Virgin Islanders Seek Removal Of Alexander

St. Thomas, Virgin Island — The Virgin Islanders are riled enough at their Governor Archie Alexander to the extent that they are seeking the removal of the Negro executive. In a special protest meeting this week, two thousand Islanders under the sponsorship of the CIO passed three resolutions, which seek the immediate resignation of Gov. Alexander.

Accusing Alexander of "hating the people of the Virgin Islands" and making derogatory utterances to their character, the resolution addressed to Alexander ask him specifically to resign.

In the resolution to President Eisenhower, the Islanders claim that the act of '54 under which the islands are governed, gives too much authority to the executive and creates a virtual dictatorship. To Congress, this resolution charges Governor Alexander with unethical conduct and maladministration.

An outstanding business executive from Des Moines, Iowa, Alexander took office April 10th, 1954. One year after his administration, a group called the Unity Club in an open letter to Eisenhower charged: "... there is an atmosphere of fear and uncertainty along all the elements of our community. We ask you in good faith to recall him and place the administration of the Virgin Islands in the hands of the competent executive sympathetic to the people, their problems and their aspirations for advancement to self-government."

The Governor has the support of Secretary of the Interior, Douglas McKay, who has been saying all along that he had done an excellent administrative job. William C. Strand, former director of the Office of Territories stated: "It is nothing new to have the people of the Virgin Islands sniping at a Governor."

Sorority Will Meet In Denver

Leadership Development for Economic Security is the theme for the National Convention of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, to be held in Denver, Colorado, August 13-17, 1955. Alpha Omicron and Beta Nu Chapters are hostesses; the general chairman is Soror Thelma S. Freeman.

On Sunday afternoon, the Educational Program will be held in Pulliam Auditorium, Trent Hall, Colorado Woman's College. The speaker will be Mr. Everett Frederic Morrow of Hackensack, New Jersey. Former adviser on business affairs in the U. S. Department of Commerce, Mr. Morrow was recently named Administrative Officer for the Special Projects Group in the office of President Eisenhower.

As a special feature of the Educational Program, a plaque will be awarded to the Outstanding Business Woman of the Year. Announcement has just been made by Soror Marion H. Jackson, National President, that Soror Emma M. VanDyke Gilbert

Robby Will Play Next Year If He Gets His Price

St. Louis — Jackie Robinson is one guy who figures on his future long before it has arrived. May be Jackie's been having plenty of time to figure since he's been sidelined for several weeks with his knee injury. But already he's discussing next year and this much he has decided on—that he's going to try awfully hard to stay in baseball another year—for his family's sake—if he can get his price.

For Jackie thinks this: "There's no doubt I want to play. But I can see how I'm a problem to the Brooklyn club in many ways and that they may not be willing to pay my full salary and I can't see the sense in playing for less of Austin, Texas, Beta Upsilon Chapter, will receive the Iota Phi Lambda Award.

This national project of the sorority was planned to inspire and encourage young women by giving concrete examples of the opportunities and possibilities offered through business careers, and to recognize women who have made outstanding contributions in their respective businesses in the field of business. Iota Phi Lambda is quite proud that one of their own was chosen. The judges were: Mrs. Mamie Mason Higgins, Executive Director of the National Council of Negro Women; Mrs. Hennie Mae Cisco, Woman's Page Editor, Chicago Edition, Pittsburgh Courier; Mrs. Madeline Morgan Stratton, Chicago Public School teacher who was responsible for introducing the subject of Negro History in the Chicago Public Schools.

Sorors from eighty chapters throughout the length and breadth of our land will converge on Denver for the national meeting of this business women's sorority that was founded in Chicago by Lola M. Parker twenty-six years ago.

I could name that are. I. . . Here Durocher trailed off—not wishing to name names. But as far as Willie's concerned, he's still alright with Durocher, no matter what the others say—who want another miracle.

Lincoln U Grad Among 4 Finalists

Jefferson City, Mo. — Lincoln University's (Mo.) Most Outstanding Journalist has survived all but final eliminations in the contest for the choice of the nation's Most Outstanding Journalist.

Harold V. Manson, 1955 journalism graduate from Lincoln University, is one of the four finalists for a European reporting trip in September, sponsored by the Foster Parents' Needy European War Children's organization of New York City.

The finalist will fly to Europe with an experienced journalist to gather information about the poverty-stricken children of Europe. The student's articles, based on the foreign travel, will be syndicated and published. Selection of the finalist will be made in August.

Manson entered the competition last winter along with winners from most of the country's journalism units. Two local newspaper editors, Joseph Majorsky, of the Daily Capital News, and Chester Krause, of the Post-Tribune, chose him after interviews and reporting assignments.
