Xmas Seal Drive In Its 50th Year

"With the 50th Christmas Seal Sale, the Tuberculosis Association celebrates no complete victory over TV, but a series of achievements great and small . . . milestones along the road."

This was pointed up today by Dr. E. A. Rogers, director of the Nebraska State Department of Health.

"It was just 11 years ago," he continued, "that the discovery of the miracle drug streptomycin gave the fight against tuberculosis and other infectious diseases its biggest medical boost. Since then many other drugs have been discovered."

Dr. Rogers hastened to remark that none of these actually kills the tubercle bacilli in a patient's body. The drugs only slow up or inhibit multiplication of the germs, so that more and more people are living today with tuberculosis that has been converted from active to inactive . . . approximately 800,000, with an estimated 5,000 of them in Nebraska.

"Satisfaction over the saving of lives of these TB patients is tempered, however, by the realization that even today more than a million Americans require medical care or supervision for active or inactive tuberculosis," the state medical director said. "And another fifty million are unwilling hosts to live tubercle bacilli."

He declared that 1,200 cases under medical care were registered with his department last year. Each one of these that is active costs Nebraska about $15,000 by the time you figure treatment, rehabilitation, welfare services and lost wages.

"It is your voluntary contribution through annual purchase of Christmas Seals that will help reduce this terrible toll," Dr. Rogers stated. "While 94% of our Christmas Seal contributions is for Nebraska use, each county tuberculosis organization also contributes a part of every dollar to the national research program to help spread victory over TB."

OUR UTA HALEE GIRLS NEED YOUR HELP!

The Omaha Council of Church Women is responsible for the yearly operating budget of $18,000 for the UTE Halee Home. We know that many of our church members are not reached through the women's organizations of our churches, and feeling that all Protestant church families want to have a small part in this worthwhile endeavor, we offer you this opportunity to help.

We feel that it is a real privilege to have a part in preventing rather than correcting delinquency. Caring for our homeless and dependent girls, as other faiths care for theirs, is a noble Christian gesture.

NAACP FREEDOM SEALS

As 1956 Holiday Season approaches, persons here and abroad again are being asked to purchase NAACP Christmas Seals as support for Association's civil rights work. Lena Horne, chairman of Christmas Seal campaign, Christmas Seals will enable NAACP "to meet adversaries of freedom with something more than mere hopes and wishes."

Court Says NAACP Ban Null, Void

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 30.—The Louisiana Court of Appeals ruled this week that a lower court injunction banning NAACP activities in the state was null and void and should never have been issued.

The ruling was on the technical point that since NAACP attorneys had filed a motion in the Federal court last March prior to action by the state court, the court had decided what it would do with the NAACP motion.

The state court ignored the fact that the NAACP had filed in the Federal court and proceeded with a hearing, after which it issued the injunction. NAACP attorneys appealed to the state court of Appeals.

The effect of the ruling this week is to place the matter where it was before the state court acted, namely, the NAACP is free to continue its activities in the state or may not appeal this week's ruling until the courts act on its petition. Attorneys for the state may have ten days in which to act.

At the moment the state must now file an answer to the petition filed by the NAACP in the Federal court last March 28. The Federal court will then decide whether it has jurisdiction and whether it will hear the case. It may require both sides to file briefs on the question of jurisdiction and hold a hearing before rendering a decision. Or it may take jurisdiction and require the filing of briefs on the issue and then hold a hearing.

If the Federal court for any reason should not hear the case, the matter will doubtless be

Attackers of Nat Cole Fined $50

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — (ANP) — Four white men who attacked pianist-singer Nat (King) Cole here early this year have been fined $50 each on appearances in municipal court.

Two other men arrested after the disturbance in which Cole was knocked to the floor are awaiting trial on felony charges of assault with intent to murder.

He was fined $50 and given a six-months suspended sentence. The sentence was pronounced last week by Judge Bailes, as the other three men prepared to go on trial.

After the sentencing, the other three sentenced pleaded guilty and drew fines of $50 and costs. They were Orllis W. Clevenger and Mike Fox, both of Anniston, and Jesse W. Mabry of Birmingham.

Five years ago only 19 per cent of our families had incomes from $5,000 to $10,000 a year, but now it is 32 per cent.

brought promptly, again in the state lower court by the state attorneys and the state court could be expected to grant the injunction all over again.

Warn End To Abusing Negro Pupils

Clinton, Tenn. — (CNS) — White students were warned by Principle D. J. Brittain, Jr. that they cease intimidating or abusing Negro pupils at the newly integrated school or face expulsion.

The white students were told of the threat at the student assembly after Negro pupils stayed away from classes for the second day in a row because of "abuse." They told how rocks had been hurled at the ten Negro teenagers and two white boys threw eggs at three Negro girls. Families of the kids, too, had been molested by bands of white men.

Seeking an easy way out, the Anderson County School Board has voted that the Negro pupils could return to the all-Negro high school in Knoxville, 20 miles from the white school, if their parents requested this.

Holiday Shopping Hours Downtown Unchanged

Monday and Thursday evenings until Christmas are the Holiday hours again this year in most downtown stores. For several months many stores have been maintaining these hours. Evening closing hour is regularly 8:30 p.m.

Christmas and New Years Eve the stores will close at 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, the days only after Christmas and New Years, the stores will be open until 8:30 p.m. in place of the customary Monday and Thursday nights.

Holiday buying has started with an active tempo. Shoppers apparently have been taking advantage of the regular promotions and added to it a certain amount of their holiday buying. With the "no added store hours", as is practiced in most cities, shopping early is in the minds of some apparently as practical procedure rather than to join the last weeks rush.

Retail Sales volume will reach new peaks in November and December as pointed out in the newspaper's financial section recently. Record personal incomes couples with the recent wave of increased wages, together with the fact that employment is at another height, assures that shoppers will make the Holiday buying a busy one for retailers.

Negro Attys Seek N.Y. Judgeship

New York. — (CNS) — When Justice Carson Dewitt Baker vacated his $17,000 a year judgeship last week after much unfavorable publicity for ignoring traffic tickets, a wide-open race developed for all Negro attorneys living in the 19th Municipal Court District — which covers the Harlem district.

Under the law, Mayor Robert Wagner must pick a successor by December 14th or within 20 days of the vacancy. This caused number of Harlemites to be looked into. They include Attorney Maurice Gray, Rent Administrator Thomas V. Sinclair, Deputy Comptroller Amos Bowman, Joseph E. Dyer.

Considered a bit out front of the pack is Assemblyman Kenneth M. Phipps, a hardworking young lawyer, who had just been reelected for Assemblyman in the recent election by an overwhelming majority. Phipps has the inside track even over Mrs. Ruth Whitehead Whaley, long a party favorite. Whaley is Borough President Jack's man, which is certainly to help his case since Jack still maintains control over the 19th District.

Meanwhile, Baker was being investigated by the Appellate Division to determine his fitness to hold office after he ignored 17 summonses for traffic violations. He now expects to resume his law practice in a few days.
