothing but trouble.

The story is by Ellen Terry and the illustrations are photographs taken in Harlem by Alexander Alland's wife, Marie Ets. The children who posed for them are Camille, nine years of age, who is David in the book; Mariette, seven; Maurice, twelve; and Louis, fourteen. All are children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Brocrou of 1486 Fifth Avenue, New York City. They are students of St. Paul's Parochial School and were chosen for the photographs not only because they are very photogenic, but because they all belong to one family, and were easier to get together!

Ellen Terry is a newspaper woman who has written several books for children, among them Hezekiah Horton, published by the Viking Press. She was born and brought up in Birmingham, Ala., taught school there, and started her newspaper career. In 1937, she came to New York and worked at the Writer's Laboratory on the Bureau of Educational Experiments Community Center. She then became "Story Lady" at friendship house, a Harlem Community Center, where she first saw "Hezekiah" who is now her godchild. Her newspaper work in NY was with the Amsterdam News, and she has written for many magazines. In 1934, she worked for the USO in Alabama and in New York, leaving about a year ago to become a Group Supervisor at the Harlem Service Men Depot.

Marie Hall Ets, author-artist of MY DOG RINTY to Carl Van Vechten, who will accept them for the Johnson Memorial Collection of Negro Arts and Letters, Yale University, May 27th, publication date of the book, was also the first day of the annual celebration of Harlem Week.

NORTHSIDE BUSINESSMAN SAYS KNOWLES WILL GIVE FAIR REPRESENTATION

By Preston Hieronymous

All the long time friends of Charles Knowles were mighty glad to see him file as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress. Even though he is a leader in the storage and moving business, Mr. Knowles has always been ready to lend a helping hand to your reporter who is also in that business out here at 24th and Grant Sts. Mr. Knowles is one of the pioneers and truly great leaders of our industry. When it comes to honesty and fairness to all people regardless of race, creed, or color, Mr. Knowles has a reputation that is greatly to be desired. Those who have known Charles Knowles in business feel that he has the intelligence and intestinal fortitude to stand up in Congress and really fight for the interests of all the citizens of the Second Congressional District which includes Omaha.

Religious and civic leaders throughout Omaha have always felt free to call upon Mr. Knowles for help in any worthy cause because they know he is always ready to lend his energy and ideas to any campaign that enables people to live more comfortably and happier.

To the many people in all walks of life whom Mr. Knowles has encouraged an helped in one way or another, he is the most generous and yet shrewd man we could ever hope to get in Congress. If the honest opinion of a hard-working man who really knows Knowles means anything, it is felt that all of you good readers of this newspaper will go out on election day and vote for a real friend of the people, Mr. Charles Knowles.

Our vote on June 11th is mighty important as it is the only direct way of showing how we feel about the man who are to lead us from the headquarters of our government in Washington. Be sure that you vote for your own sake and for the sake of your children.
