Our Pledge To The Citizens Of Omaha

YOUR SEVEN FRIENDS FOR COUNCIL

On April 2nd your Seven Friends of the Charter are looking to you as a voter and one interested in the progress of Omaha to vote for them as candidates for the City Council. As you look over their platform you can see that they qualify themselves as individuals interested in the welfare of all rather than a few. Particularly is this group concerned with the sections of the New Charter designed to aid persons regardless of race, creed or color to secure employment, participate in the government of the city, enjoy rights, privileges of civic and social life. These Seven Friends are N. Phil Dodge, James J. Dworak, Mrs. Kenneth T. Graham, Sam W. Reynolds, Wray M. Scott, A. V. (Al) Sorensen and Harry Trustin. Five of the seven candidates were members of the Charter Convention, which drew up the city's new charter. Naturally these Seven Candidates believe the voters of Omaha would appreciate having Seven Persons who are pledged wholeheartedly to carry out the mandates of the City Charter. Your Lucky Number is Seven on Tuesday April 2nd. Vote for the Seven Friends of The Charter.

WE BELIEVE

Wholeheartedly in the new charter as approved by our citizens.

WE PLEDGE

to make full use of the charter for more effective, progressive, modern city government, for the best interests of all the people of Omaha.

WE BELIEVE

the new charter, properly administered, will provide much greater efficiency in the operation of our city government. We enthusiastically support the financial provisions of the new charter and pledge to keep taxes to a minimum.

WE BELIEVE

city government under the new charter, properly administered, will create a better community environment so necessary to attract new industry to Omaha.

WE PLEDGE

to use the influence of effective city government to bring new industries to Omaha, thereby creating more payrolls and jobs, spreading the tax load, and continuing opportunities for our young people.

WE BELIEVE

city government under the new charter, properly administered, will make Omaha a better, safer place in which to work, to live and to raise our families.

WE PLEDGE

constant vigilance in maintaining high standards in every phase of city government in our fast-growing city.

Omaha citizens approved the new city charter. But the job is only half done. Now it must be put into operation. Let's Finish the Job. The 7 Friends KNOW the charter. Vote for ALL SEVEN of these business-experienced, civic-minded candidates for the city council.

The 7 FRIENDS of the CHARTER were drafted by the CITIZENS CHARTER COMMITTEE to FINISH THE JOB. This committee represents a group of citizens who worked for the adoption of the charter and are interested in seeing it properly established. The committee is headed by Mrs. Paul Gallagher, honorary chairman; Lloyd Mattson, chairman; Robert Samardick, treasurer. Vice chairmen are Gerald Collins, Howard Drew, William F. Fitzgerald, H. Fred Jacobberger and Einar Viren.
