THE ALPHA OMEGA CLUB

by Frank Wilkerson

The Alpha Omega Club is an organization consisting of young men and women of Omaha who are endeavoring to do things in a big way. We know that the clean and decent way is the right way and it is our way of living. We have the will to do good—putting our heads together we are thinking of various things to do in the way of recreation and enjoyment, thus partially solving the problem of poor recreation.

On the Fourth of July we had a very enjoyable picnic at Elmwood Park. This picnic was a great success.

A few of the things we'll be doing in the near future and beginning this week are: a scavenger hunt; a traveling party; a weiner roast; a Texas frolic; trolley ride;

SALEM TO OBSERVE 2ND ANNIVERSARY OF PASTOR

The Salem Baptist Church will observe the second anniversary of their Pastor the Rev. J. C. Wade starting at 3 p. m. Sunday July 14th thru Sunday July 21st. We cordially invite the entire city including the members and friends of all churches to share in this glorious occasion in honoring this most inspiring and progressive leader who in the two years of his pastorate here the church has more than doubled in membership and has been acclaimed as being the most spiritual church in the city as well as the most active.

Aside from accumulating the largest bank deposit in its history we take pride in stating that Salem carries the largest following of young people, actively engaged.

Aside from having all the regular departments well organized, we have three (3) regular choirs namely the senior, the junior, the young peoples, the mens' chorus, a Sunday School chorus, and an orchestra. Rev. Wade began preaching as a youth in April 1931 with the St. Andrew Baptist Church Tulsa, Okla. and was ordained in 1932. His first (1) was from the Fountain Baptist Church in Saynes, Okla. where he served for two years. He prides this charge as it was the oldest church in the state being now 113 years old.

Knowing that his education was limited, he resigned and went to Memphis, Tenn. entering Howe Institute for three years. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Frazier of Memphis in December 1935, out of which wedlock came four children. Working by his side willingly, much praise and credit is due his very modest and composed wife.

In Sept. 1936 he was called to the Middle Baptist Church, White Haven, Tenn. In 1937 to the Shloh Baptist Church, Court Avenue, in Memphis where he served eight years. In Aug 1940 he was called and accepted the pastorate of the Riverside Baptist Church, Memphis from which he resigned to take his present pastorate of the Salem Baptist Church here.

In addition to his pastoral duties, he has served as an evangelist during his entire ministerial career. He served for six years as secretary of the Aid Benevolent Association in Memphis; three years as vice-district of the White Haven District as well as being a member of the executive board of the Missionary and Educational Convention of Tenn.

He has remodeled all of his former pastorates and has extensive plans for the remodeling of the Salem Church here as soon as materials are available.

Respectfully submitted, Committee on Arrangements Salem La. 24th and 25th St. Road. Mrs. Flossie B. Moore, clerk

OODLES OF POODLES

A print that will make people sit up and take notice! Oodles of poodles caper through hoops right into your heart. And clever designers perform tricks to make this Fashion Frock of the Week the star of the show!

Madam, your glamour is showing. An intriguing band of black eyelet embroidery peeks forth at the base of the offside pleat in the skirt. This obsequious pleat has a quarter-circle inset of fabric so that it falls in ripples and dances when you walk, all smartly underscored in black and topped with a flirtatious bow. The romantic black eyelet also dances around the neck, winged sleeves in the smoothly darted bodice.

It's no trick at all to look perfectly delightful in a prancing poodle print.
