Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The public is invited to attend a Yuletide musical tea, Thursday, December 29, from 4 to 7 p. m., at the North Side branch of the Y. W. C. A., 2306 North Twenty-second street, given by the board of management. An interesting program will be rendered during the receiving hours. Miss Nancy Pharr, dramatic reader, will give several readings; "Bessie's Christmas Eve Lark;" "Where Do You Live?" Mrs. Pearl Ray Reese, will render a vocal solo, and other music numbers will be given by well known talent of the city. Refreshments will be served, and a silver offering will be taken. Come out and bring your friends.

The excellent numbers rendered at the Central Y. W. C. A., at the Christmas vesper service were especially appreciated and much credit is due Mrs. Louise Scott and Mrs. C. B. Burton, members of the religious and general educational committee, for securing the Bel Canto choral club of St. John's church, and the ladies' quintet of Mount Moriah Baptist church. The charming personality of Miss Delite Hollet, educational secretary of the Central branch, was largely responsible for the splendid success of the affair. Mrs. R. K. Laurie, assisted by Mrs. Viola Cole, and Mrs. Mara Mims, with the efficient aid of the Girl Reserves of the North Side branch, rendered excellent service during the social hour. Mrs. Hiram Greenfield, chairman of the religious and general educational committee, assisted at pouring tea and is especially grateful for the fine co-operation given by Miss Ruth O. Collins, acting branch secretary, and members of the board of management, with the members of the North Side branch. Mr. Joseph Thomas gave several numbers as an unexpected treat added to the program.

MEDICAL AUXILIARY

The Medical auxiliary met with Mrs. Price Terrell. Mrs. J. H. Hutten presided. Mrs. S. B. Northcross, South Omaha, was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Price Terrell, chairman of the benefit card party to be given December 21 at St. Benedict's, reported that the tickets were being sold and friends out of the auxiliary were offering to do what they could to make it a success. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Herbert Wiggins, January 10.

THE TRI-ARTS CLUB

The Tri-Arts club met Sunday, December 18 at the Y. W. C. A. The main topic for discussion was the selection of two more persons as sponsors. Mr. Toby James and Mr. T. P. Mahammitt were finally elected. Theodore Bell and Herbert McCaw acted as tellers. The club has decided to make up some Christmas baskets for the needy and each member is to bring some edible.

After all the business was completed, Miss Mable Anderson gave a humorous dialogue on "The Christmas Hint." Then Miss Thelma Norriess gave Wendell Phillips' oration "Touissant L'Overture." The club adjourned immediately after the short program.
