BRINGING CHRIST TO THE NATIONS

Saint Louis, Mo., June 20. (Special) "The Problem of RRight Living" was discussed today by the Reverend Professor Oswald Hoffman, professor at Concordia College, Institute, Bronxville, New York, and summer guest speaker on "Bringing Christ to the Nations" the International Lutheran Hour. Speaking over the Mutual Broadcasting System and affiliated stations, Professor Hoffman declared: "God enters into the lives of men with the same devastating power as He enters into nature and history. 'The wrath of God is revealed from heaven,' Paul asserted in the first chapter of Romans, 'against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men.' From that wrath none of us can escape. 'Lord, if Thou shouldst mark iniquities; who shall stand? No man by doing good, or by trying his best is going to turn that wrath aside. There is none righteous, no, not one. There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of their way, there are together become unprofitable; there is no one that doeth good, no, not one.' That is God's judgment on the world."

Professor Hoffman continued: "I should deceive you if I left you under the impression that accepting Jesus Christ will make no difference in your life. It will make a difference. A big difference. God will enter your life. When He enters He will not just be talking. He will be acting. He will take hold of your head and your hands. He will turn them to His own purposes. This does not mean that you will lose your individuality. But you will become an instrument in God's hands so that He may have His good with you. God will work in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure."

"So God stands ready to take you and use you through faith in Jesus Christ. If your life has been purposeless and without direction this the answer to your problem. If your life has gone off on the wrong track and is stalled there, this is the answer to your problem. Look to Jesus Christ and let God get you back on the main line."

Priest Describes Work of Josephite Fathers

Zanesville, O., June 30.—Fr. Samuel J. Mathews, S.S.J., preached in St. Nicholas' Catholic church here Sunday on the work of the Josephite Fathers in the United States. The Josephite Fathers are an association of Catholic priests who pledge their lives exclusively to work among the Negro race. More than 20,627 Negro children are being educated in Catholic schools maintained by the Josephite Fathers.

JIMCROW HOUSING TRUST DISSOLVED

New York City—(WDL)—The Mortgage Conference of Greater New York, an aggregation of the biggest banks and insurance companies controlling 80 per cent of New York City's building mortgages, was dissolved June 16 by order of U.S. Judge John Knox. The court order also called upon the Mortgage Conference's member banks and insurance companies to halt restrictive practices in making mortgage loans.

This federal anti-trust case originally filed in June 1946, involved charges of maintaining racial maps of the city, refraining from making mortgage loans in Negro blocks and inducing real estate owners to bar Negroes. The defendants, without admitting the charges, agreed to the dissolution order. Throughout the 2-year period since the case was filed the Workers Defence League and the Committee of Racial Equality campaigned to prevent it from becoming stalled and repeatedly called on the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice for a prompt prosecution.
