BRINGING CHRIST TO THE NATIONS

Saint Louis, Missouri, March 21, (Special) "The Holy Week change from Palm Sunday's acclaim of Christ to Good Friday's rejection finds its greatest modern parallel in the present day sabotage of the Christian faith," Dr. Walter A. Mair, professor at Concordia Seminary, declared here today in an international broadcast over the Lutheran Hour. "Multitudes who generations ago were mobilized under the battle of Christ's cross," he said, "are now parading under the red flag of sworn hostility to heaven. This new skepticism," he maintained, "has far outstripped the French Revolution."

The worst is yet to come, Dr. Mair predicted, asserting that a period of severe financial readjustment must come and that this will be a Roman holiday for the agents of atheism. "Now," he added, "is the time for churches in the United States to plan an all out program for counteracting the first religious persecutions this country will experience."

"One effective antidote to the advantage of grim godlessness," the radio speaker maintained, "is the rededication to the message of Holy Week, which the love of God has shown by Christ's self-sacrificing on the cross." He stated, "Let this be pledged and believed with the fervor of the new faith, and Communism will collapse in its own ruin. History has shown that the Hallelujah Chorus sung by small bands of believers had defeated hate-chanting unbelievers. The darkness which covered the world for three hours on the first Good Friday is paralleled by the blackness of sin and suffering which has engulfed the globe for the last three years, the suffering of hatred and tyranny unparalleled in American history. This can be banished only when men believe the Almighty, penitently acclaim the Savior, and prayerfully seek to walk in his way."

FORMER OMAHAN DEAD
Clarence "Curly" Session was found dead February 24, at his apartment, 261 West 45th Street, New York City, N. Y. He died of a heart attack. He was formerly a waiter of the Jack and Jill in Omaha.

His brother, Emmett Sessions came to take his body to his home, Fort Worth, Texas. He was a cousin of the late Clifford Sessions.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Mrs. Cavia Buckner of 2218 Miami street celebrated her birthday today, March 25, with a party, at the home of Mrs. Maude Carter at 25th and Burdette streets. A host of friends helped her to make the evening a success, and many lovely gifts were received.

LEAVES FOR CALIFORNIA
Miss Laura Love of 2614 Emmett street, leaves for Los Angeles, California, for a weeks vacation on April 4 to visit her brothers, Sonny Love an excellent pilot, and Dude Love, formerly of Omaha and to join her mother, Mrs. Mexie Love, who will be returning to Omaha with her daughter.

LEAVES FOR MEETING
Rev. J. H. Reynolds of Pleasant Green Baptist Church left for Ottumwa, Iowa, for a two day Spring Board Meeting, March 30-31.

SWEETHEART DANCE
The Sweethearts of Rhythm dance was a success. The girls really showed their talent and played to a responsive crowd. Anna Mae Winburn still holds her own and is singing as great as ever. Betty Givens also sang as guest soloist.

Sunday School 10:00 A.M.
Sunday Worship 11:00 A.M.

Easter has come and gone. To many, Easter meant little more than new bonnets, rabbits, colored eggs, and the afternoon dress parade on Main Street. To many others it was the day on which they must go to church even though they go no other Sunday. Churches are usually well filled on Easter Sunday. However, if people have learned to know the true meaning of Easter Sunday, they will be found in church worshipping their risen Savior every Sunday of the year. The values of Easter, therefore, cannot be estimated until the congregation is counted on the following Sunday. No one who understands the meaning and benefits of Christ's resurrection will say after the Easter services: "Thank God, that's done; now I don't have to go to church again until next Easter." Hope Lutheran bids you welcome and invites you to join its worship every Sunday in order that true and lasting Easter joy may be yours here in time in all the ages of eternity.

We also invite you to hear God's word daily, Monday through Friday, at 9:00 a. m. over KSWI 1560. This program is known as "The Daily Chapel". A Daily Chapel Calendar list of speakers for each day will be mailed to you upon request. Address your request to "The Daily Chapel", Frank and Perrin Sts., Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott of Chicago, Ill. attended Easter services at Clair Chapel and were well pleased with the sermon by Reverend J. E. Wade.

SUN RISE PAGEANT
Rev. R. W. Johnson's pageant, "The Uplifted Christ" was again a great success this Easter. Six hundred people attended the beautiful Easter Pageant. He received many phone calls asking if he would repeat the performance.

The floor committee gave a Church dinner which was a huge success.

JUBILEE SINGERS TO BE HERE SOON
Mr. Lawrence Hickman, booking agent for the Howard Jubilee Singers, left Thursday for St. Paul, Minn., after visiting for three days in the city. He was here on business. The singers are to be here at Rev. R. R. Brown's Church soon.

STILL SICK
Mr. L. L. Mc Vay of 2868 Corby Street condition as of today, March 30, was still critical. He is still in a coma.

BROTHERHOOD DANCE
Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters gave a dance with a god orchestra, Monday nite, but they played to small a crowd. Chances were bought for 10 cents for the winning of a pressure cooker.

Death of Presidents
Seven Presidents have died in office: William Henry Harrison, Zachary Taylor, Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield, William McKinley, Warren G. Harding and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Only Taylor and Roosevelt died in office while congress was in session.

Your Fire Loss
Direct losses by fire in 1947 soared to an unprecedented 700 million dollars, or 23 per cent higher than in 1946. This fire loss, if apportioned equally among America's 60 million jobholders, would cost each wage-earner $11.66.

YOUR FAMILY'S FOOD
With meat prices on the upswing again, budget-minded menu planners are in a "dither" What to serve in place of expensive meats seems to be the perennial question for many of us. The following information from the United States Department of Agriculture may offer some timely suggestions:
Home-grown rabbit meat can aid family meals and budgets this year when supplies of other meat are expected to be shorter. Families in any village or town where poultry raising is permitted can keep rabbits and provide for a year round supply of this white, delicately flavored, nutritious meat.
National Rabbit Week, March 28 to April 3 is a reminder to thrifty families that a few rabbits—three or four does and a buck of breeding age—purchased this spring will provide fryers by summer when other meat is less plentiful. Any surplus may be preserved by freezing or canning. producers today make a profitable business of selling dressed young rabbit meat, fresh, and in frozen form, in open faced cartons.
Domestic rabbit meat is all white, like breast of chicken, entirely different from wild rabbit, and in season at any time of the year. Domestic rabbits do not have the disease tularemia. In western states where rabbit raising in an extensive industry rabbit meat sells at meat markets and is served regularly in hotels, restaurants and the home.
Young rabbit like young chicken is cooked by the quick methods of frying or broiling. Rabbits may also be stuffed and roasted. Older meat is excellent for fricassees, casseroles, rabbit pie, salad, chop suey, and other dishes made from mature chicken. Barbecued rabbit is a favorite western dish.

ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY
Thaddius Baker was arrested for vagrancy and giving signs to another party in a known gambling establishment, 1812 North 24th street, in the event a cop were to appear on the scene.
But Baker said, "Your Honor, I was not giving signals, as I was only sitting in a car waiting for my friend to come back who had been riding me around, as I have been sick with asthma and have been unemployed. I was blowing my nose and the wind was blowing as I was signaling, but I was not." (Your Honor turned his head and smiled.)

CIVIL RIGHTS
Mr. A. Philip Randolph, International President, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and Co-chairman, National Council for Permanent F. E. P. C., spoke to a packed house Sunday, March 28, at 3 p.m. on Civil Rights. Much was learned from his talk and new ideas were planted in the minds of many people. He stressed that we must work and stick together in Omaha to put over any obstacle that got in our way. He also spoke at the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters hall March 29th.
Milton P. Webster, First International Vice-President, of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, gave a talk on Labor.
Mr. Randolph and Mr. Webster left for Chicago Monday, March 29, for Washington, D. C. and to continue his tour of the States. Mr. Randolph will be back in Omaha in the early fall.
Mr. George W. Althouse, President of the Omaha local Division, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, was chairman for the evening.

National Rabbit Week, March 28 to April 3 is a reminder to thrifty families that a few rabbits—three or four does and a buck of breeding age—purchased this spring will provide fryers by summer when other meat is less plentiful. Any surplus may be preserved by freezing or canning. producers today make a profitable business of selling dressed young rabbit meat, fresh, and in frozen form, in open faced cartons.
Domestic rabbit meat is all white, like breast of chicken, entirely different from wild rabbit, and in season at any time of the year. Domestic rabbits do not have the disease tularemia. In western states where rabbit raising in an extensive industry rabbit meat sells at meat markets and is served regularly in hotels, restaurants and the home.
Young rabbit like young chicken is cooked by the quick methods of frying or broiling. Rabbits may also be stuffed and roasted. Older meat is excellent for fricassees, casseroles, rabbit pie, salad, chop suey, and other dishes made from mature chicken. Barbecued rabbit is a favorite western dish.

ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY
Thaddius Baker was arrested for vagrancy and giving signs to another party in a known gambling establishment, 1812 North 24th street, in the event a cop were to appear on the scene.
But Baker said, "Your Honor, I was not giving signals, as I was only sitting in a car waiting for my friend to come back who had been riding me around, as I have been sick with asthma and have been unemployed. I was blowing my nose and the wind was blowing as I was signaling, but I was not." (Your Honor turned his head and smiled.)
