"THE CHALLENGER COLUMN" (by E. L. SPENCER) HELLO FOLKS, this is E. L. Spencer, your reporter for the Christian Endeavor League bringing you highlights of the news.

You know the other day I was passing by a friend's house and I heard an angry wife scolding her husband after asking him for the fifth Sunday to accompany her to the church.

The Christian Endeavor League had a Bible Quiz last Sunday, January 26, 1947, at Bethel AME Church. Prizes were awarded to the one who answered the most questions.

Miss Clara Bell Scott, Mr. T. C. Gary, Miss Elaine Embrey, Mr. H. L. Embrey Jr., Miss Doris Darling, Mrs. Bletson, wife of the Pastor, Mrs. Reed and yours truly.

Bethel AME Church Sunday School has a new system. The one who gets to Sunday School on time gets a gold star, all late one get a red star.

The class that has the most red stars has to entertain all of the other classes. Mrs. Reed is Supl. Well my friends, I must close for now, but keep looking in this paper for my next issue, but in the meantime here's a thought to think over.

"Religion is Insurance in the Next World Against Fire in the Next, for which Honesty is the Best Policy."

most memorable night of music and song. —St. Johns— The officers, Pastor and wife, members of St. John sincerely thank Mrs. S. Brown of Washington, D.C., for the money order check to be applied toward our Building Fund, given in honor of her deceased uncle, Mr. J. Brown, a member of St. Johns for many years.

It is gifts and contributions such as this from our many friends and members that strengthens our faith in God's program. If more of us would pause and realize that all we receive is given to us out of the goodness of God with Father and the Son Jesus Christ's hearts, we wouldn't hesitate or waver in our decision to contribute to a worthy cause such as the completion of God's great Temple of Worship according to our God-given ability. God's program will move onward, forward and upward through the 100 percent support of His children.

"God Loves a Cheerful Giver". We must continue to fly the christian banner of St. John and to do so, we must continue to contribute to this Building Fund as we march toward our goal a Bigger and Greater St. John in Omaha for our children, our community, our city, our God, spiritually and financially.

Reverend F. C. Williams of Zion Baptist Church preached to an overflowing congregation at the Union Services at Cleaves Temple Church evening, February 26, 1947. He chose his message from St. John 10th chapter 16th verse. His subject was "Jesus Dreams of His Future Task." Thoughts from the inspirational fellowship message, "It is a mighty fine thing to know that God is real and the Bible is fair and true and everybody for it tells us things we want to know and things we don't want to know for it God speaking to His children."

Union Services will be held Sunday February 2, 1947 at Zion Baptist Church with Reverend E. B. Childress of St. Johns delivering the Union message. Do you attend these Fellowship services? If not, why not? We must first be good christian brothers and sisters down here on God's earth, if we expect to reach our goal a heavenly crown in God's Kingdom.

Bringing Christ to the Nations

THE INTERNATIONAL LUTHERAN HOUR "Over Station KBON Every Sunday morn" 11:30 P. M. —Publicity Department— 3558 South Jefferson Ave. Saint Louis, Missouri

Dr. Walter A. Maier Harlingen, Texas—February 2, 1947 (Special) The fervent prayer of Christian America today is a mightier force in moulding a sound post-war world than any political program United Nations or our own Congress can offer.

Without Heaven's guidance we may see that the victories in the last war lose their advantage. The evils weidicated in our enemies may easily spring up in far greater menaces among our allies.

Never before, the radio speaker concluded, has the call for the world-wide preaching of Christ's Gospel been as necessary and promising as today. One of the churches greatest weakness, he maintained, is their failure to build and maintain hundreds of radio stations, especially throughout Europe, Asia and Africa.

Common Defense (BY REV. C. W. KERNAN) THREE WAYS—ONE GOOD, TWO BAD Beginning early in January Freedom House in New York will launch an educational campaign to help Americans recognize the totalitarian left and right—and to guide them toward a vigilant center devoted to the ideals of freedom.

Freedom House points out that on the left are the communists and fellow-travelers who set up one-sided sounding organizations as traps for minority groups and break from within established democratic political and labor organizations.

When Hitler threatened to conquer the world the American fascists were complacent and undisturbed. They fostered antagonism against minorities; they develop tensions among national groups and between capital and labor. They employ anti-Semitism for the purpose of gathering a following by whose strength they hope to obtain political power.

Freedom House points out that there is a third road—the road of democracy and one world. Along this broad center road travel the people who aspire to a genuinely democratic world. They know that freedom cannot exist in a totalitarian state, whether it be ruled by man or by lawless groups who contemptuously ignore the inalienable rights of others.

CLAIR METHODIST CHURCH 22ND & MIAMI STS., REV. C. C. REYNOLDS, Pastor Services were well attended at both the morning and night services. The pastor delivered the sermon at the morning worship. The W. S. C. S. had charge of the Night Service.

Mrs. Tenola Gray, the retiring President of the W. S. C. S. was presented a lovely token by Mrs. Margaret Yancy on behalf of the W. S. C. S. and Rev. Reynolds presented her with the W. S. C. S. past-President pin.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and arranged by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS THE GIVER OF LIFE LESSON TEXT—John 4:46-51; 5:2-9; 11:1-13. MEMORY SELECTION—I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.—John 11:25.

The miracles of God, through His servants and the Lord Jesus Christ, are not mere marvels or wonders. They are not for the advancement of the cause of any man or for personal glory. They are the mighty signs of an omnipotent God wrought for the good of men, for their spiritual enlightenment and as a testimony to the one true God.

I. A Sick Boy Made Well (John 4:46-51). A nobleman's son was sick. Ah, yes, affliction and sorrow come to the home of the rich as well as the poor. Death comes to the young as well as the old. In fact, the first grave dug in this world was for a young man.

Your BABY By Edna Mae McIntosh

Wouldn't you be incensed if someone inferred that your pride and joy is only an average baby? Of course you would because you know he is a most unusual individual and that there was never another baby just like him.

With this recognition of her baby as a distinct individual, isn't it surprising that a mother can be content with a "copy cat" in feeding him? The pattern set by other mothers of her acquaintance is too often her principal guide in this respect.

Many people seem to measure the extent of an infant's development in terms of how early he starts certain supplements to his diet. In an effort to "keep up with the Joneses" some mothers rush into extensive supplementary feeding without the counsel of the baby's physician.

Experience has shown that strained baby foods can be added with safety to the diets of most infants at comparatively early ages. In keeping with these observations, the medical profession has gradually lowered the starting age for most items.

But the doctor maintains a wide flexibility in the recommendations he makes. He recognizes, for instance that one baby's stomach is stronger than another's. Such a baby can take more food at less frequent intervals. The physician knows that some babies have more sensitive digestive systems than others and governs the introductory time for solid foods accordingly. He also knows when sufficient teeth are present for efficient chewing and is thus guided in starting the "chopped" and coarser textured foods.

Be flattered and thankful, mother, that your baby is an individual and that he needs your care and guidance be sure.

When excess food causes painful, distended gas, sour stomach and heartburn, doctors usually prescribe the "fast" method—take one or two tablets. No laxative. But our medicine is different.
