

ONLY LIVING CHILD OF OF BOOKER WASHINGTON

ROCY MOUNT, Va.—Mrs. Portia Washington Pittman, only living child of Booker T. Washington and her daughter, Fanny B. Pittman, look with happiness upon a photostatic copy of the Bill which was recently passed by Congress to mint five million Booker T. Washington Memorial Coins to assist in the establishment of a Memorial at her father's birthplace in Franklin County, Va. The bill, with authenticated papers from the Secretary of State has just been presented to Mrs. Pittman by S. J. Phillips, president of the Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial.

Mrs. Pittman, in reviewing the Bill, stated that it was one of the happiest moments of her life that a graduate of the school which her father founded had been instrumental in bringing about the passage of this Bill which has three great implications: First, the placing of her father's image on the currency of the greatest nation in the world is a significant honor; second, it will help to make possible a program based upon his ideals and teachings, and third, it will serve as an inspiration to Negroes everywhere.

Why Some Long Distance Calls ARE STILL DELAYED

Vacation travel and the marketing of the newly harvested grain crop are adding a great volume of long distance calls to the already crowded lines. Because of this many calls are being delayed. Although the shortage of materials is hampering us, we are adding new facilities as fast as we can get them in order to bring long distance service back to pre-war quality and even better. This will take time so when you find the lines are extra busy, your patience will be appreciated.

MANY INVEST IN 'E' BONDS

Nebraskans have invested $41,478,000 in "E" Series government Bonds from January 1, through July 31, 1946, it was announced today by Leon J. Markham, director for Nebraska of the U.S. Savings Bond Division of the Treas. In the face of rising prices for most consumer goods, I think Nebraska's record of bond buying is very good and indicates that the people of Nebraska realize that money invested in bonds today, instead of scarce consumer goods is one way to fight run-away inflation, Mr. Markham said.

Nebraska "E" Bond sales for July totaled $5,319,007 an increase of $711,191 over June "E" sales. "E" Bond purchases for the state totaled $468,883 in July, an increase of approximately 64 thousand dollars over June. "G" Bond sales in July amounted to $3,378,800, an increase of $1,053,200 over June in Nebraska.

Total sales of "E", "F" and "G" Series in Nebraska during July amounted to $9,166,890, an increase of $1,811,718 over June total sales in the state. Only the months of March and April, 1946 exceeded Nebraska's July sales Mr. Markham said.

Nationally, bond sales for July totaled $752,985,000, topping any month since January, while bond cash in for July were 20 percent below March, the peak month for redemptions. Sales for July, of all series, exceeded redemptions by $252,804,000.

BURMA ROAD BLUES—A red hot tune written by Lionel Hampton as a tribute to his many good friends and their comrades who were stationed along the historic road, blazing the trail for Uncle Sam. Realizing the loneliness associated with the job, he dedicated the song to the pleasant memories of wives and sweethearts at home. It is sweet as it is hot, played by Roy Milton's Sextette.

STAR TIME—A jazz fantasy featuring Herbie Field, ace tenor sax man and Charlie Harris playing a superb bass. This session arranged by Gladys Hampton is evocative in that it is a superb hit, and the first effort by Gladys at directing a special quartet specializing in out of this world tune.

EVENING BREEZE—A breezy tune written by Lionel Hampton and Al Hayes. A boy and girl strolling through the park are fanned by a cool invigorating breeze. The tune brings a musical reflection of the incident and breezy it is, and only as a new Herb Jeffries can do it.

YOUR GUESS IS AS GOOD AS MINE—A swingy tune on the fine sweet side by the Hamp-Tone All Stars, featuring Herb Jeffries on the vocal touched off by a sweet melodious strain of trumpet rendition of Wendell Culley.

GATE SERENE BLUES—A tune inspired by a saying prevalent among the hep cats as a salutation of greeting. This unusual blues hit features the tenor sax of Herbie Fields and the harmonious guitar of William Mackel. It is another Hamp-Tone soul sender.

JENNY—Featuring Arnett Cobbs the tenor sax man with zip, is a tribute from Lionel Hampton to his tenor mainstay. Cobbs plays this riff with the Asbestos Four as a background. It has plenty of melody and rhythm with the solid beat flavored with the Hampton rebop beat.

LYNCH SPIRIT FLARES IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, August 15th—The Negro citizens of New York, shocked by news during recent weeks of southern barbarism in the lynching and terrorizing of Dixie Negroes, discovered with grave apprehension growing signs of the lynch spirit in the city's Greenwich Village section, as reports of numerous beatings of Negroes in that part of the city were made known. One of the most alarming aspects of the situation is the apathy of Village police, who according to a reliable source, know the identity of the hoodlums who are organized to keep Negroes out of the Village.

Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, expressed concern over the situation which was developing less than a week after he had been assured by Police Commissioner Wallander that the rights of Negroes in the city would be protected.

About 2:30 a.m. on August 11 Arthur Smith was chased by a gang of men on his way from a restaurant to the subway. Calling for the police as he ran, he found one, who told him to go on into the subway and made no attempt to pursue the gang. On the contrary, he got into a police car that was passing and left Mr. Smith standing unprotected on the sidewalk.

ity of stock that Mrs. Davis had on hand. All kinds of clothing for the ladies and children. Shoes of almost every size, and good shoes at that.

"What enticed you to open the Band-Box Resell Clothing Shop?" I asked Mrs. Davis.

"I have always wanted to have a shop of my own and I enjoy buying and selling. Because of the high prices of clothing, I decided to open up this shop; giving quality at low cost."

"How has business been?" I asked.

"Good," Mrs. Davis answered. "I'm expecting my merchandise to bring in the people because I do have high-quality merchandise. More stock will be coming in, and if people are looking for a low price for quality goods, they can get it here."

Mrs. Charles F. Davis, has operated the Band-Box Resell Clothing Shop for only a few months. If looking for bargains, drop in Mrs. Davis's shop, 2420 Grant St.

The children's playground, 24th and Corby, will be closed on August 31st. Of course all of us in our community are more than grateful to the Good Fellows and the World-Herald for the donation to this much-used playground. Thanks cannot repay their generosity, but all they need to do is pass by this playground and see the many children, playing in the sand, on the slide, in the jungle gym bars, in the swings, taking a cool shower or roller skating around the paved runway, and the smiles on the children's faces.

"I'll send them away with a great joy in their hearts. In choosing polite and efficient reservation, he was told there were no rooms available. Upon threatening suit, he was told by the local secretary that a YMCA, as a membership organization, would not be considered a hotel or public inn under the Iowa civil rights law.

However the local attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People thought differently and the YMCA secretary himself was not so sure, since he backed down.

as soon as I finish here. I teach ballet, and some tap, but most of the children take ballet. Once in awhile some of the boys will want to learn to tap, but not as much as you would think. If we had some music at the playground we could have some folk dances here but is hard to get them to dance without music."

"I don't believe the children could be in better hands," I said. "Thank you," Mrs. Marjorie Ware said as I walked away.

'HEY BA BA REBOP' WINNERS

The winners of the sensational "Hey Ba Ba Rebop" contest was announced this week by Lionel Hampton, internationally famous band leader. The winners and the amounts won follow:

1. Gloria Patricia Boyd-7410 Carnegie Ave., Cleveland, Ohio $200
2. Frederick D. Meredith-464 Trevitt St., Columbus, O. $125
3. Annabelle Caldwell-4207 No. Gantenbein, Portland, Ore. $100
4. Joe Swift-110 W. Mountain St. Pasadena, California—$25

This song contest, unique in the annals of song writing, began on April 6 and closed July 1, 1946. Over 1500 entries poured in from all over the world including far flung points such as Tokyo, Japan, Geneva, and Switzerland. Every state in the Union submitted entries.

The winners were judged on their originality and the thought given their verses.

Lionel Hampton commenting on the contest said, "my main interest is to encourage aspiring young people who want to enter the field of music. I hope the entrants in the contest had as much fun writing verses as I did conducting it and reading the various entries."

On behalf of myself, and my co-authors, Gladys Hampton and Curley Hammer as well as the judges I want to thank the contestants for their cooperation for making this project such a tremendous success.

We are now formulating plans for a new contest based upon our new song hit "The Pencil Broke and That's All She Wrote". Watch your Negro newspapers for the announcement of the contest.

By WDL Field Secretary
DENVER, Colo.—(WDL)—At YMCAs both here and in Des Moines, Ia., William Worthy field secretary of the Workers Defense League, was given room only after threatening to bring suit under state civil rights laws. In both towns Worthy threatened suit after his references to the race relations adopted by the YMCA national convention proved unavailing. The two YMCAs took their jim crow stand despite the fact that Worthy has a membership card, which is supposed to give priority in any branch. Attempts were made to persuade him to go to the town's Negro branches. Worthy secured his reservations by phone in both towns. In Des Moines, when Worthy showed up, ten minutes after getting his
