Suit Hurts Big-Hearted Sugar Ray

New York City. (Calvin News Service) ... Not one to brag about his great big heart, Sugar Ray Robinson's fans were just now catching upon the fact of all he had done for tennis champion Althea Gibson in her lean years when she was a nobody who thought Sugar was the biggest thing in life—and another lady, a fighter's widow smilingly praised Sugar's generosity only this week—but a blow to this kind-hearted guy's heart—and perhaps to his purse—is the news that Joe Glaser, top theatrical agent for many stars, is suing Sugar for his share of 10% of the Carmine Basilio fight. Glaser is quoted as saying Sugar tried to duck paying him, telling him he wasn't due it. But Glaser insists he is. In fact, he insists he loaned Sugar $120,000 which "saved Robinson from complete destruction."

Glaser acted as manager for Robinson first when he went on a tour dancing his way across stages of the country on personal appearance tours. Close friends Glaser has always attended Sugar Ray's fights and he has been one of the first in the ring at the finish. Sugar Ray's answer to paying off the $60,000 was: $15,000 down and $25,000 from the Basilio purse—the remaining $20,000 in installments to cover 3 years. Glaser called this "the silliest deal I ever heard of." Why should I wait three years for money I took out of the bank? The manager implied he doesn't want to sue but cannot understand Ray treating him this way. Glaser, incidentally, has made a fortune from such stars as Billie Holiday, Lionel Hampton and hundreds of small Negro acts.

Meanwhile, the fighter's widow who only praise for Sugar, was Mrs. Elaine Flores, whose husband, George Flores, died in '51 of injuries from a fight. This week she won a $30,000 settlement. In her own words: I was only 18 when Georgie was killed. I was stunned. But everybody was so nice to me. It was their kindness that kept me alive. It all helped and I really appreciated it. The man I remember best is Sugar Ray. A wonderful man with a wonderful family. They were all simply terrific.

Lessons Are Taught At Nashville

She had been haled into federal court, along with nine others, to show cause why she should not be enjoined from "in any manner deterring the attendance at school of the children of Nashville." Just a week ago, say affidavits, she was standing outside one of these schools screaming threats and calling police "nigger lovers." In court she said, "I didn't break no law." Another, in court for the same purpose, who had shouted threats I was just kiddin'."

Nebraska TB 50th Year Is October 10

The fiftieth anniversary of the Nebraska Tuberculosis Association will be marked at a luncheon Thursday, October 10, in Omaha during the Mississippi Valley Conference on Tuberculosis, announces Paul Bogott of Lincoln, president of the State Association.

Featured luncheon speaker will be Mark H. Harrington of Ogallala, former president of the National TB Association and of the Colorado TB Association as well as a member of the National Committee on Chronic Illness and the National Advisory Dental Research Council.

A Nebraskan for the past year as vice president and general counsel of the Good-All Manufacturing Company of Ogallala, Mr. Harrington is now a member of the Nebraska TB Association's board of directors.

"His topic, 'Work to Do,' is especially appropriate," Mr. Bogott remarked. "Although progress in the fight against tuberculosis the past 50 years has meant a saving of more than seven million lives, TB still strikes at the rate of one American every five minutes," he said, "so there is much 'Work to Do' in research and education!"

Handy Jim's FIX-UP TIPS For the Home

PERSONAL desk is a boon to the school age girl or boy. It needn't be costly, either. The illustration shows a wall-hung desk, made in the home workshop at small expense out of common building materials such as 1-inch lumber, a Masonite "Peg-Board" panel for a back, and a piece of hardboard that's smooth on both sides for the drop-down writing surface. Ordinary molding, obtainable also at the lumber yard, is another material required. An interesting feature is the optional chalkboard, which can be made by painting the underside of the writing surface with blackboard slating, available at paint stores. An important feature is the built-in fluorescent lighting fixture, which furnishes a soft but sufficient light right where it is needed.

Readers may obtain a free plan showing how to make the wall desk. Send a postal card to the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and request plan No. AE-310.

LONGER LIFE FOR COTTONS. Fashion coordinators have found a new descriptive term for "transition cottons," which women favor for sportswear wear... "Champagne Cottons," designating a complete line of gay dresses, suits, separates, for wear thru October, reflecting fall tones of tawny beige, wise green, blue foam, mist grey and Sparkling Burgundy. To photograph the young "Champagne Cottons" appropriately in the New York State Champagne country, models were taken to Hammondsport, New York, for pictures inside The Taylor Wine Company, Inc. and in the company's vineyards above Lake Keuka. Aldens Sales Grow Twice Industry Pace

Aldens Inc. increased both mail order and retail store sales during 1956 to pass the hundred million dollar mark for the first time in company history. R. W. Jackson, president, disclosed in his annual report to stockholders.

Record sales and earnings during the past year climaxed ten years of increase at a rate of growth almost double that of the industry. Jackson pointed out. Since the base years 1947-1949 Aldens sales have increased 28.8% as compared with an industry increase of only 14.9% according to the president's report.

Increased customer service through "will-call" stores, where shoppers can order and receive merchandise, and telephone offices where customers can order for home delivery were cited as major reasons for the increase. Further service expansion by opening catalogue order units in supermarkets is planned for testing in 1957, Jackson said.

Combs Through the Ages

Egyptian women were fond of goose grease as a hair pomade. To set off their gleaming beauty, they added beads, gems, feathers, and fancy ivory combs to their coiffures.

French dandies of the 17th century considered the ornate combing of perukes or wigs an outstanding act of gallantry, so they carried dainty combs with them wherever they went.

Modern women now use combs for an entirely new purpose—they give themselves home permanents! A comb-tipped applicator made by LHB is attached to a squeeze bottle containing the lotion. Squeeze, comb, and there you are!

1957 Vintage Queen Chosen

Here's an irresistible combination: A lovely girl, a bountiful vintage and quality wines from America's Wine Land—the State of California. It all adds up to this year's approaching National Wine Week, October 12-19.

Smiling from a vineyard is Dee Hardy, California beauty selected by California's wine growers as their 1957 Vintage Queen. With her wide hazel eyes and auburn hair, 23-year-old Dee Hardy symbolizes the goodness of California wine and the charm of the wine growing areas of the State.

The Vintage Queen will reign over the nationwide observance of Wine Week, and she invites all Americans to join with her in celebrating the excellence of California wines. Part of her regal duties as Miss California Wine Week include the task of promoting greater appreciation of wine and its contribution to the enjoyment of everyday dining and special occasion entertaining.

California's eight wine-growing districts are sources of superb wines in the five major classifications. These include the Appetizer Wines such as Sherry and Vermouth. Dinner Wines, both Red and White; among the famous red wines are Burgundy, Cabernet and Cabernet, with California's native Zinfandel rated one of the great Claret; among white wines are outstanding Chablis, Riesling, and Sauternes. Equally popular are the Sweet Desert Wines including Port, Tokay and Muscatel. Growing in popularity are the fragrant, all-purpose Rose' wines, which come under the category of dinner wines. And, of course, the Sparkling Wines are becoming increasingly popular. These include Sparkling Burgundy, Champagne and Pink Champagne.
