22nd Willis Ave.
Rev. E. B. Childre, Jr., reporter

"Then Peter said, 'Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk'..."

His outstanding thoughts of day was as follows: "there are gifts to mankind from God our more secure; it is a great responsibility for a man to stand in the stead of Jesus Christ, and a man oughtn't be afraid to die, but he ought to be ashamed to die outside of the kingdom of God."

Visitors: Mrs. O. Robinson of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. E. Duker of Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. E. Bennett 2208 Seward Plaza of Omaha...

Let us pray for the sick throughout the week whoever they may be, or wherever they may be. Now that the Fourth Quarterly Conference is in the background let us turn our eyes to that great and important conference in October (the Annual Conference)...

When we support those that serve us true and faithfully, we in turn are supporting St. John's church and the great program. Pay your Annual Assessment won't you?

The officers, pastors, members, and friends of St. John's express their sincere thanks to Mrs. E. B. Childress our pastor's wife for those wonderful echoes that she gave us on Sunday morning Aug. 24 from the Quadrennial Conference in New Orleans where she attended in the capacity as a representative of the Missionary Department of our church...

In these few lines above we the members, pastor, and Officers of St. John's want our choir and directress to know how we feel about the fine work they are doing in lifting the spiritual side of the church higher. Through diligent and constant toil you have been able down through the years to bring us those fine 'All Request Programs' such as you brought to us Sunday evening August 24.

We say to you continue to sing the praises of God the Master for St. John's the people of Omaha, and the Son Jesus Christ. John Orduna sponsor of the Youth for Christ Group desires the presence of the members and friends of St. John's at their first service at 8 p. m. Sunday August 31. Won't you come out and encourage these our Young People and bring a friend?

Miss Micky J. Harris is president of the Youth For Christ. Mrs. E. B. Childress will speak on Sunday August 31, at 3 p. m. at the Pilgrim Baptist church on their Annual Women's Day program. Members and friends of St. John's plan to attend this service.

Coming Events: King Solomons Wedding Sept. 29. Rev. J. C. Wadd of Salem Baptist Church Sept. 28. Annual Conference October 1.

The Minute Men were sumptuous entertained at the church by the Women's Auxiliary on Monday evening August 25.

Mr. A. R. Goodlett the president informed us that since the Ladies lost in the Friendly Rally between the men and women they had to pay the supreme penalty the serving of the men.

Mothers send your children to Sunday school every Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. Atten our morning services at 11 a. m. Our Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Visitors and friends are always welcome at St. John's the friendly church at 22nd Willis av. Come and worship with us won't you?

The services were of the usual high, spiritual, order last Sunday. The pastor delivered a very challenging and instructive sermon. Several visitors were present from other churches as well as out-of-town visitors. Mrs. Catty McNeal sang "I'll Die With The Staff In My Hand."

Rev. H. C. Moore and family, pastor of St. Luke Methodist Church, Mexico, Mo., worshiped with us both Morning and Night. Rev. Moore delivered the sermon at the Night Service. Rev. W. C. Lacey of Hastings, Nebr. also worshipped with us in the Night Service, and our Rev. F. C. Williams of Zion looked in upon us Sunday night.

Our Pastor Rev. Reynolds will use for his theme this coming Sunday Morning, Aug. 31, "Heart Trouble". You are cordially invited to all of the services at Christian War-mth.

Don't forget, you will want to hear the Rev. W. C. Johnson, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Coffeyville, Kansas at Clair Church Sunday Sept. 7.

The Choir sang "I'll Let No-thing Separate Me From His Love" Before the pastor delivered his sermon he asked the congregation to sing "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross". His sermon was from Isaiah 6:8, "Also heard the voice of the lord, saying whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I Here am I send me". Even though our friends may turn their backs on us, we must stand up for Jesus Christ. Life in this world is uncertain, but death is sure. Even if my friends turn their back on me I'm going to hold on to God's unchanging hand.

For the opening of the doors of the church Mrs. Britt lead "Precious Lord", followed by Jesus Is Real", by the choir. I am very pleased that I was present in the service this morning because each song sang was among my favorite.

Plan to hear the sermon by Rev. Clayton of Mt. Olive Baptist Church and Choir Sunday afternoon August 31. We will appreciate your support.

We are always happy to have visitors worship with us. Let us continue to pray for the shut-ins.

MARK in Industry
In more and more industries milk is being used to improve employees' health and complete fatigue. Reduction in accidents with an increase in safety, less absenteeism due to illness, increased production during hours of fatigue operations, are reported where milk is being served between meals of skilled diets.

Tuesday, Sept. 2, marks the beginning of another school term for most of the children our city. Great expense is involved in getting the schools in readiness so that children may learn the facts of good citizenship, the 3 R's and so forth under the best possible conditions. All this is pleasing in God's sight. However, more important than all secular knowledge is the Word of God which makes children "wise unto salvation". The benefits of earthly education fade away with the passing years, while the blessings of Christian knowledge and faith abide forever.

Realizing this important truth, Hope Lutheran is conducting a Christian Day School. The public schools cannot teach religion. It is an agency of the State, and the State is not allowed to teach religion. The Constitution of our country forbids that. The teaching matter in which every Christian congregation should be vitally

Bring Christ to the Nations

ST. LOUIS, MO. — An appeal for faith in Christ was issued today by the Rev. Henry Hartner, Pastor of Emmaus Lutheran Church, Denver, Colorado, and summer guest speaker on Bringing Christ to the Nations, the International Lutheran Hour.

Speaking over the Mutual Broadcasting System and affiliated stations, Pastor Hartner declared: "Jesus says to every follower, 'As My Father hath sent Me, even so I send you.' We do not realize the way we should, that one of the great words in the vocabulary of Jesus is the word, 'Go'. There is another word we like much better, 'Come'. We love to hear Him say, 'Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' Let's pause to realize that all who come to the Lord Jesus are also told to go. He called the twelve to Him, filled with His truth and then told them to go and testify to His name among men. He called the seventy to Him and gave them a message for the saving of men and said, 'Now go, and tell it abroad.' And to more than 500 gathered to hear His last charge He spoke that word once more, 'Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, heaven and earth can pass away but never the Word of our Lord's will for his life, he will hear again the same charge, 'Go and seek the lost in order to save them.'"

Pastor Hartner continued: "How about the church of your day and mine? Is she fulfilling the command of Christ? Is she earnestly seeking the lost to save them? And I suspect you know the answer before I tell you. Last year some sixty religious denominations in our land, and that includes all important churches, made an annual increase in membership of less than two percent. Just looking at that fact from the standpoint of the billions of dollars which are invested in church property and millions of professing Christians who ought to be witnessing for their dear Lord, such a low rate of annual increase is nothing short of terrible; but as a matter of fact, that isn't half of it. Statisticians tell us that only about thirty percent of all church members attend church with any degree of regularity, twenty percent attend irregularly, and fifty percent just go to church once or twice a year or not at all. What is the matter?"

The radio speaker concluded: "The plain fact of the matter then is that every follower of the Lord Jesus has a divine obligation to witness unto others the glory of the love of Jesus which he himself has received, to tell them 'the sweetest story ever told.' It is very true that Jesus has prepared the feast of everlasting salvation; but it is also true that you and I are to fill that banquet hall. We are to go out into the streets and lanes of the city to bring them in; we are to go out into the highways at all times. Polite and courteous and hedges of the country and service to all.

After a summer vacation, the famous nine-year-old "Southern Rivers" choir of Oklahoma City will again be heard over radio station WKY where it has enjoyed a choice spot for the last four years. The choir, directed by Miss Evelyn LaRue Pittman, a graduate of Spelman college, Atlanta has made recordings of two Negro spirituals, "Rock A Mah Soul" and "Lord, I Would Come to Thee". The latter features the baritone voice of Isaac Kimbro, while the crying-like, contralto voice of Madie Allen is heard in "Lord, I Would Come to Thee." In her book, "Rich Heritage," Miss Pittman is the first to glorify distinguished Negro race leaders through songs, short stories and pictures.
