BOOKER T. WASHINGTON MEMORIAL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

ROCKY MOUNT, Va.—Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial which was organized to commemorate his life and perpetuate his ideals and teachings, has planned a "Booker T. Washington Memorial Week", November 10th thru 16th. This week includes the anniversary of his death. Booker T. Washington was a very practical thinker. He stuck close to the fundamentals. In keeping with this philosophy of his, this Memorial Week has been so planned to use the basic principles which he stressed in building a program of helpfulness towards others. Therefore, Sunday, religion Monday, education; Tuesday, health; Wednesday, industry and business; Thursday, Booker T. Washington Memorial Day (he died Nov. 14, 1915); Friday, interracial day; Saturday, citizenship.

S. J. Phillips, president of the Memorial states that four coast to coast broadcasts have been arranged. The "Southernaires" will present a program Sunday morning, November 10th over the American Broadcasting Company; "The Camp Meeting Choir" of Winston-Salem, N. Carolina, will broadcast on Saturday, November 16th over the National Broadcasting System. Dr. Emmett J. Scott, who was Booker T. Washington's secretary for 18 years, will be the speaker on this broad-

Wilson, will broadcast from Winston Salem on a coast-coast-hook up in observance of Booker T. cast; "Wings Over Jordan" will give a Booker T. Washington Broadcast over the Columbia Broadcasting System on November 10th from the West Coast. Over this same network, there will be a broadcast, "From Slave Cabin to Hall of Fame" on Nov. 14th at 6:15 pm. EST. Churches, schools, fraternal, civic and business organizations over the country are observing Booker T. Washington Memorial Week.

NEAR NORTHSIDE BRANCH SAILS TO PIONEER BOYS' WORK IN INDIA

Lawrence C. Burr, formerly attached to the Wabash Avenue YMCA in Chicago sailed from New York City the first of October to his new assigned work in Madras India. Burr is the first Negro Secretary in YMCA history ever to be assigned to work in India's provinces by the International committee of the YMCA. Burr will remain away at least five years during which time he will virtually pioneer in the teaching of boys' work techniques among Indian youths of high school level. Burr is a graduate of Langston University where he served as YMCA secretary and was elected to the regional field council. He holds a masters degree in group work administration from George Williams College.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Both of the Near Northside "Y" entries in the Early Bird Basketball Tournament being held at the Omaha YMCA are still in the running. The "Y" Big Five defeated Jeeps Bar 32 to 36 this week. The Bobcats defeated Trinity Methodist 26 to 10.

BADMINTON

Each Tuesday evening at 8:00 pm. William "Bus" King is instructing those who are interested in Badminton at the Near Northside Branch "Y". Come out and bring your friends.

YWCA Notes

Mrs. Lois Goode from the North side Branch interviewed three students from the Y-Teens Thursday afternoon over radio station KOIL when the weekly program "Today's Guests" was presented. The girls were Mary Jo Downing and Jeanette Fowler from Benson high school and Ardell Buck from So. high school.

Mrs. Marjorie Ware began her first class in Rhythmic and Ballet for boys and girls between the ages of 3 and 10 years at the Branch building on Saturday, Oct. 26. The children danced and played for the scheduled period.

Washington Memorial Week.

book "The American" by Henry James on November 10 at 3:30 o'clock here at the branch. The public is cordially invited.

One hundred and twenty-five people registered Sunday, Oct. 27 at the first in a series of presentations by the Northside Branch YWCA. This first presentation was that of Miss Camille Dunham in a piano recital. Miss Dunham's rendition of numbers of Bach, Chopin, Beethoven, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, Liszt, Dett, Tschaiovsky and Brahms showed her mastery of the keyboard. The artist was dressed in a pink taffeta evening dress with a fullness of ruffles in back which lent an air of elegance to the occasion. The audience was most appreciative of this concert and showed it by their hearty applause after each selection.

These monthly presentations will be free to the public and to members as well as friends are invited to attend.

The programs were uniquely made in the shape of a "D". Mrs. Lois Goode presented the guest artist with a bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums. Miss Dunham's as a token of appreciation.

Miss Jackie Fisher who was dressed in a blue evening dress of mouseline de soie, sang two numbers—"Ave Maria" and "Perfect".

The Handwork Class, which is taught by Mrs. Odessa Johnson, exhibited some of the articles which will be made in the class such as crocheted caps and scarfs and knitted gloves and caps. Registrations for this class are coming in, in large numbers.

Out-of-town guests from Illinois, Iowa and South Dakota together with the large numbers of the Quack club enjoyed a most delightful Hobo Party at the building on Friday night, Oct. 25. Overalls, slacks, pants, boots and red handkerchiefs over the shoulder on a stick in true hobo style was the way the Quacks appeared as they came in the door. Several games were enjoyed by the members and their friends. Everyone sat on the floor and ate the lunch picnic style.

The committee of the Committee of Management are at present in the process of being formed. The various chairmen are selecting members of the committees to begin work for the fall and winter season.

A. V. C. OPPOSED TO ANTI-UNION SHOP AMENDMENT Merle Hansen, Chairman of the Omaha Chapter of the American Veterans Committee announced today that the Omaha Chapter of AVC, after thorough investigation has taken a stand as opposing the anti-union shop amendment to our State Constitution to be voted on November 5th.

Hansen pointed out that upon the passage or rejection of this amendment will determine the veteran's future wage, his job security, his whole economic, political and social well-being.

"This is not only an anti-union and anti-closed shop amendment, but it is by its very nature a move to destroy organized labor and revert workers back to wage slaves" stated Mr. Hansen.

Fast as fire, without the hazards of flame... says Mrs. J. P. Devaney

306 South 50th Avenue

"Cooking Starts Instantly On My Electric Range!"

"When it's time for meals at our house," says Mrs. Devaney, "I snap a switch, and presto! There's 'cooking heat' instantly. It's controlled, EVEN heat that's really HOT—perfect for cooking or baking or broiling. But that's only ONE of many things I like about cooking electrically. I particularly appreciate its safety when the children are around. Then, too, I like the cleanliness and thrift. Of course, all the automatic features give me more time out of the kitchen—and what homemaker DOESN'T enjoy more leisure! When I add the fact that foods prepared electrically are BETTER, it's easy to see why I think electric cooking is tops!"
