It is time for America o wake up. What's the solution? The ublic school cannot teach reigion. It is an agency of the State and the State is not alowed to undertake a program of rel gious education. The Con titution forbids that. There is lowever, an institution called he Christian day school. It is n agency of the Church. It is ne Churches business to teach religion. In our Christian day schools all thesecular branches of study are taugh just as throughly as in public schools But in addition there are daily courses in religion and the whole cirriculum is dominated by a religious spirit. In the Christian day school God is not passed by in silence: He is not dismissed as amyth. He is very much present in the school room, and His teachhings are impressed upon the hearts of the pupils. In that way God
