SERMON OF THE WEEK
BETHAL BAPTIST CHURCH
5318 South 30th Street
Reverend M. C. Williams
Pastor

People from all over Omaha form all walks of life gathered in the main auditorium of Bethel to be strengthened by the word of God. Service began at its height in Sunday School. Sunday was Promotion Day. Reverend Williams and all the Sunday School Teachers wore black caps and gowns to signify outstanding leadership. 15 students were presented promotion certificates by Rev. Williams. Elnora Davis and Winifred Green were presented certificates of merits for attending Sunday School for two years without one absence. Eleven o'clock service was at its peak when Rev. William preached from Matt. 4:18-19. His subject was "I'll make you fisher of men." In his message he said, "That Christ did not have any discrimination when he chose his Twelve Disciples. Discrimination is not Divine; it falls in the realm of human life. Jesus call and the Twelve Disciples responded to the Christs call. They were not selected, but Christ's love and trust for mankind permitted him to accept those who responded to his call. He knew the result before it happened, but he said, "Come on. Today He is saying to us as he did to the Disciples COME! COME! I'll make you Fisher of Men if you follow me. His call today is not discriminatory. Man's only qualification is his desire to follow Christ. Fisher of Men. What does it mean? A fisher expects to get something when he fishes. Today fisher of Men expect to get something too. They expect to get men to bite the hook which is the word of God.

Fishers who are afraid to bite the hook are of very good fishers.

Net fishing is bad too. In net fishing, one gets the fish he wants and the fish he doesn't want. Let us use pole for fishing. In pole fishing, we—Christians have individual contact with the men who need Christ as their Personal Savior.

YOUR FAMILY'S FOOD
Red Cross Nutrition Director
By Mrs. Evelyn Halm,
Salad Days
Summer menu planning usually means more salads, and this is a good dietary practice provided the right kind of food go into the salad making. A raw vegetable or a salad of raw fruits and vegetables should be served at each lunch and dinner throughout the year. Everyday, all year of herbs, vegetables, or fruits served uncooked and seasoned with salt, oil, and vinegar. There are many variations based on this original salad theme,—but salads most superior nutritionally are those made of green leaves. Unless raw green leaves are eaten in salads they seldom are used in other ways.

Salad Ways
Salads may be served as a first course. Larger amounts are eaten when persons are the most hungry—and they satisfy the appetite sufficiently large green salad-low in calorie value, can help to maintain a reduced weight. It is easier to break the habit of an oversweet dessert with a salad as first course. Salads which do not take the place of raw green vegetables salads, are those made with potatoes, macaroni, gelatin, canned beans and other similar foods. Good salads need not be elaborate or take much time to prepare. A single raw vegetable is suffice.

A FEW REMARKS
By "Poly"
The arrival of Spring brought forth a number of "strange and confused" characters with assorted equipment or a "bats" Reason—Tennis Season—The last two Mondays have found "yours" truly knocking a few into the net (and speaking in "disgusting terms" about the same) out of Dewey Park. However, the above situation shall be remedied soon "Tennis Classes", at the above named spot (open to the public) should be the answer. From a spectators point of view, giving advance notice, he may cause a few to "watch" his port side smashes. "I watched a few" Solid, James Lee and "Bob Avant, check on these free classes at the near North Side Y. M. C. A. May be the answer—

Ernie Richies Elk's Ball Club is along about where you would expect, "weak Moundsmen"—But that's the "cry" all all over (Major and Minor) a few of the tried lads like James Hall, "Pin Franklin did a e s e Capt. How do you like your teams—write us—what's the reason you can't have what you want—none!

A young fellow answering to the name of "Baptiste" of California "vintage", and ex-G. "Diz". A fellow could go "broke or "crazy" fooling with a guy like that—tsk, tsk.

Nate Goldstien has a method to prevent a situation as the one mentioned, he takes a beginner of each of his "ventures" on the links for a small fee, on the side—latest victims: Lloyd Red, Hilton, I heard a word to the wise, is sufficient, Nate's eyesight is not the worst—Really fellows—I'm telling you—Did you fellows see Willie Hamilton while he was here says he still hits em so long—huh—what—oh—

In the childrens and mens department—I wonder if the late Dan Love (Candy Kid) of the "Rex" and other local baseball teams would have drawn a scouts eye—since the look "everywhere" now—quick and quite an able fellow around the initial sack, I'd say. Always thought Adolph (Mouse) Bolden, made a few fellow eye's pop the Sunday he hit those two home runs at Dewey Old Base Ball Park he must have weighed all of one hundred ten pounds in uniform, man or "mouse". Melvin "the Reach", Cook, still gets our vote for the best soft-ball pitcher the Northside has produced—his strike out record was, to say the least, "wonderful"—"Marty" Thomas, the best under the basket, play maker—"yours truly" has watched (pro or simon pure)", and we still believe he's a fine instructor—also believe I've got to go now—Later on—hear!

QUICKIE QUIZ FOR SPORTS FANS

Guest Quizmaster: Jimmy Fidler "Hollywood News," MBS

In these days of the lively baseball, shortened outfields and slugging batmen, a no-bitter is indeed a rarity. But a spring training Grapefruit League shutout is something to marvel at. This talented young St. Louis Card finger recently horsecolored the Yank's booming bats and accomplished this unusual diamond feat. If he can retain this form throughout the NL season, the Cards may cop the league pennant. Who is he?
ANSWER: MURTY DICKSON.

Zucchini Teams Well With Canned Tomato Sauce

LONG a favorite on the Italian dinner table, zucchini, ingenue member of the squash family, is now gaining friends throughout this country. Especially popular in Hollywood as an accompaniment to spaghetti dinners, zucchini also teams well with a meat or all-vegetable meal. To prepare the California way, slice zucchini horizontally, add thinly sliced onions, a can of all-tomato cooking sauce, and top with cheese. It's ready to serve almost as soon as the fire is lighted.

Zucchini-Hollywood Style
1 pound zucchini (or any summer squash)
1/2 medium-sized onions
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 bay leaf crushed, if desired
1 (8 oz.) can all-tomato sauce
1/2 cup water
1 to 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Cheese, if desired

Wash and slice the zucchini (rather on the bias for attractive serving). Add onion, thinly sliced, seasonings, tomato sauce, and water. Cover, cook quickly 5 to 10 minutes until vegetables are soft. Add 1 to 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Top with grated cheese or bits of nappy American cheese before sending to the table, if desired. Serves 4 to 6.

Spaghetti-California Style
3/4 cup chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced very fine
1 green pepper, chopped
4 tablespoons oil or drippings
1 pound ground beef
1 (3-oz.) can all-tomato sauce
1-1/2 cups water
2 teaspoons Worcestershire
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup grated sharp cheese
1 3/4-oz. pkg. spaghetti, cooked

Lightly brown onion, garlic, green pepper in hot oil or drippings. Add meat, stir till meat loses color. Add tomato sauce, water and seasonings. Simmer about 30 minutes, then stir cheese into sauce. Pour part of sauce over hot spaghetti, use remainder at table. Serves 4 or 5. This delicious sauce may be made ahead of time and reheated for use. Try it—and watch your family grin with pleasure!
