Banks May Be MVP For The Dodgers
Chicago, Ill. (CNS) — With the Dodgers having three hot contenders for the Most Valuable Player Award in Don Newcombe, Duke Snider and Roy Campanella—it could be that a split-vote candidate would get it and that would be none other than slim Ernie Banks—who played sensationally for the Chicago Cubs this year.
It has happened before that when a club has three hot pro-

Ernie Banks, the long-hitting, clever-fielding star of Chi. Cubs, barely nosed out Harvey Kuenn, the Detroit Tigers' scientific batter, for shortstop honors.
Big Don Newcombe, mainstay of the Dodgers' sagging mound corps, was selected, along with the Phillies' Robin Roberts, as the best pitcher in the major leagues, according to Look.
The National League, paced by the home-run bats of Kluszewski, Banks, Snider, Mathews and Campanella, dominated this year's Look All America Team, with Ford Frick's favorites winning seven of the ten positions (Two pitchers selected).

UNCLE SAM FILES LIEN AGAINST 64GS OF MOORE'S PURSE
New York (CNS)—The Bureau of Internal Revenue boys stepped in immediately against Archie Moore's purse which should reach the magnificent total of $230,000 after TV receipts are counted in. Uncle Sam wants $64,000 of the total right away.

As Truman Gibson explained it—he's Secretary for International Boxing Club—Archie has $4,000 due now for '54 income. The other $60,000 is due as an "anticipatory tax"—that is based on Moore's '55 earnings against Nino Valdes, Bobo Olson and Marciano. Moore expects to settle up right away through his attorney, Mike Di Salle, former chief of the Office of Price Administration.

Meanwhile, he has plenty of loot left with his 20 per cent share of the actual gate at Yankee Stadium, at $170,498. The TV receipts are expected to total $60,000 for Archie that is.
