On Mt. Shasta, Calif., Mountain Climber Dan O'Neill, 34, slipped and fell on the snowy slope, escaped with only minor cuts and bruises after a 40-m.p.h. head-first slide of nearly a mile, because "I kept my head, used my toes as brakes and steered with my forearms."

Seein' Stars

New York — Lionel Hampton couldn't buy enough New York Daily News this Sunday when wife Gladys was the featured personality. How the News got Gladys to pose for pictures, we're wondering for she hates publicity even in a two million circulation medium.

Commie critics—just getting around to seeing "Carmen Jones"—were furious over it. Seems they just didn't like American Negroes playing the roles. Commented the organ of the party—Pravda snobbishly: "Why was it necessary to turn Spaniards into Negroes? How can such cheap trash be combined with the deep artistic and realistic music of Bizet?" Russia sure did miss the point.

It will be wonderful to see Pearl Primus back in action this Fall. She's been out for a year—on maternity leave—but is now anxious to be in the swing of things. Already she's organized a troupe of eleven and is booked solidly for eight weeks through the South.

Art Tatum to open in Paris October 15th. He'll tour the continent. . . Summertime in TV has Lena Horne teamed with Stan Kenton on CBS for July 12th. Roy Hamilton goes on the NBC "Variety Hour."

Jackie Robinson a whizz at cards—any game, too. He plays at it as hard as he plays baseball. . . That was much ado about nothing calling in Roy Campanella for an examination of his liquor store in the current State Liquor Authority hearings. Naturally Campy was as "clean" as he said. Papers all had headlines.
