

HAWKINS TALKIN'

At the fights in downtown Omaha last Monday the fans witnessed one of the best cards seen around here in a long time.

Speedy Moore should be waking to the fact that he is spotting his men too much weight and reach. True, Speedy is in there trying at all times but the price to pay is too great.

In the second fight Paul Martinez, Omaha, defeated Harold (Long Hair) Wilson of Denver. Wilson had a nice left but no right.

In the third fight of the evening, Eugene Brown, Omaha welter fighter, from school proved to the crowd that he is right as good as his left.

Bob Diego Hidalgo with a right hand smash to the chops early in the second, later in the same round he knocked him out with the same punch.

Morton Craves of Des Moines showed the fans that he is the classiest thing in these parts when he soundly thrashed Mustang Garcia of Santa Fe in the fourth bout of the night.

In the semi-windup Joe Danos took an Alex Fidler decision over Gene Buffalo of Philadelphia. The crowd thought that Buffalo did not fight the way he knows and can, I am of the same opinion myself.

In the main go Vince Foster took a beating from Ben Montabana of Alabama. Vince showed the fans that he is not ready for big time fighting and perhaps never will be, in fact I can name two local boys that can and will knock him out. Please believe me.

Joe Baksi has reconsidered the offer to fight Joe Louis. The only thing that he can match Louis with is his first name. Baksi would like to fight Louis next fall after a couple of tune up bouts.

Bob Montgomery of Philadelphia won a one sided decision over George La Rover in Philadelphia the other night in a non-title bout. Montgomery took eight of the ten rounds therefore making the decision unanimous.

The reason that Buddy Niccnae was let out of city recreation was the lack of funds and not for reasons unknown as stated in this column last week.

At the near north side Y George Dixon and the "Hawk" are still talking on all comers and defeating them. What about that stuff you checker players?

Bud Lawson says that he can match fish with anybody. How about that stuff you fisherman? Last week Lawson caught the limit in crappies at Carter Lake while everybody else was catching nothing.

At Post No. 1 next Monday night Reggie Hughes, Kippy Triggs, and James Womack will step into the squared circle to square off against other men in their classes.

All waiters should attend church services on Mother's day in honor of Mother. Musician head water and Willie awake crew going good at all times.

Mr. Glover Scott the wide awake pastry man at the OUC is very much out in front topping the service, in a very fine way.

H. W. Smith attended the opening game of baseball of the K. C. Monarchs and the Chicago Giants in K. C. May 4.

Rev. H. W. Bleston, Pastor Chester Scott, Reporter

Thursday the kindness of Mr. Kermit Hansen, editor of Youth Activities for the World-Herald, Charles St. Center is the proud possessor of a very beautiful piano. The boys and girls are enjoying it immensely. Thanks a million to Mr. Hansen.

The style show at the center on Monday night displayed many models in Easter toggery, glamorous with a capital G can only tell the tale.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH 22nd Willis Ave. Reverend E. B. Childress Mason Devereaux Jr., Reporter

Angels of Earth the fitting subject used by our Pastor from the text John 19 chapter 29 verse, for his warm christian spiritual Mother's Day morning message Sunday May 11th. An overflowing congregation gathered to honor their mothers both living and dead and to hear this thought provoking message by our pastor.

Thoughts that impressed his spiritual-filled congregation were as follows: "We adults must first present ourselves to God by coming to the altar thus our beloved children will do likewise, we must stand by our children whatever befalls them, and there is no better testimony of a mother's love for her children when we witness around us from day to day many mothers denying themselves in order that their children might achieve such in session; enough money was approached."

Visitors: Mr. William Perry of Omaha, Mr. Robert Johnson of Omaha, Mrs. A. Johns of Omaha, Miss Iola Johnson of Omaha, Miss N. Perry of Omaha, Mr. T. C. Emery of Omaha, Mr. T. C. Emery of Omaha, Mr. F. Gorge, of Omaha, Miss Ruby Gorge, of Omaha, Mr. Harold Johnson of Omaha, Mr. Tom Jefferson of Omaha, Mrs. Dallas Kinkade of Omaha, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Talley of Los Angeles, Calif.

The officers and pastor appeal to the members to continue to give freely according to one's God-given ability to the Building Fund. It is imperative that each member of St. Johns contribute to his or her utmost to this most worthy cause. "Let not it be said that this cause lacks a champion." Contributions in any denomination is needed today. So why not make

Now's The Time For Good Gardeners To Join Together Over A Sociable Cup

WHEN spring's in the air, it's high time for good gardeners to get together for a sociable evening and compare notes on favorite theories on seeds and exposures. You'll heartily fulfill your hostess duties if you provide sweets and ample beverage supplies to spice the conversation.

A treat that's sure to appeal to spring-time appetites is a plateful of tiny open face cookies filled with varied sweets. A light crisp confection is best to co-star with jelly and fillings. It's a good idea to serve decaffeinated coffee so your enthusiastic gardeners can spice their conversation with extra cups without losing sleep later on.

Second cups are no trouble, if you use the new instant decaffeinated coffee. Just add hot water, if the temperature's right for a piping hot beverage. Or if the evening's suddenly warm, just dissolve the instant decaffeinated coffee with water from the tap and add ice. In a minute you'll be assured of a tinkling glass of rich, full-bodied coffee.

A fluff of whipped cream adds appeal to the iced glass. As a festive touch try mixing the decaffeinated coffee with chocolate drinks.

A rolled pastry cookie is best for the jelly filling. Stamp circles with a biscuit cutter. Use a thimble dipped in flour to cut out the centers from half of the disks. Place a small spoonful of jam or preserves on the lower circles, top with the cut-out circles, and bake until they are lightly brown. Serve either hot or cold.

BROTHERLY BEHAVIOR BY CAPT. EARLE CONOVER

"THEIR HERE" On a huge sign displayed across the front of a store in my neighborhood may be seen the words, "Their Here". Listed below are some of the articles for the sale, the badly-needed, post war, home appliances.

Every time that I've seen that sign I've asked myself, "Whose Here" is this, after all? Does it belong to one group?" Ellis Arnell, Former Governor of Georgia, recently lectured in our city, using the thought-provoking subject, "Whose America Is It, Anyway?" Let's think about it!

While America was discovered and colonized early by certain national and religious groups, through out its entire history immigrants from practically all sections of the globe have settled in it. So, from the very first, America was something more than a one-group, one-culture country.

Yet in many places and in many times some of our fellow citizens have lived so selfishly and so blindly that they have deprived others of their own birthrights.

"WE THE PEOPLE" The Preamble of our constitution may well be a "must" reading for our citizenry: "WE, THE PEOPLE of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this
