Y Revue and Variety Show
The Y Revue and Variety Show under the direction of Bernard Butler, leader of the Chorus of Rhythm Orchestra proved to be one of the most entertaining programs which have been presented at the Y in the past months. La Rue (Shoes) Gater, and Billy Williams stole the show. They brought the house down with their dance and jokes. Helen Washington and Ruth Booker featured vocalists of the evening had the crowd yelling for encores. The "YMCA Jump" arranged by Frank Brown, and Donald Butler was played for the first time and received a great applause. All in all the show was a great success and those who attended look forward to another of this kind.

The Mother's Council met for its first meeting on Friday, Dec. 6 when a coffee hour and party was held preceding the business of this session. The purpose of this meeting was to reorganize the club so that the mothers of our children can participate in the program of the YWCA and can discuss and devise plans for the betterment of our boys and girls. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Lula Bryant, pres.; Mrs. Gibson, vice pres.; Mrs. Anderson, secy.; Mrs. Steele, treas.; Mrs. Lucille Donaldson, social ch.; Mrs. Powell, membership ch.; Mrs. Cook, prg. ch.; Mrs. Morton sick ch.; and Mrs. Bunnigan, finance ch. There were fourteen enthusiastic mothers at this meeting and they decided that the regular meetings of the council would be on the first and third Tuesday nights from 8 to 9:30 p. m. At their next meeting, which will be held December 17, they will enjoy a get-acquainted Xmas party when each member who was present will invite additional mothers and bring sandwiches so that they can have an evening of fun at the YWCA building. The Coffee Hour, which was held before the meeting of the Mother's Council had a very interesting discussion on the YWCA as a challenge to the women of the community. Mrs. Doreene Holiday; Mrs. Lois Goodie; Miss Ruth Sunderlin and Miss Geneva Burney led the discussion. Several points of interest were brought up by persons in the audience. Mrs. Maurice Patterson was responsible for the social end of this occasion.

Gamma Geta Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority held a fireside soiree in the building on Sunday, December 8 when Mr. W. G. Sullenger, director of the Omaha City Mission, discussed the topic "Education as a Weapon Against Racial Intolerance".

SPEECH CULTURE

BY BEATRICE L. MORGAN

Voice And Personality
When we listen to the successful radio announcer, the speaker and the entertainers of whom we have never seen, we form a picture in our minds of just how this person looks; in most instances, we are wrong. However, we associate this picture in our mind to the voice that we hear whether we are right or wrong, the important point is that an impression has been made in our minds based on the fact of the individual's voice.

It has often been said that the voice expresses personality. This statement is true, but only tells half of the story; as voice is personality.

To appreciate this fact it must be remembered that our social environment has a great deal to do with our personality. All individuals living in social environment has some kind of personality; although it may differ as to the kind or type.

Never make the mistake by saying when speaking of an individual he has no personality or she has lots of personality. All normal persons have personality and may react one way or the other. obvious and direct or indirect and obscure.

Miss Rose White, Captures Prize for Miss Northside "Y"

Take for an example; different kinds of social entertainment. will have a far different reaction on one individual than on another. One type of person will become very talkative, bright and cheerful, in other words he will radiate what he feels inside. This type of person is spoken of as one with a lot of personality; wherein another type of individual will avoid meeting people and stand aloof from the other guests. Most persons of this type when drawn in a conversation prove to be highly intelligent and oft-times in a termol inside. This type of person will be spoken of as having no personality. This is not true. He has personality but does not react outwardly or in other words, not emotionally.

In the former case, the individuals behavior was far different; he was easily observed and impressive as to the social situation. But you cannot say that this person has more personality than the latter.

Personality is not how an individual acts, but what constitutes an individual a distinct person, and a thinking and intelligent one. The most tangible portion of personality is voice, especially when assisted by art.

Carol Drake's favorite Christmas cookies

A full cookie jar adds much to the enjoyment of the holiday season. These cookies will make pleasant snacking for droppers-in or for the family.

CHOCOLATE NUT COOKIES

This luscious mouthful is a cross between a cookie and a candy. The recipe uses no sugar.

3 one-oz. squares unsweetened chocolate 1 tsp. vanilla ½ cup chopped walnuts
1 fifteen-oz. can sweetened condensed (not evaporated) milk ½ cup melted chocolate walnut meats

Melt chocolate over hot water; add condensed milk; stir until well blended; add vanilla. Stir in walnut meats; drop by ½-teaspoonfuls onto well-greased cookie sheet. Place walnut half on each cookie. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet to rack immediately. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

HONEY HERMIT

Here's another sugarless cookie. Be sure to grease the cookie sheet well, for cookies containing honey tend to stick.

¼ cup all-purpose flour ¼ cup honey
¼ tsp. soda ¼ cup melted shortening
½ tsp. salt ½ cup chopped raisins
½ tsp. cinnamon ½ cup chopped nuts
1 egg, well beaten nut meats

Sift flour and then measure into sifter with soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Combine the egg, honey, melted shortening, raisins and nut meats, beating well. Sift the flour and spices into the honey mixture, mixing well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto well-greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 12 to 15 minutes or until done. Makes 2½ dozen cookies.
