The Weekly Nebraska Depends Upon

ONLY TEN CENTS PER COPY

ONCE UPON OUR TIME By the Town Crier

Every newspaper in Nebraska ought to print every important vote of every member of Congress running for re-election, during his entire career at Washington.

Then we'd know what we're voting for—or against.

My adviser on men's styles, a chap down at Brandies, tells me 1949's well-dressed men will refuse starch in his shirt collars or a crease in his coat sleeve. His jacket will be loose.

I hear men have been turned down for certain university clubs because of a crease in the sleeves.

If we Nebraskans want this country governed as it should be, we can't trust the job to furriners from South Carolina, Texas or Maine; we'd better send our best men down to Washington. I'd like to see a Nebraskan elected who knows its one world and wants to keep it in one piece, and who'll introduce a world government bill to that end. Gene O'Sullivan would do such a job.

What I'd like to have explained to me, is why Dewey, the G. O. P. candidate blows hot and cold at the same time? In New York and other large northern states he plans to speak and woo the tan voters along with the others. There he speaks about the brotherhood of man, and promises to carry out every pledge of the G.O.P. platform, but at the same time he does not care too much about carrying a vigorous campaign south, where there is nothing just in reverse of what he advocates.

This said that he would not care to risk his popularity down there, by hitting at their system, for if he went down there and did not speak out against it, then this would cause the tan voter up north and in border states to turn against him and probably cost him southern support. He hasn't the courage of his convictions, as did Henry Wallace, who went into rebel territory, and called a spade a spade. So you see, there is nothing new under the sun, and don't let any one tell you that you can't have your cake and eat it too, Dewey has knocked that one higher than a kite in a gust of March wind.

The other evening I went up on 24th street to a mail box that is I started—but had to turn and go in the other direction. Why? Too many teenagers needlessly hogging all the sidewalk. It nettles me, when I go out on the street, and have to either get off the sidewalk to get around, or risk life and limb by crossing in the middle of the street to the other side, in order to get where I am going. And to top it off, it is I, who have of fended these sidewalk hoggers, and not they.

The conduct of these school youngsters in the streets is not at all encouraging. For that matter, neither is that of the older ones.

It would pay you to first see an insurance man, before going too often on 24th especially, between the hours of 7 and until.

Small But OH, MY!

Give the kids time and they will think up anything and do just about everything. I happen to know one, little Mark Schauland, who for one of his age—18 months or so, just about takes the cake. Young Mark is a real little He Man, he likes to do everything right in man-style. No frills for Mark, or Joe, as he is sometime affectionately called by his family. Mark usually starts the day off with three breakfasts, number one, he comes down and gets himself, number two, he has with his aunt, and third he shares with his parents. Then he begins his days work by making a routine inspection of most of the appliances, with time out

New Hospital Open House Today 7:30 to 10:00 P M

OPEN HOUSE AT THE PEOPLES HOSPITAL, 7:30 to 10:00 P. M.

Omahans will have the opportunity to inspect the New Peoples Hospital at 1844 North 20th Street, this evening, during the hours from 7:30 to 10:00 P. M.

The Peoples Hospital, is a new venture in Negro Hospital management in Omaha, and according to reports from the management, it will be equipped with the latest equipment, and will be staffed by some of the best physicians in Omaha and also will have an efficient nursing staff.

It is, however, the hope of the management that the public and local organizations will see the need for such an institution providing training for girls wishing to take nursing as a career; underwrite expenses for the training of each girl. It is estimated that the cost for each girl would be approximately $1800. As the situation now stands, any local girl who decides upon a nursing career, must in most cases go out of state for her training.

The 20-40 Club is sponsoring the pre-open house evening. Doctor Aaron McMillian is in charge of the hospital.

Traffic News

Spectators at a greater part of Nebraska's High School and College football games this fall will be greeted by a series of traffic safety announcements, the Nebraska safety Council announced today.

A ten-page booklet of timely warnings has been sent to every high school and college playing football in Nebraska and they will be used in the majority of the schools over the public address systems operated at the games.

The announcements have been prepared by the state safety council and are designed to warn spectators of the dangers existing on streets and highways following a game and to urge them to be extra alert and cautious in their trip home.

Then Came the Tub.
The indoor bath was brought about when water systems were introduced into cities in the early 1800s. By 1830 the revolutionary idea of a warm bath three times a week was the aim of a crusade. By the 1920s the U. S. owned 95 per cent of all tubs in the world and had begun to go in for such variations of the standard porcelain tub as solid onyx tubs, marble tubs and tubs with solid gold fixtures.

LOCAL DAIRY ASKS TO SELL V-F SKIM MILK

The Roberts Dairy company's request for permission to sell vitamin-fortified skim milk in Omaha came "as a result of advice from local physicians," according to Gordon Roberts, head of the firm.

In a recent letter addressed to Mayor Glenn Cunningham and members of the City Council, Mr. Roberts stated that according to medical men such a product would be "of nutritional benefit to those past forty with a tendency toward overweight, even more vitally desirable for women in late pregnancy." The new product would be "plainly labeled" as skim milk, the dairy head added.

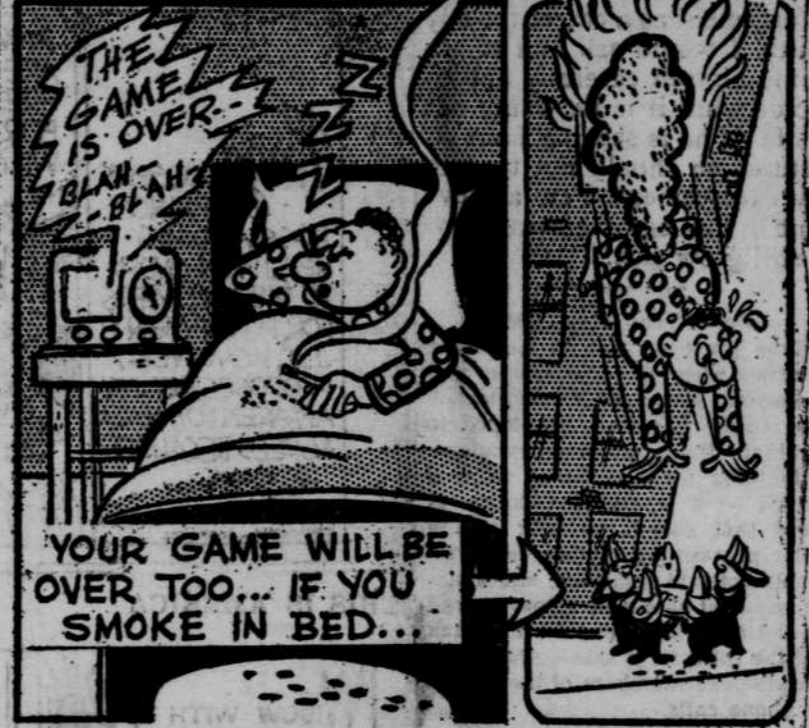

Catching an Alligator
The next time you want to catch a live alligator, just hold his mouth shut and tie him up. According to the World Book encyclopedia, the animal's jaws are shut, a man can easily hold them closed with his bare hands.

Urban League Gives Warning

It has been reported that unscrupulous persons are at work in our community trying to swindle sincere and hard working people out of their earnings. Mr. J. W. Strom, Director, U. S. Civil Service, Omaha, Nebraska District, reports the latest one. A man is going about the community selling correspondence courses to those wishing employment in the U. S. Civil Service. The cost of a course is said to be $90 payable in installments. The man is promising those who accept his proposition, U. S. Civil Service employment in Omaha when they complete the course. Mr. Strom says this is WHOLLY FALSE! and such promises cannot be kept.

Check all of these solicitations with either your Nebraska State Employment Service, your Civil Service Commission if it's a government job, the Urban League, your minister, this newspaper, or better still, the company with whom the persons promise to get you a job.

Very few, if any, jobs are gotten by paying a fee to a person who knocks on your door, stops you in the street or approaches you in a public place. If such persons are honest and sincere, their story can stand investigation.

Before parting with your money, it's be sure you know where it's going. DON'T BE A SUCKER!

Brown - Life Reporter for Truman

New York—Earl Brown, columnist for the New York Amsterdam News, has come out with a flat endorsement of President Truman, seeing in the standard-bearers for Republican and Progressive parties the makings of an era of reaction which ultimately would lead to the doom of America.

Writing in his column, "Once Over Lightly," Mr. Brown states that he plans to vote for Mr. Truman on November 2, but not only because he has come out for civil rights.

He interprets the President's civil rights program as the salvation of both Negro and white Americans.

Brown gives as his primary reason for supporting Mr. Truman's candidacy a fear for the future of America under republican presidential candidate, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, and the Progressive Party candidate, Henry Wallace.

Gov. Dewey he describes as the "cold standard bearer... dangerously reactionary," and knowingly giving aid and comfort to American fascists.

"Every American owes Mr. Truman a debt for his courageous stand on civil rights," the New York Amsterdam News columnist stated. Mr. Brown is a Harvard University graduate. In addition to his spot on the New Amsterdam News, he is also a reporter for Life magazine.

Courier Head to Support Dewey

STATEMENT OF MRS. ROBERT L. VANN
President-Treasurer, The Pittsburgh Courier, Made Today at Albany, N. Y.

I have just told Governor Thomas E. Dewey that the Pittsburgh Courier will support his candidacy for President.

Negroes are indeed fortunate in having all of the three major candidates for President, favorably disposed to the advancement and protection of their rights and interests.

President Harry S. Truman and Mr. Henry Wallace have been dramatic in espousing the cause of Negroes, but Governor Dewey has been more effective in giving protection to their basic rights and well being. He has achieved in New York, for Negroes, most of the objectives and has had enacted most of the laws which President Truman and Mr. Wallace have advocated for the nation as a whole.

Value of Milk

A quart of milk-four glasses—supplies approximately these percentages of the daily nutritive requirements of an average man: Calcium, 100 per cent plus; riboflavin (vitamin G), 82 per cent; phosphorus, 67 per cent; protein, 49 per cent; vitamin A, 30 per cent; thiamin, 22 per cent; calories, 22 per cent; vitamin C, 19 per cent; niacin, 6 per cent, and iron, 3 per cent.

Bust and Bustle Era

Fashion dictators are prescribing abundant use of jewelry to complement the "bust and bustle" fashions currently in vogue. In keeping with elegance of the new gowns, jewelers are creating lavish, delicate pieces using the sister metals, palladium and platinum.

Licenses Alerted on Sales to Minors

Lincoln—A special "poster-bulletin" designed to help beer retailers fully comply with Nebraska's "No-Sales-to-Minors" law has gone out to all licensees, from the Nebraska Division, U. S. Brewers Foundation, according to Charles E. Sandall, state director of this self-regulation organization of the brewing industry.

The poster side of the bulletin is headed "50.00 Fine" and calls attention to the Nebraska law providing penalties for persons misrepresenting their ages to procure beer or liquor. The fact that "John Q. Public is Boss" and "through the laws he forbids sale of beer to minors" is set forth on the poster. It also states, "If you are under 21, do not ask for beer. For your own protection as well as ours, you will be refused."

Mrs. Pittman was an honor graduate of North High school and received a Regents' Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where she completed a part of her undergraduate work. She was also an honor student at Creighton, and from which she also received her Bachelor of Science Degree.

She was chosen Law School Princess at the Creighton Junior and Senior Prom this spring.

Mrs. Pittman who is the only colored woman attorney in Nebraska, constitutes the junior partner in the law firm of Davis & Pittman.

She is a member of the Vestry and Secretary of St. Philip's Episcopal church and an officer of Delta Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Before commencing active practice, Mrs. Pittman and her mother, Mrs. Charles F. Davis will take a Pacific coast vacation.
