HERE'S HEALTH! ANJOU PEARS

By Lewis

IT WAS A HOBBY WITH THE 19TH CENTURY ELITE OF FRANCE TO COMPETE IN RAISING THE FINEST PEARS. THE ANJOU, OUR POPULAR WINTER PEAR, WAS DEVELOPED IN THIS WAY.

PEARS ARE ONE OF THE FEW FRUITS WHICH SHOULD NOT BE RIPE ON THE TREE. THEY REACH THE PEAK OF GOODNESS AFTER THEY ARE PICKED.

THERE IS NO FINER DESSERT THAN A RIPE PEAR.

NUTRITIOUS PEARS ARE A PERFECT FRUIT FOR THE LUNCH BOX.

OUTSTATE NEBRASKANS TO SHARE AK-SAR-BEN'S BIGGEST YEAR

Thousands of outstate Nebraskans who annually share in the activities staged by Ak-Sar-Ben, this year will enjoy the biggest entertainment year in Ak-Sar-Ben history as members of the famed civic organization.

That's the word today from Membership Chairman Peter Kiewit who said Ak-Sar-Ben again this year expects to have members from every community in Nebraska as well as from all 48 states in the nation. The 61st annual member-signing drive, which started the first week in February, will end on March 8th. Mr. Kiewit advised that no new 1956 members will be accepted after that date, and he warned that the drive may necessarily end sooner if the assigned goal of 19,000 members is reached earlier than March 8th. In the opening week of the drive nearly one-fourth of the goal already had been reached.

The 1956 entertainment schedule includes five big summer shows which this year's members can attend absolutely free. The free show schedule:

May 1-2: Ralph Marterie and his famed orchestra with songstress Dorothy Collins of the Lucky Strike Hit Parade and hilarious pianist Leo De Lyon.

May 15-16: Wayne King, the "Waltz King" and his orchestra with the year's outstanding vocal group, The Crew Cuts, and one of the nation's newest comedy sensations, Bobby Monahan.

June 13-14: Sammy Kaye and his orchestra with their popular "Want to Lead a Band Contest," world-famous comedian Morey Amsterdam, and other featured acts.

July 23-24-25: First of the popular Family Shows for members and their families in a huge outdoor attraction with a host of acts especially arranged for the kiddies.

August 13-14-15: Another Family Show in a colossal outdoor "Stars Under the Stars" production with an enlarged stage-full of variety acts featuring the spectacular Barnes and Carruthers Cavalcade of Stars.

In addition to the above free shows the 1956 entertainment schedule also includes such regular annual features as the Races, Rodeo and Stock Show, Coronation and Ball, Ice Shows, baseball, basketball and hockey games and other special events staged during the year. Mr. Kiewit said prospective members can obtain membership applications from any of the 450 volunteer workers throughout this area, from Ak-Sar-Ben Ambassadors, or by writing the Ak-Sar-Ben office in Omaha.

Thrilling New 'ICE CAPEDES' Coming to Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum

Donna Atwood and Bobby Specht combine daring and beauty in the star-studded "Ice Capades of 1956" at Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum, March 8th through March 14th.

It's out of this world! That's the entire story of the sensational, star-studded "Ice Capades of 1956". There's so much glamour, so much comedy, so much top-notch entertainment executed by the world's greatest ice skating stars that the only descriptive phrase adaptable is "out of this world." Yes, "Ice Capades" has done it again. Costing close to $1,000,000, this sixteenth edition outstrips all previous "Ice Capades" and is the greatest show in the world today.

"Ice Capades of 1956" presents 10 great production numbers and 20 acts and features Donna Atwood in Peter Pan as one of these numbers. Peter Pan is presented on ice for the first time and is complete with the flying sequence and all the characters including Wendy, Tinker Bell, Captain Hook, the Crocodile, and other animals. Also, you will thrill to "Autorama" with the stars and cast on motor scooters—a marvel of precision; the fabulously beautiful "Fantasy in Pink"; "Black and White Ballet"; "Bolero," and "County Fair."

"Ice Capades of 1956" is replete with stars: Donna Atwood, Bobby Specht, Rosemary and Bobby Maxson, The Old Smoothies, Lynam and Jackson, Eddie Runyon and many, many more. The show is crammed with beauty, action, drama and comedy from start to finish and you will gasp at the sheer audacity that dares to present this stupendous spectacle in one evening's entertainment.

"Ice Capades of 1956" comes to Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum, Omaha, March 8th through March 14th with shows nightly at 8:30 except Sunday. The evening show Sunday will be at 6:00 and there will be matinees at 2:00 both Saturday and Sunday. Prices are $3.50, $2.50 and $1.50, including tax. Address mail orders for tickets to the Omaha Coliseum Corp., Box 7, Elmwood Station, Omaha, and enclose check or money order payable to the Omaha Coliseum Corp., and a self-addressed stamped envelope. The date for which tickets are desired should be clearly stated.

For best seats send your "Ice Capades" ticket order early!
