OMAHA URBAN LEAGUE

2213 Lake Street Jackson 7648

by M. M. Taylor, Industrial Secretary

INDUSTRIAL

The First Annual Youth Health Conference will be held on Friday, May 2nd, 7:00 P. M. at the Omaha Urban League Building. The Planning Committee announces the following program:

1.—"Whom Shall I Marry?" This will be a lecture and panel discussion dealing with the general subject of marital counseling. The panel will consider such factors as financial disagreements, sexual maladjustments, recreational differences, health hazards, religious differences which are the usual causes for the failure of marriage.

This panel will be led by Mrs. Lucyle Avant, formerly Marriage Counselor with The American Red Cross in Europe.

2.—"Moral Goals for Modern Youth" This panel will consider what constitutes good, normal and healthy relations between the sexes.

Mrs. Fredericks, Counselor with the Omaha Board of Education, will lead the discussion.

3.—"How Long will I Live?" In this panel will be discussed the relationship of good health and longevity to good habits of eating, dressing, exercise, and sleep. The control of social diseases and the importance of an early diagnosis of such organic diseases as cancer, heart ailment, etc.

Dr. Wesley Jones, prominent local physician and surgeon, will lead this discussion.

The following clubs and organizations are sponsors of this Conference: The Starbirds, Mid-West Athletic, Sharks, Grossicks, and Ebony Clubs; Alpha Kappa Alpha and Zeta Beta Sororities; Alpha Phi Alpha, Omega Psi Phi and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternities; The Omaha Urban League, Woodson Center, Northside YMCA and The North Branch YWCA.

Admission is free. Conference registration is limited to those 16 years old or over.

New York, N. Y., April 19, 1947 Women will play a big part in the 1947 Negro Freedom Rally scheduled for Madison Square Garden on June 16th. As never before in the history of the event, women have assumed a larger role in the dramatic demonstration that will focus attention on the evils in our democracy that threaten the rights of Negroes, labor, veterans and other minorities.

Heading the women's division of the rally are Mrs. D. Buyabuye Mdoana, prominent church leader, who is a chairman of the Executive Board, Baptist Ministers Brotherhood (N. C. C. J.) Room 606-7 Omaha Loan and Bldg. Assn. Building, Omaha 2, Nebraska

Also Mrs. Gertrude A. Robinson, president of the Metropolitan Chapter, National Council of Negro Women; Mrs. Ruby Thompson, president of the Independent Beauticians' Association; Miss Alma Vessels, Executive Secretary, National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses; Mrs. Lilla DePass, of the Jamaican Progressive League, and Mrs. Hazel Scott Powell, the Chairman of the Women's Action Committee.

The 1947 Rally will mobilize support to combat the spread of reaction and racism in America, and to exert pressure for the passage of progressive legislation to benefit Negroes and other minorities.

FROM MAY issue of the CORNET CORONET SPOTLIGHTS THE NEGRO EXPLORER MATTHEW HENSON—HERO OF THE NORTH POLE

Matthew Henson was the stout-hearted Negro explorer who suffered incredible hardships to reach the top of the world with Peary. His gallantry helped give the U. S. title to a strategic area in the Arctic, explains the May CORONET article, HERO OF THE NORTH POLE.

When Peary went eight times to the Arctic, twice in desperate tries for the Pole, it was Matthew Henson who stood by his side. They struck for the Pole in 1905, but were stopped by disintegrating ice on the Polar Sea. They returned, but instantly planned another—and a last—try. On July 6, 1908, the exploration ship, built for Arctic ordeal, steamed from New York harbor unto whistled salutes.

All during the ocean trip Henson built sledges of Peary's design, hunted walrus and seals wherever the ship stopped, and read from his Bible and the poems of Kipling. At Etah he helped to take aboard 39 Eskimos, including women and children, and 246 snarling dogs.

The work was almost unending. From his land base at Cape Columbia, Peary would send parties ahead over the ice to break trail, build igloos and leave food at

INSURANCE ASKED BY ARSON SUSPECT
A man awaiting trial on a charge of first-degree arson Wednesday dought a District Court suit to collect two thousand dollars in fire insurance.

Alonzo Crum, 1914 Charles Street, brought the suit against the points over which he and his group must pass. Thus he prepared a route that would extend almost to the Pole itself, and from this furthest point Peary would strike out for the prize.

The trek was treacherous, and they increasingly encountered ice ridges, over which they had to cut and slash their way. They had to fight for every step. They got down to only two meals a day, and their liquid was tea, since eating snow would only lower the body heat. The temperature hovered at 20 degrees below zero, and the icy winds cut them. Over the vast ice plains there was silence, shattered only occasionally by the barking of the dogs.

This, just 38 years ago, two American explorers—Peary and Henson—gave the U. S. title to the area which today is a strategic spot in any calculations for war or peace. They could not have known then that they stood on the ice over which the great four motor-plans of 1947 would pass. But Henson Hero of the North Pole did think of something significant. He says the May CORONET, he philosophized that whenever a great work is finished by a white man, a Negro generally stands somewhere near by.

OMAHA URBAN LEAGUE
The Industrial Department of the Omaha Urban League has set up a Civil Service Division for the purpose of giving help and service to constituents in the community, both veterans and others. All Civil Service releases come regularly to the Urban League where they are immediately posted. Several announcements appearing in this column will be chosen when it is ascertained that they will be more applicable. Service includes an interview with a staff person to determine eligibility, assistance with trial questions for the examination and aid in correctly making out the application forms. All necessary forms may be obtained at the Urban League and they may be completed there also.

CHANCE OF POISONING BY DDT IS REMOTE
Berkeley, Calif.—"DDT is not so dangerous after all; there is remote risk of accidental poisoning by swallowing some of it in food," according to Dr. William F. Hoskins, professor of entomology in the University of California College of Agriculture.

"Fear of the danger of DDT to humans internally seems unwarranted," says Dr. Hoskins. "Whether there is possibility of poisoning by ingestion, taking small amounts over a long period, has not been proved. Tests with animals have been reassuring, no systems of sickness developing when they are kept on a diet containing several parts per million of DDT."

National Union Fire Insurance Company
A house owned by Mr. Crum at 3032 Bedford Avenue was partially destroyed by fire March 9. He and his son-in-law, Milton Dixon, 22, were charged with first degree arson.

In statements to investigators, Dixon said he set the fire. He said his father-in-law helped him plan the blaze.

In his petition, Mr. Crum alleges:
1. On March 6, the insurance company gave him a two-thousand dollar fire insurance policy on the house. He paid an annual premium of $18.

2. On March 19 the house was destroyed by fire.
3. The insurance company has refused to pay him the two thousand dollars which he claims.

PROBLEMS OF HUMANITY
B. M. B.—My husband seriously considered going in debt to buy a truck. He has my approval. Is this a wise plan?
Ans: A man never gets ahead unless he sticks his neck out occasionally and takes a chance. Urge him to buy the truck since it meets with your approval. It will surely help increase his business.

F. M. D.—I am a young mother with five children. They have a swell dad. We have been married 10 years. We are just living and that is all. It's not because we crave good times and throw our money away, we rarely ever go to a show because we cannot afford it. I am so tired and disgusted worrying about money. What can I do?
Ans: Your income just isn't sufficient to take care of all your family's needs. Many housewives with children have increased the family income by selling and taking orders for toiletries and cosmetics right from their homes. Some sew for extra money—others arrange to keep a working mother's child for a nominal fee. Do not think of going out to take a job as your children need you badly there to do extra work in your home to get out of your present financial straits.

Ans: If you are going to give answers to other people's problems in the paper and we are sure your advice will help us too. My husband and I are elderly. We are trying to make a decision as to what to do. Should we buy a home here or go elsewhere?
Ans: Buy later. Your husband is planning to go in business again and it would be to your advantage to wait until he establishes himself before buying the home. He hasn't definitely decided where he will open his business and the issue should be settled before you invest in a home.

"I want you to know that I am getting along swell now and am very happy. When I wrote you last you told me to leave that old married man alone. I did just that. Three months later my soldier lover came home from overseas and we were married shortly afterwards. We are now so happy and very much in love, doing wonderfully well and I want to say thanks to you, my good friend Abbe!—M. P."

N. L.—My man is nice and kind. We are renting from his sister's son who is buying this double house. We rent one side. His wife and I don't speak and now he is making same effort. You know how hard houses are to find and all though they didn't tell us to move we are afraid they might. Tell us what to do?
Ans: Bury the hatchet with your husband's relatives. You are fretting and fretting there with a chip on your shoulder and they are likewise. It isn't necessary to mix freely with them unless you desire but you should be congenial and friendly. After all, your husband's cousin is your landlord and he is in a position to ask you to move. That would be a hardship on you right now.

C. C. D.—Please help me decide the best thing to do. My husband and I don't get along. He wants his way about everything. He is unfaithful to me, in fact, he stays with a woman nearly every night for a year and still cheats. I took a beauty course some time ago but gave up my job because he was so bitterly opposed to my working. I am seriously considering going back to work again and I have thought of leaving him permanently.

Ans: Go to work. Your domestic affairs aren't getting any better with your sitting home. Fact is, you are worrying and fretting and that is making conditions worse. A job will give you a lift and will do much to change your present disposition and outlook. Happier Living Lesson No. 2 HOW TO HOLD YOUR MATE, may interest you. The price is $ 25.

The 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Swankey, of 7621 E. 12th Avenue, wandered away from home April 17 and up to April 18th had not been found.

The Brooklyn All-American football conference team signed two Negro players, Elmore Harris and Samuel Gamble. Both are star football players and have a very good build-up.

Internal Revenue Collector Elmer Haha of St. Paul Minn. finds an honest man. He received a letter from Minneapolis with a check for five-hundred dollars in it for his Federal Income Tax with no name signed to it.

President Truman delivered an interesting speech at the annual Associated Press, noonday Luncheon on April 21st; it was broadcasted 1 p.m.

The Illinois Central R. R. Chicago-Champaign, Illinois, on April 19th Miami, streamliner wrecked at 20 persons were killed and 20 injured.

District of North Omaha. Yet—there are still persons who believe that there is room for more of such establishments in this district. There are in this district 24 places where you may buy liquor, ten places where you may buy groceries, six places where you may buy Drugs; is liquor really that essential in this district? This is the question that is up to the citizens of this community to answer.

A group of citizens of which the Exalted Ruler of this order, Mr. Charles F. Davis, was a member have halted the transferring of a liquor licence from the Omaha Central district to this district. The Iroquois Lodge salutes the committee which worked hard to prevent the transferring of the licence for a liquor establishment in this district.

As the last regular session of Iroquois Lodge, Bro. James R. McAlister Sr. recommended that the members of this order endorse a campaign for the safety of this community as a part of the city of Omaha. The supervision of such a project will endeavor to educate our community to the necessity of taking care while walking, driving or playing in the streets of this community endangering not only the safety record of this community, but the lives of our families.

A NOTE TO MEMBERS OF IROQUOIS LODGE
Attend your meetings, converse with with your Brothers, know what's going on in your Lodge.

The Drum-Bugle Corps of Iroquois Jr. High No. 92 will have something new to offer this year. Under the direction of Bro. Charles A. Hamilton, Mrs. Marie Parker, Bro. Major Underwood, the Corps is working earnestly to bring about something which we all will be proud of; a Corps with outstanding musical talent, and marching ability.

Contributing to Better Government
The brewing industry takes the same active interest as the public and public officials in seeing that provisions of Nebraska's excellent liquor control laws are properly observed wherever beer is sold.

These efforts—which ease the work of enforcement officials, relieve the need for penalties, and help protect the best interests of the public—represent a contribution to good government.
