

BETHEL AME CHURCH REV. H. W. BLETSO, Pastor CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR LGE AND SUNDAY SCHOOL E. SPENCER, Reporter.

THE CHALLENGER COLUMN—HELLO FOLKS, this is your Reporter, E. L. Spencer, bringing you the latest news about Church. YOU know, a minister was invited to a meeting to discuss certain problems. So the minister gets up and says, "I have a feeling that the devil is present in this meeting today. Amen," cried an older brother from a far corner. "You've got him in close quarters. Lock the doors, and give him where he comes from! I guess we will get down to facts!"

The Christian Endeavor League had a debate last Sunday and everything worked out fine. The League will meet Sunday February 9, 1947 at 5:00 p. m. To discuss certain facts. We want all young people to attend and we want you to stay for the League which will start at 6:30 p. m. I think all young colored boys and girls should come to League and learn something about our race and try to better it. You know, I don't want to learn something about it before you can better it. You know people have a bad habit of saying its had to go—but just let them want to go some place and its never too had. So stop making excuses and come on down. The League will have a different program every Sunday, so come on down. I promise you that you will have a wonderful time. Well my friends, I don't know what classes have the most red stars but will find out and let you know. I am sorry I don't have any more of the Sunday School, other than the above statement. I have enjoyed telling you the news and I hope you enjoyed reading it. But in the mean time, here's a thought to think over—"If matches were made in Heaven, where the Cigar-lighters come from???"

ST. JOHNS AME CHURCH 22ND AND WILLIS AVE. REV. E. B. CHILDRESS, Pastor MASON DEVEREAUX, Repr.

Humility was the subject of our minister's 11 a. m. message Sunday February 2, 1943 and his text was Genesis 4th chapter and 10th verse. Thoughts from his timely and thought provoking christian sermon were as follows: The Child of God must be anchored to Jesus Christ because of his weakness. If God commands a man to follow a certain program outlined by Him (God), man ought not to hesitate to follow that program regardless of the criticism of his fellow man. If a man's heart is right (sachorage) to the Father and the Son Jesus Christ, that man can and will be a service to the Lord.

The Answer to Willie's Prayer

Willie Lee Williams, Jr., 7, is hospitalized at the Oliver General Hospital, August 22, while his father, Pvt. W. L. Williams, Sr., serves his country in uniform. Recently Willie expressed a wish. What he wanted most was a playmate to visit him—preferably a little girl. The nearby USO, operated by the YWCA, was hopefully called upon. Now, USO is well-equipped to supply hostesses to entertain veterans in hospitals and does so constantly. It is a hostess who is the matter. That it succeeded is evidenced by this picture of a happy Willie and charming little Carolyn Lamar of Augusta. USO is in the last months of its $19,000,000 appeal to enable it to continue its services until the end of the year.

Mrs. H. Adams, Young Peoples Department is sponsoring a Allen Day celebration at 3:45 p. m. at the Church Sunday, February 9, 1947. A band from the City Mission will assist these young people in this christian program. Let us all who can plan to attend this program.

The Minute Men and Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting Sunday, February 2nd, 1947 at the home of Mrs. Mary Speese. A interesting and enlightening meeting was held adjourning at 6 p. m. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Speese and her mother for the excellent hospitality.

Let us pray for the sick throughout the week wherever they are or whoever they may be.

It is good to see the progress that is being made on our Temple of Worship. Every member of our church has much to rejoice and give praises to the Almighty God that has given us day to day health and strength in order that we might contribute each Sunday in the Building Fund that the work could move forward, onward and upward without interruption. It has been a long hard struggle for many of us—full of disappointments and heartaches at times, but through faith and prayer are greatest dream is slowly unfolding before our very eyes. Some falter some have gone on, and others were on the verge of faltering at one time, but with trust and prayer, they too, regained their strength through their prayers to the Father and the Son Jesus Christ, and are marching along with that hand of faithful christians in this great program.

To them and the other members of St. Johns, there is no place for slacker, no place for waverers and no place do nothing for God's Temple, must and will move on to completion. Victory is more than in sight, and it has caused us to rejoice and sing praise to the Great Counsellor Jesus Christ.

Yes St. Johns can march on with its head forward, its eyes on its goal—a Bigger, Better, Greater St. Johns in Omaha for our children, our community, our Father and Son, Jesus Christ.

Reverend E. B. Childress of St. Johns delivered an inspiring christian message at the Union services at Zion Baptist Church on February 2nd. His text was Mark 1st, chapter 24, verse and his subject "Preaching and the Old Men." His theme throughout the message, "Let Us Alone." Thoughts from the message were as follows: "When you preach a doctrine that touches a man's income, he will cry out, 'Let me alone!' The greatest trouble or problem that the lay-minister has to face is that the people don't all think alike. Thus many have been sufficiently inoculated with the power of God, and any man in this day that can't find some good in his fellow man—there is something wrong with that man's heart."

Union Services will be held at St. Johns Sunday February 9th at 8 p. m. Reverend Raines of Cleaves Temple and his choir will be in charge of the services.

The Youth Guild Valentine Tea will be held at the parsonage Sunday, February 17th from 5 to 7 p. m. Members of St. Johns are urged to support these our Young People in this christian effort.

At a brisk, lively and spiritual filled Church conference Monday evening, February 3rd of which our pastor Reverend Childress was in charge, business of importance was transacted. The membership gave its approval by a resounding vote of the lighting system as drawn up by the Omaha Power District and our electricians and presented to them by the pastor for their approval. The approval and the initial payment was presented to the Choir on a Hammond Organ for our church Temple and the pastor was given by common consent, the power to proceed with

Improved Uniform SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for February 9 MEMORIAL SELECTION—I am that bread of life.—John 6:48.

LESSON TEXT—John 6:25-35, 56-58. MEMORIAL SELECTION—I am that bread of life.—John 6:48.

Bread! The cry of the hungry peoples of the world for bread has reminded us anew that it is the simple and elemental things of life which are of most importance. Bread, water, light—such things man cannot do without. How significant then that our Lord declared himself to be the bread of life (John 6:35), the satisfying water (John 4:14), and the light of the world (John 8:12).

Our lesson does not deal with the feeding of the five thousand, but the story of that miracle of our Lord is the background for the discourse on the bread of life which is assigned for our study. It is one of the most delightfully simple, yet unfathomably profound, portions of Scripture.

The story of how our Lord multiplied the loaves and fishes of a small boy's lunch and fed the multitude presents him as the Creator and Sustainer of all things. The people having been fed, wanted to take Jesus and make him their King (John 6:15), so he went over the Sea of Galilee to Capernaum. But he could not get away from them, for they followed him thither. Meeting them he gave them the instruction they so much needed as he effectively contrasted the temporal and earthly with the eternal and heavenly.

I. The Bread of Earth and the Bread of Heaven (vs. 25-27). They sought Jesus not that they might receive spiritual blessings, but that their stomachs might be filled (v. 26). It was not a high motive, but an understandable one, hunger, or the fear of hunger, threatens so many of the people of this earth that one does not find in his heart to condemn them too severely.

Yet it was a low motive and one which caused them to entirely miss the greatest and most blessed provision of God for their every need. The bread of this earth, bearing the imprint of a human maker, would soon leave them hungry again, and eventually they would die.

Yet it was a low motive and one which caused them to entirely miss the greatest and most blessed provision of God for their every need. The bread of this earth, bearing the imprint of a human maker, would soon leave them hungry again, and eventually they would die.

II. The Work of Men and the Work of God (vs. 28-33). Entangled as they were in earthly things and desires, they seemed for a moment to reach out toward the things of God. Jesus had been talking about everlasting life and the bread from heaven; they wanted to know what they could do to merit and receive it.

It is quite typical of man even to this day that he thinks there must be some way that he can come through to eternal blessedness by way of his own works. We shall see how effectively Jesus dealt with that folly!

The only work that man can do to meet God's first demands and inherit eternal life is to believe in Christ (v. 29). Men want to add works of penance, works of charity, deeds of righteousness, character development, the observance of religious traditions and ceremonies, the offering of prayers, and so on without end. Jesus sweeps aside all this with one brief word, saying in effect, "It is not a question of do; it is a matter of believe."

Works is not the answer to an spiritual need, but faith in Christ. We must trust God and believe in the One whom he has sent; then we are ready to go out and do his will.

They (yes, and we too) must now face the alternative.

III. The Way of Death and the Way of Life (vs. 34, 35, 56-58). One could wish that the request made in verse 34 could be taken at face value, but the fact that they later turned away and left the Lord indicates that this was again a desire for physical bread. There was probably a vague desire for eternal life, too, but not enough to make them follow through with appropriate action. How much they were like folk today who want the benefits of Christianity, but who will not take up the cross.

There is here a bold contrast between the things of this earth, which, as we use them, perish (and, alas, we perish with them), and the things of God which are of eternal value and power.

Which shall it be, reader, for you? Are you willing to go on day after day on the way of death, or will you today take Christ, who is the way of life?
