United Auto Workers Gives $5000 To NAACP Fund

New York — The United Auto Workers, CIO, has contributed $5,000 to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, announced here today. The contribution was received by the Association this week.

Another large sum, of $6,000, was received by the Association during the past week, representing funds collected at an NAACP rally in Los Angeles, California. The money was sent in by the Los Angeles NAACP branch.

A letter signed by Walter P. Reuther, president of the UAW-CIO and of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, accompanied the union's check.

Pointing to the Emmett Till lynching and "other violations of civil rights and civil liberties which have occurred in Mississippi in recent months," Mr. Reuther's letter declared: "In the months ahead, in view of the present developments our country will be faced with perhaps the most critical period in its history in the field of civil rights and civil liberties."

Mr. Reuther said the UAW-CIO is donating the $5,000 "with the conviction that it will, in a measure, assist the NAACP in its courageous and untiring efforts toward the achievement of an America in which the civil rights and civil liberties of every individual will be secure."

The UAW-CIO international executive board on October 30 issued a statement calling for prompt enactment of legislation at the opening of Congress to provide for immediate intervention by the U. S. Justice Department's criminal division in cases of civil rights violations.

The statement cited the recent murders of three Negroes in Mississippi including 14-year-old Emmett Till, as "crimes against democracy and humanity," as well as "a denial of civil rights and civil liberties of Negroes."

The UAW board blasted Congress and the Administration for failure to act on civil rights, and announced that the international union will broaden its own civil rights program by enlarging the field staff of its fair practices and anti-discrimination department.

Sorority Notes Education Week

Iota Phi Lambda Sorority is participating in the observance of American Education Week from November 6-12. This is one of the Sorority's national observances. Mrs. Audrey Lucile Reynolds of Los Angeles, California, newly elected National Director of Education, has presented the national theme for the week—SCHOOLS, YOUR INVESTMENT IN AMERICA.

Throughout the week, the nearly ninety chapters of the sorority are considering this investment from the standpoint of character building, teachers, classrooms, fundamental learning, better living, and a strong nation, with special emphasis on the Saturday topic, "Your Investment is Your Responsibility."

Founded in 1929, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority has as its objectives—to promote interest in business education among high school and college girls and to encourage education among its members; and to provide national scholarships annually for students interested in furthering their business education.

American Education Week therefore, has special significance for this august body.

Mrs. Marion E. Jackson of Washington, D. C. is starting her second year as national president and has as her able assistants in vice-presidencies, Mrs. Florence M. Hill of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Ethel K. Greene of Washington, D. C.

A homemade cake, which always makes such a big impression, is so easily made with mixes. Even the beautiful frosting is made without any cooking at all, from a package of Minute-man Instant Frosting Mix. It is

Homemaker's Budget Helper

Flavorful ham chowder made with instant nonfat dry milk is a real stick-to-the-ribs mealtime suggestion and one that is so good it positively calls for seconds. And once homemakers try instant nonfat dry milk, they call for it again and again for it provides high nutrition at low cost.

Instant nonfat dry milk is rich in protein, calcium and riboflavin, the important nutrients of regular top-quality pasteurized milk, needed for good health. Only the fat and water are removed. Yet instant nonfat dry milk is so inexpensive. A family-size package makes 12 quarts (three gallons) of nonfat milk for as little as seven cents a quart. It comes in two other sizes also—a one-pound package which makes five quarts and a pre-measured package with three individual envelopes, each making one quart of nonfat milk.

Instant nonfat dry milk mixes immediately, even in ice water. Just takes a jiffy to have nonfat milk for drinking, baking or for cooking as in our Ham Chowder recipe:

Ham Chowder
(Makes 8 servings)

4 tablespoons butter
2 medium size onions, chopped
2 cups cubed, cooked ham
4 cups diced potatoes
1 cup water
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Salt to taste
1 quart liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk
Melt butter in 4-quart saucepan. Add onions and ham; sauté until onions are tender and lightly browned. Add potatoes and water. Cover; cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until potatoes are tender, about 10 minutes. Sprinkle flour, pepper and salt over liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Add to ham mixture; cook over very low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened.
