YMCA Indoor Swim Meet At Boys Town April 12-14

New York, The 29th annual national YMCA indoor swimming championships will be held at the Boys' Town pool, Omaha, Nebr., April 12-14, it was announced here today.

The announcement was made by Dr. Harold T. Friermood, National physical director of the YMCA. He said that 125 aquatic stars from thirty U. S. and Canadian cities will take part in the meet. The 1955 championship team from Dayton, Ohio, is expected to compete at Omaha, Dr. Friermood said. Second and third places last year were won by YMCA teams from Oakland, California, and Huntington, Indiana.

Meet officials at Omaha will include Charles McCaffrey and Robert Royer, swimming coaches at Michigan State University and Indiana University, respectively.

Omaha was chosen as the site of the 1956 YMCA swimming championships by the National YMCA Physical Education Committee headed by Dr. James Harold Fox, dean of the School of Education of George Washington University. Dr. Thomas K. Cureton, director of the Physical Fitness Laboratory at the University of Illinois, is chairman of the YMCA's National Aquatic Committee which will give over-all supervision to the meet.

Tallahassee — The faculty of the psychology department at Florida A and M University met recently with the psychology staff of the Florida Farm Colony in Gainesville to make arrangements whereby A and M psychology majors will be able to get experience in clinical psychology at the Colony.

Morsell Is New NAACP Secretary

New York — John A. Morsell of this city has been appointed assistant to the executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Roy Wilkins, the Association's executive, announced today.

Mr. Morsell, who was the recipient of a doctorate in sociology from Columbia University in 1951, has been study director of International Research Associates, Inc., for the past five years. Although the firm is located in this city, Mr. Morsell spent considerable time in Europe, Latin America and the Far East carrying out governmental and commercial research studies. He also was engaged in domestic studies.

Previously, Mr. Morsell had been study director of the Bureau of Applied Social Research at Columbia University, director of the Institute of Community Relations at Sydenham Hospital in New York, and a supervisor in the New York City Department of Welfare.

He currently is technical advisor of the Committee on Civil Rights in East Manhattan. In 1951 he served as a member of a field staff studying the effects of racial integration in the armed forces, and in 1935 was a member of the research staff of the Mayor's Commission on Conditions in Harlem.

In addition to his doctorate from Columbia University, Mr. Morsell holds a master's degree in social legislation from the same institution, and was graduated cum laude from the College of the City of New York, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholarship fraternity.

He lives in Brooklyn with his wife, the former Marjorie Poole of Pittsburgh, and their 15-year-old son, Frederick.

Tallahassee — Six schools in a three-state area were represented in a two-day meeting of the Area 5 section of the National Alumni Association that was held last Thursday and Friday. Wilton C. Scott of Savannah State College, Area president, presided.

The confab at which the A and M General Alumni Association and the university served as co-hosts, was highlighted by panel and group discussions.

Among the topics aired were "How Can the Alumni Work with Students?" "How Can the Alumni Work with the Institution?" "How Can the Alumni Work with Public Relations?" "Problems in State Schools," and "Problems in Private Schools."

President George W. Gore, Jr. delivered a brief but highly informative session.

Other A and M speakers included Mrs. Gore, Dr. H. Manning E. Ferguson, dean of administration; Brodus Hartley, Bettye Sutton, Cornelius Grant, and Carolyn Pinkney, all students, and C. J. Smith, III, public relations.

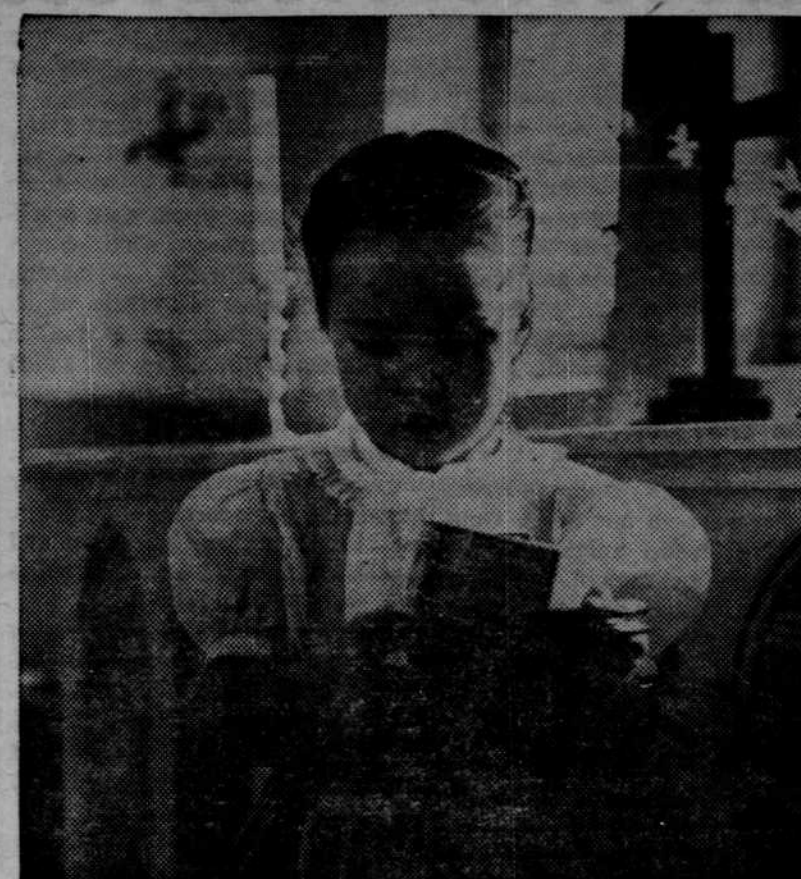

G. W. Conoly, executive secretary of the A and M Alumni Association, spearheaded the arrangements made by the co-hosts. Other schools represented included Savannah State College, Albany State College, Stillman Institute, Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College, and Fort Valley State College.

Other panel participants included Prince Jackson, John Coniper, Savannah State; G. W. Pettigrew, Albany State; Miss Adlene Mencham, Stillman Institute, and Charles Brooks, Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College.

Tallahassee — Callivan Gladden, co-captain of the '55 Rattler football team at Florida A and M University, is a pre-med major.

Tallahassee — An article, "English in Our Time" by Dr. H. L. Faggett, head of the English department at Florida A and M University, appears in the December Bulletin, the official publication of the Florida State Teachers Association.

Tallahassee — S. R. Edmonds, head of the department of speech and drama at Florida A and M University, served as a consultant for the fine Arts Workshop sponsored recently by the Georgia Interscholastic Association and held in Fort Valley, Ga.
