Religious News

ST. JOHNS A.M.E. CHURCH

22nd and Willis Ave.
Mason Devereaux, Jr., reporter
Reverend E. B. Childress

"My Best Friend" was the subject of our minister's sermon on Sunday June 16th at the 11 o'clock service. The text of his message was taken from Luke 15:18. He emphasized impressive thoughts in his inspiring message: Service is the price we pay for the space we occupy and he who turns from the Kingdom of God blazes a path to ruin, foils his hopes and desecrates his soul.

The Junior Choir had charge of the music for the morning and evening services Miss Evelyn Butler and Miss Anna Butler, members of our Junior Choir gave a beautiful rendition of the song "Today".

The Great Lakes Double Quartette, formerly with US Navy Blue-jacket Choir rendered two numbers.

Visitors: Mrs. Lolo Mae Green of Valdesota, Ga., and Mr. John Maugram student at Howard U. School of Divinity.

Continue to contribute $1 each Sunday to the Building Fund. That is more if you can. Every dollar given helps the officers of our church to carry on the building program. By giving freely as God so prospers us into long run pays tremendous dividends to each of us in that it will mean a great deal in our effort to build a bigger and better and greater St. Johns. We must not lose sight of our responsibility to our beloved children who are our future church, our community and to our city. Let us leave a legacy to these children that they can be proud of a completed St. Johns. Yet a legacy which these children so richly deserve. Give until it hurts!

The Pastor personally thanks the chairmen and assistants, presidents and members of the church and serving of those delicious meals during the session with the adult members and friends of St. Johns in making our out of town guests cordially welcome in their stay in our city. St. Johns can be justly proud of this conference for it was an example of cooperation, coordination and unification of members and friends of St. Johns.

Our officers, members and our friends commended our Pastor and his wife for the untiring effort put forth in seeing that everything went like clockwork and seeing that our guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves. St. Johns goes another step forward under the able leadership of these two persons.

The choir's all request program will be Sunday evening at 8 p. m., according to our very efficient director, Mrs. Pearl Gibson. Let's plan to come to this beautiful service in song. Remember the date June 23, 8 p. m. and the place St. Johns Church.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Childress entertained the Junior Choir on Saturday, June 15th. Plenty of ice cream and cake was served.

Our Pastor left Wednesday for Kansas to the Bishop Conference that convenes from the 16th to the 21st of June. He will return by Sunday to bring us the message for the morning.

Don't forget Class Meetings are held each Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. and Prayer meetings held Wednesday nights at 8 p. m.

STRENGTHENING BONDS OF FELLOWSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:14-20; John 13:1-8, 20, 21.

RECAPITULATION—A new commandment I give unto you. That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.—John 13:34.

Fellowship is a word which comes to its full meaning only in the relationship between the Lord and believers, which also brings them into just such a relationship with one another.

The Lord seeks his people and gives himself in friendship to them, even to the full devotion of death. Shall we do less for one another?

Our lesson presents four ways in which Christ fellowshiped with his disciples.

I. The Fellowship of the Passover (Luke 22:14-18).

It was late on Thursday, of what we call Holy Week, that Jesus and his disciples came to the upper room where Peter and John had already made preparation for the observance of the Passover (Luke 22:8).

This feast had since that great and awful night of Israel's redemption out of Egypt's bondage pointed forward to the Christ and to his cross as the fulfillment of the type of redemption by the shedding of blood.

Our Lord looked forward with intense desire to the Passover which he now observed with his disciples, for it was the last celebration of that feast recognized by God. All that it had foreshadowed of deliverance and hope was fulfilled in him who now sat at the table. He had moved forward with resolute purpose to this day when his mission on earth was to be accomplished.

And he was to become the Christian's Passover Lamb (I Cor. 5:7). The Passover was a solemn feast of remembrance of God's deliverance from the bondage of Egypt, but it was now to be replaced by a new feast of remembrance of eternal significance. They went on into the dining room.

Taking the unleavened bread and the unfermented wine of the Passover which had just been observed, Jesus established the Christian feast of remembrance, which we call communion, or the Lord's table.

His words are significant, "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come" (I Cor. 11:26). At the Lord's table his followers find spiritual strength in recalling his death for them, but they also find joy as they remember that he is to come again. They testify to the world that they believe and cherish these truths.

Our Lord also spoke of the cup as "my blood of the new testament." The word "testament" means covenant. The Lord's table, therefore, speaks of our allegiance to him, of our loyalty to our Lord, and of our devotion to his service. That is why the Christian church speaks of communion as a sacrament, a word from the Latin sacramentum, meaning oath, and essentially an oath of allegiance.

III. The Fellowship of God's Word (John 17:6-8).

John gives us a blessed account of the fellowship of Jesus and his disciples in the upper room, and then takes us into what is indeed the "Holy of Holies" of Scripture, our Lord's intercession. That is, here "The High Priest of our profession" (Heb. 3:1) brings us into the very presence of God.

At the very beginning of his petitions for them and for us (see v. 20) he speaks of the word which the Father had given him and which he had given to them.

This little company of men had been given to Christ, drawn out of the evil world and set apart for God's work. But note that the thing which distinguished them in the eyes of the Lord was that they had "kept" the word of God, even as they had received the living word, Christ, as the one whom the Father had sent.

That kind of fellowship with the Lord makes a man strong and useful. Life and testimony both ring true because they exalt Christ.

IV. The Fellowship of Prayer (John 17:20, 21).

Christ prayed for his disciples, not only that they might thoroughly present, but all who should through the ages since that day believe in Christ because of their witness.

That puts each one of us, who is a true disciple, right into the center of the greatest prayer fellowship of all time. He, the eternal and omnipotent one, prays for us. Why then should we be weak and faltering in our testimony or have failures in our life? Can it be that we have failed to count on his prayer and have tried to walk in our own strength?

The prayer for unity (v. 21) does not speak of an outward uniting of religious bodies such as is much favored and promoted in our day. Certainly where such unity can be attained without the sacrifice of principle or compromise with false doctrine it is desirable. Real unity is that of the heart.

Let's participate in our church's program by attending one or more of these meetings or rehearsals.

Mothers send your children to Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Attend our morning service at 11 a. m. and our evening service at 7:30 p. m. Friends and visitors are always welcome at St. Johns the friendly church at 22nd and Willis Ave. Come worship with us won't you?

MISSION GUEST SPEAKER

Rev. Theodore Schauland

HOPE LUTHERAN CHURCH

30th and Corby Sts.
H. H. Schauland, pastor

The Rev. Theodore Schauland of Vergas, Minnesota, will be the guest speaker at the first annual Mission Sunday service at Hope Lutheran Church. The service begins at 11 a. m. The evening service begins at 7:30 and will be conducted by Rev. A. Moellering of Omaha. Every year one Sunday is set aside for special emphasis on mission and mission work. Both speakers will bring to our attention the great need and opportunities for doing mission work and how we can meet these needs.

Jesus, of course, was the model missionary. He did mission work in the home, in the city, wherever He went. He brought people to repentance and faith. Even on the cross he was a missionary to the dying thief, and his last command was a missionary command: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

Hope Lutheran invites everyone to attend these special services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday School begins at 10 a. m. Hear Dr. J. W. Behnken on the Lutheran Hour at 11:30 a. m. over KBON.

CLAIR METHODIST CHURCH

22nd and Miami Sts.
Rev. C. C. Reynolds, Pastor

The attendance at Clair last Sunday was below average, which we are sure was due to the heat. Very impressive Father's Day Services were held during the morning worship hour. At the end of the pastor's sermon, a number of the fathers were called to the altar by the pastor. A red carnation flower was pinned on each father by Mrs. Carrie Justus. Congratulatory to fatherhood was extended by Rev. Reynolds and the service closed by singing "Bless Be the Tie that Binds". Several visitors were present.

The night service was held in the chapel arrangement of the basement. Here we were able to forget the heat of the weather, in the coolness of nature's own air conditioning. During the extreme heat, all our evening services will be held in the basement chapel. Come and bring your friends.

Brother Henry Winston gave a short talk Sunday morning on "Fatherhood" which was an inspiration to everyone. This coming Sunday morning Rev. Reynolds will speak on "In the Hands of Fate".
