The Nebraska State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held their Forty-Second Annual Session June 24, 1947 at Clair M. E. Church, 22nd and Miami st.

The meeting opened at 10 a. m. with Devotional service with our Vice-president, Mrs. Mary Smith in charge. We had an enjoyable hour of worship. Opening song—"Love Lifted Me"; Prayer by Mrs. Forsett; Scripture Lesson—13th Psalm by Mrs. Leola Fitzpatrick; Song—"Eless, Be the Tie That Binds".

Mrs. Rev. Farmer with her lovely voice and talent added much to the devotion.

11 A. M.
Mrs. Pinkie Anderson, State president, received a big hand from the club women when she took her seat. A word of prayer by the Chaplain, Mrs. Hattie Adams.

State Moot: "Sowing for Others to Reap".
National Motto: "Lifting as We Climb".

Greetings from the president; Roll call of officers.

The president appointed various committees: Finance Committee—Chairman—Mrs. Pearl Brummett; By-laws Chairman—Mrs. Clair Prater; Resolutions Chairman—Mrs. Rev. Farmer; Scholarship Chairman—Mrs. Sarah Walker; Ways and Means Chairman—Mrs. Victoria Campbell.

A lovely talk by Mrs. Fannie Mooser, a visiting member on the duties of the Federated Clubs. Mrs. Mooser also commented on the work the women were doing in Washington, D. C.

Paper by Mrs. Greta Wade—Subject: Better Homes and Gardens Could be an Asset to the Community.

Response by Rev. Mrs. Farmer highlighting how we could humble ourselves and be better Servants of Man and Leaders.
Adjournment for Lunch
Pictures were made by photographer.

2 P. M.
Afternoon Session with Mrs. Mary Smith, Vice-president, presiding; Solo by Mrs. Farmer—"God Will Take Care of You"; Welcome Address by Mrs. Lillian Johnson.

The reports from all committees were received and accepted. Annual address by Mrs. Pinkie Anderson, State President. Introduction of visitors. We were very to have our visitors with us.

Guest Speaker—Mrs. H. L. Bleason. Subject: "Club Women of Yesterday"
Mrs. Bleason's inspiring words gave the club women of today material for advancement.

Response—Mrs. Mary Goodlett Eureka Club paid their pledge for the building funds. Awarding of the Loving Cup went to the Carver Study Club. Silver Leaf Club was admitted to the Federation. President—Mrs. Gertrude Ashley. The Federation was glad to welcome such a lovely group of ladies.

Amendment to Art. 11
The name "Old Folks Home" would be changed to "Federation Home."

New Resolution—The president should be allowed to appoint a cabinet to assist her.

I, Leola Fitzpatrick, Chairman of Press, am happy to say we had a lovely meeting and much was accomplished. The various clubs to be commended on their yearly reports.

Well, Well, Well, Ghost Town is just another name for Chocolate Avenue. All the Kats, Studs, and Jitterbugs are at work, so lets pick up on what's knocking after a hard days sharva (meaning work).

So wait and lets see what my friend, his friend, their friend has to say!!!

Are you alive to the jive that T. S. and a few other studs are chasing a little blonde around?—may the best man win!! dig. Calling all cats!!!

So Tinny is up and around a gain looking very small, but still the same old Tinny, so I hear! She's not armed. Guess Who?

What certain jitterbug got home the other nite sleeping with wiffie wen to reach up for the stars and turned on the lights, and was gassed. I wonder. Ambitious—

I wonder if Buster R. is so enthused over his working that he has completely forgotten about the chicks all together, and has lost some weight (girls) and looking real gone! Gone—

What's left is good, but what's good is gone, I'm speaking of none other then the Drum and Bugle Corp Elk's Convention, which was in Denver last week. Everyone so they tell me had a trim time, in other words Booted or fine.

Since our good friend Muggs Burton is still working, she's sporting some fine Duds.

Boom! While speaking of work, I looked in on our friend, Ella Seay now at the Crossstown, also Thelma Pruitt is now doing something useful, but using her head seeing first class pictures at the Paramount (smile).

Wonder Why—is so drowsy since—is out of the city? Cheer up pal, he'll be back soon.

The Red Signal will be out, watch for it. (Danger is on the Way) (slang) Surprise!!

So they tell me our good friend, Bernice B. is back in the fair city and is wearing the latest in the line of spark plugs. Good luck to you both. Maddest Romance in town.

Exclusive boy meets girl story, the boy Cottredde, the girl Johnny Burton. It's Love, Love, Love, Amelia Orduna isy et the ace; so far she hasn't got stuck in the deal—she and Ed are sold.

We got a letter from Robert Rodgers, sends love to all his friends and sends lafter to the outsiders.

Congratulations to Lena and Johnny Speece, who are now back from their "Honeymoon trip to Berkley, Calif. Good Luck to you both. TheLick—

Our hats off to the lovely couple of the year, Betty Stewart and her hubby, Al Holts. Ouu—La, La
Edward Baugh/news has reached me that you crazy about Miss Charline D., Is it true? Good Deal!!!

Clarence W. Has become quite a play boy here lately. What's up kid? Spotted—

Harold Mathews sparying water on cars on 24th and Charles. What's the matter, Harold? Is the weather about to get you down?

A groovy affair was the Erskine Hawkins Dance. Monday Nite, Eevervone had a fine time, Nate Harvey really did look fine, also our good friend, J. C., although it was a lut' warm (hot). Crash Boy meet Horn!

Boy Willie craser Doris or should I say the big hunk of humanity, Norma Johnson (sex), that her column in the Star (bdg Back—

Wonder if Kat W. is really as proud as she was a few months ago to see our good friend, Billie Cunningham. You know Kat, he's only human and can only stand so much!!! get me!

Cute boys of the season are:
1. John Homeler
1 1/2 Harom Valintine

Michael Souch, an iron worker, and his son Charles an airplane were found dead in Phoenixville, Penn. on June. Police listed it as a double suicide.

Five men were rescued from a 45 foot clipper thistle. It has been missing since May 19 from San Pedro, Calif. They were suffering from thirst and sunburn. They relied on rain water to drink and were without shelter.

Nichols Jacobson, 16 year old boy, made a dive from a pier in Lake Michigan in shallow water on June 29. His neck was broken and he died instantly.

Naval Air Base Officials of Olathekan had a problem on June 28 when crews attempted to warm up 165 naval airplanes. They found thousands of bees swarming over five of the planes. Carbondioxide was used to freeze like it. When the pilots took off and landed, the bees took over a thgm, but the bees seemed to gain.

Herman Woifs was killed near Reidbury, Wisconsin on June 28, when his light plane crashed into a tree while he skimmed low in an insective spraying operation.

Are you a member of the NAACP? If not, take out membership today.

Omaha, glad to have you visit the dear old city kid and don't let this be all for the summer.

Our hearts tell us that the boys standing on 25th and Lake st., Monday evening minds were far away. Wonder what girl they were chatting about this time! Ask Bobby Lawrence Wilkerson and James F., they'll tell you! (Won't you B. O.)

You know? yes, that's it. Wonder where she's been. Im speaking of none other than Jean Pierce. Don't get around much anymore. Come out, come out and play the game cause school is out and we're calling your name, Jean

CASHIN DENIED $20,000 AS CO EXECUTOR OF ABBOTT ESTATE

ART TATUM SUE FOR SUPPORT OF SON

CHICAGO, Ill.—Judge William F. Wagh this week denied the claim of $20,000 which James B. Cashin, civil service commissioner, is asking as co-executor of the estate of Robert S. Abbott, late publisher of the Chicago Defender. Moreover, Judge Wagh sharply criticized Cashin as having "used his power and authority as co-executor to become chairman and general counsel of the publishing company, and having received about $20,000 already for services in several capacities.

TOLEDO, O.—The Internationally known blind jazz pianist, Art Tatum, was sued June 20th. for the sum of $3,735 by Mrs. Margaret J. Collins.

According to Judge Wagh, Cashin "had consistently opposed the efforts of his co-executor (John Sengstacke, present publisher of the Defender) to close the estate. It is difficult to believe that this opposition was not influenced by the substantial compensation he was receiving."

Mrs. Collins charges that Tatum owed her that much money for the support of his 14 year old son.

The Judge felt that some of Cashin's services as stated were in conflict with the best interests of the estate.

Abbott's was originally estimated at $40,000, but Judge Wagh has estimated that $2,498 shares of the company's stock, the estate principal asset, is worth $250,000. The ownership of this stock is still in dispute with Sengstacke, nephew of the late publisher, claiming that Abbott gave it to him before he died.
