THE YOUTH GUILD

GUESS WHO?
Who will be the duke and who will be the duchess? This is the big question being asked by everyone. Of the following girls, who will be the duchess?
Barbara Long
Mickey Jean Harris
Patricia Simms
Catherine Cole
Lorraine Anderson
Ruth McGee
Delores Taylor

If you want your favorite to win, help boost her up by buying a ticket which, not only will help her, but also will benefit you, because there will be lots of entertainment and the sight of many of the prettiest girls in Omaha. As to the duke—well that's a secret to be kept until June 9, 1947. It might even be you, young man, who knows?

So come on, everybody, let's make this a gala affair. It is given by the youth and is for the youth and adults alike.
Barbara Long, President
Evelyn Trigg, Secretary

Nebraska GIs Have Grade A Record

For sticking to study, Nebraska GI college students have hung up a Grade A record during the current semester, a statistical report from the Veterans Administration Lincoln Regional office showed today.

Nebraska GIs Have Grade A Record

Ashley Westmoreland, manager of the Lincoln VA regional office, said that almost 1,000 World War II veterans will finish this semester, a statistical report from the Veterans Administration Lincoln Regional office showed today.

Nebraska GIs Have Grade A Record

Westmoreland added that as of May 1, a total of 24,915 World War II veterans were pursuing educational courses either in schools of all types, or in on-the-job training programs. The total, which includes enrollments for all types of training, is the largest number recorded by the VA in Nebraska since the start of the GI programs in 1944.

Nebraska GIs Have Grade A Record

A combined birthday party for Shaun and Diana Lewis of 2430 Grant st., daughters of Mrs. Joseph Lewis was enjoyed by all the guests. About 15 were present. Little Joe Davis was escorted to the party by his grand mother, Mrs. Martha Kimsey, also escorted her three children, Richard, Patsy and Victor. Many lovely gifts were received by Diana and Shaun.

THE MENO CHARITY CLUB

The Meno Charity club met at the home of Mrs. Lucy Britt, 2114 Lake st., May 21. There was also another meeting of importance held at the home of Mrs. Britt at 3:00 that same afternoon, a meeting of vast importance to the colored graduates of our high schools. The meeting, headed by our president, Mrs. Edna Thomas Williams, and ably supported by Mrs. Britt, Mrs. Robbie Turner Davis, Mrs. Hattie Moore, Mrs. Mary Austin, a retired teacher and Mr. Kenneth Burchoide of North high school, assistant principal, after going through the records of several very brilliant students, they were faced with the fact that two of the girls were tied on all points, scholarship, citizenship, personality and contribution to the community. This placed us in an awkward position because we were only supposed to present two fifty dollar scholarships, one to a boy and one to a girl, but both girls being equal we felt it very unfair to give the scholarships to one and not the other. Also we did not wish to divide it so the Meno Charity Club hastily raised another fifty dollars to present to three graduates. Cozetta Eubanks, Florine Crawford, and Earl Hunigan Jr. of Central.

We wish to thank Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Austin, Mr. Kenneth Burchoide and also Dr. Sully of the Omaha University for the help he so kindly offered. And to the fortunate students we wish you all the success in your school years ahead.

WATSON SCHOOL OF COSMETOLOGY

Knowledge—skill—knowing what to do. Skill—in knowing how to do. Wisdom—applying both.

This is the motto employed by all associated with this institution of the present and past. The Watson school of beauty culture had Miss Eris May Mayfield to pass the April Board, and is preparing the following students for the July board: Miss Laura Gilmore, Miss Nadine McVowin, Mr. James Donaldson, and Mrs. Rosa Lee Stuart. Mrs. Fleming of the school recently visited her parents in Tulsa, and neighboring cities in Oklahoma. Miss Philper, an old student is returning to classes soon. Mrs. Cornelius Edwards, a former graduate, is now in business at 2507 North 24th st., the former shop of Willa Johnson, who is now residing in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Doolittle wish to announce the arrival of their bouncing baby son, Phillip, Jr., on May 26 at St. Catherine's hospital at 5:30 p. m. Baby Phillip weighed six pounds and two ounces and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Knight and Mrs. Rita Doolittle.

Mr. Lewis Williams, night watchman at the Elks Lodge, is reported very ill. We the Omaha Guide staff, and his many friends are hoping him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Gertrude Robbin of 2819 North 24th reports that her husband, Mr. John Robbin's condition remains about the same, no improvement has taken place. Their many friends are wishing him a very speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, formerly of 2532 Burdette st. are moving to Mrs. Redds on Ohio st.

Don't drive home with a tired, run-down feeling on your face. You can't manage at what a tired person is. You can't do your best. You can't enjoy life. You can't be a success. You can't be a leader. You can't be a champion. You can't be a hero. You can't be a saint. You can't be a god. You can't be a man. You can't be a woman. You can't be a child. You can't be a baby. You can't be a fool. You can't be a knave. You can't be a scoundrel. You can't be a villain. You can't be a criminal. You can't be a sinner. You can't be a devil. You can't be a demon. You can't be a ghost. You can't be a witch. You can't be a wizard. You can't be a sorcerer. You can't be a magician. You can't be a juggler. You can't be a clown. You can't be a comedian. You can't be a dancer. You can't be a singer. You can't be an actor. You can't be a playwright. You can't be a poet. You can't be a philosopher. You can't be a scientist. You can't be a mathematician. You can't be a physicist. You can't be a chemist. You can't be a biologist. You can't be a geologist. You can't be a historian. You can't be a linguist. You can't be a sociologist. You can't be a psychologist. You can't be a psychiatrist. You can't be a theologian.

Old and . . .
