Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For the Home

Add Space, Save Work

If HE chooses materials carefully, the man of the house who converts wasted attic space into an extra room can save himself work both at the time of installation and in the future. Using Marlite planks and blocks, which have tongue-and-groove edges, walls and ceilings can be covered in short order. The paneling can be applied over furring strips on a continuous base like plasterboard.

Since this paneling, made of Tempered Presdwood, is already decorated with plain colors or wood grain patterns, no painting or finishing is necessary. What's more, its baked plastic finish not only resists soil and wear but needs no decorating later.

For design interest, an end wall may be covered with blocks to match planks on sidewalls, and planks of a different color used on the sloping ceiling.

Mother's Kitchen Office

IN MOST homes, a woman's activity center is the kitchen. Probably more time is spent in that room than any other. Since the kitchen often is considered the heart of the home, it should include a planning center for Mother.

Somewhere in any kitchen, whether it is new or old, there is room for a desk or a small table with a drawer. With a stool or chair, this desk can be made Mother's business headquarters.

With a telephone, or extension, perched at one corner, pencils and stationery handy, and a small blackboard on the wall nearby, Mother can have all the essential conveniences of an office secretary right in her kitchen.

She can ask Dad to make up the blackboard, which is a simple operation nowadays with the major paint companies making a chalkboard surfacing material that comes in cans. This should be applied with a brush, according to the directions, to a piece of Masonite Tempered Freshwood, available at lumber yards. First, round the corners and lightly bevel the edges with a file or sandpaper.

Resnik Receives Press Award

Tubie Resnik, right, executive vice-president of Calvert Distillers Co., receives award from Mel Patrick, president of Uptown Press Club, "in appreciation for advancing the arts by providing opportunities on basis of merit." The occasion was at a luncheon in honor of Philippa Schuyler, brilliant young pianist whose concert at the Lewisohn Stadium recently was sponsored by Calvert.

He is survived by two nieces, Mrs. G. Jones, Mrs. Eleanor McCowan, Chicago, Illinois. Funeral services have been set for Thursday morning from Thomas Mortuary with the Rev. E. D. Johnson officiating and burial at Mount Hope Cemetery.

CLASSIFIED ADS READ THE Course For Fishermen Is Starting

Fly Tying Class To Be Held
There is good news for fishermen. As the fishing season is fast approaching, the Center will hold a seven week course in Fly Tying. These classes are scheduled to start on Friday, January 20, 1956 and will be held from 7:00 to 8:00 every Friday thereafter. The instructor will be Mr. Bill Hart who has taught similar classes for the Navy Veterans Hospital at Baltimore, Maryland and the Omaha Y.M.C.A. At the present time Mr. Hart is very active in Boy Scout work in the city.

These classes will be free for any adult person wishing to attend and there will be no need for any type of equipment or tools. Individuals will be taught to make their own flies.

Mr. Hart has said that he will teach the class to make the type of flies suitable for fishing in this region, therefore making the class very practical.

If you are interested in joining this class, inquire at the Kellom Community Center, Ja. 1116, 24th and Caldwell Streets.

Kellom BB League Scores

As the Senior Boys Basketball League resumed play Monday night after a two week lay-off for the holidays, the high and mighty Crusaders of the Near North Side "Y" continued to dominate the league with a 38-34 victory over the Rockets. The Celtics continue to press in second place with a 33-32 squeeze over Courtmasters. Hero of the night was Raymond Moore whose basket with 5 seconds left, gave the Falcons a 37-36 win over Purple Tide. In the final game, the Courtmasters lost their second close game of the night, 33-27 to the Bouncers.

SNUG AND SECURE Inside the Army Chemical Corp's model of the "Infant Protector" is six-month-old Chris Schimmel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Schimmel of Battle Creek, Mich. The "Protector," which takes only two minutes to set up or disassemble, folds into a flat package 38 x 24 x 6 inches. The heavy-duty experimental model shown here weighs 16 pounds, but the Chemical Corps, with FCDA funds, hopes to design a lighter moderately priced version. (FCDA Photo)
