Boston Honors Yale Football Star

Boston, Mass. (AP)—Levi Jackson, Yale's great Negro freshman back, Macy was selected the winner of the Bulger-Lowe Memorial Trophy as New England's outstanding football player.

The award was presented to Jackson Tuesday night at the annual Boston Gridiron Club dinner. He is the first Negro and the first freshman ever to win the trophy.

before trying to keep company with you again. Marriage is much too serious to jump into without much meditation and thought. Go with the boy at least several good months before giving him an answer.

P. J. While my husband was overseas I met another man and we had a child. He is mean to me and I want to know if I should go back home and let mother look after the child while I go to work. She wants me to come back home. Ans: Go back home and do the best you can for your child as this man is not going to do right. Furthermore your husband still loves you and there is every likelihood that you may be able to patch things up with him.

What with the coal strike, the dim-outs over several States. Look out you innocent doves who believe everybody else is more honest than yourselves. Keep your hands clamped on the old money book. Plenty of those "Food for Nothings" out looking for some thing.

Just in case you don't know... Those fellows have their fingers touched up with a bit of molasses or glue... and my, how money, watches and jewelry stick to their hands when you are not careful.

But a word to these same nimble fingers (better known as pick pockets)... There're more policemen and detectives beating around the street and down the highways than before... so don't start any funny business... just in case you are one of those good for nothings who are strolling about looking for something...

Did you ever stop to think that there are only two classes of folk in the world? Those looking for nothing and those looking for something... and there are a great many more of those looking for something. They are taking up some perfectly good time here. I suppose that we might have a very difficult time proving that the word truth means right, where wrong doing is concerned... especially when the pick pocket gets busy.

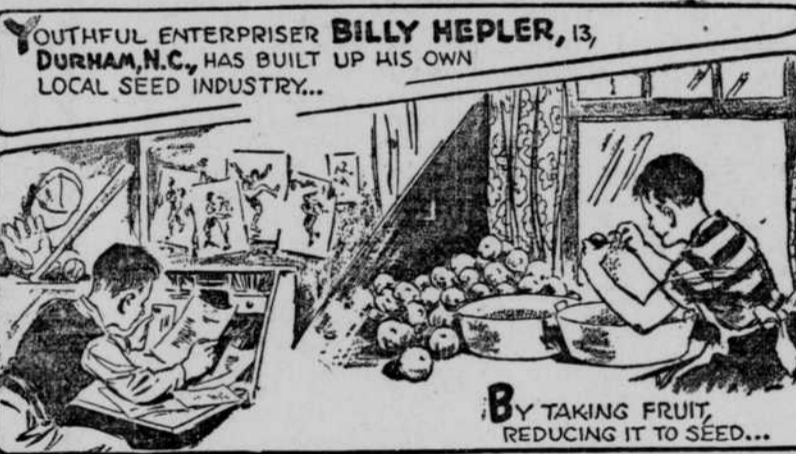

A very charming woman mounted a bus the other day and to her surprise she almost lost her coin purse out of her pocket book when a dapper young man stepped up suavely and slipped his glued fingers down into her pocketbook... Only the alertness of the young woman stopped the pick.

Be careful, my dears, the holidays are right around the corner and money is not bouncing up and down as freely as it was when all these war plants were in operation... Better keep your eyes on that cute little dainty purse swinging on your shoulder...

Thanksgiving is over and every body had a good time enjoying the old and young gobblers. Fortunately they all sold at a price within the reach of the average man; but just think if something had not happened those same old birds would have been flying so high it would have taken an Anti aircraft gun to have brought one of them down...

Remember a few months back I predicted in this column the old heaters and burners might suffer a bit this winter. There is no legislation enacted yet which might prevent folk from striking in the coal fields... or the oil fields for figure that is reported to be $70,000 each and every year. No information as to the length of the contract is available, but from the palsy-walsy attitude of Durocher and Branch Rubeck, club president, it is reasonable to assure that it will run as long as Durocher is ready, willing and able to discharge his duties. The Dodgers plan to leave for Spring training in Havana on February 20th.

DUROCHER SIGNS AGAIN; DODGERS GO TO HAVANA

BROOKLYN, (CNS). Leo (The Lip) Durocher, colorful manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who reportedly plans to call Jackie Robinson up from the minors early next season, signed a contract with "Dem Bums", recently for a Everytime I ask her for a date, she always is going out to a dance or some place with someone else. If I tell her I am not going to ask her to go out anymore, she tells me that she wants to go with me. What must I do?

Ans: Look Mac, you taking the wrong attitude. Don't swell up like a toadfrog and sit at home sulking, just because the little girl likes to date other boys. Do like wise, my boy. Date some of the other little chicks and make it a point to let the little lady see you enjoying yourself. It will vex her a little to be sure, but it will stimulate new interest.

M. M. C. I have been married 17 years and adore my husband. Up until about four years ago he was all I could ask in a mate. We went out together and had lots of fun. His niece died and left a baby girl. We took the baby and I am raising her as though she were my own. The responsibility seems to be all my own as my husband never wants to stay at home with her and let me get and he has begun going out alone. Now do you think I would be happy to let some of his folks have the child and would he change?

Ans: You would be very unhappy if you gave the child to his people being as attached to it as you are. The baby fills a niche in your family life, but you must guard against lavishing too much affection on the child and taking it away from your husband. Let your husband share in the responsibility of being a parent and the child will be a bond between you. You are going to have to be more demonstrative in your affection toward your husband and let him know that he means more to you than anyone else in the world.

C. L. J. I am twenty and am going with a girl a few years my junior. I am very much in love with her and she seemed to care for me up until a short time ago.
