

TINKHAM OF MASSACHUSETTS TO ADDRESS N. A. A. C. P. ANNUAL MEETING

Champion of Congress Reapportionment to Speak in New York, January 8

New York, N. Y.—Congressman George Holden Tinkham, representative from the Eleventh Massachusetts District in the House of Representatives, and champion of a bill to reapportion Southern representation in Congress because of the disfranchisement of the Negro, will address the annual meeting here of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the Mother A. M. E. Zion church on Sunday afternoon, January 8.

Representative Tinkham, in accepting the N. A. A. C. P. invitation to speak, stated that he would not accept a penny of reimbursement for his expenses in coming to New York.

Mr. Tinkham has been known in the House of Representatives in the past few sessions for his persistent attacks upon the disfranchisement of the colored citizens of Southern states. In several congresses Mr. Tinkham has introduced a bill calling for a report from the committee of the census, which would be used in reducing the representation of the Southern states in congress, in accordance with the provisions of the United States Constitution. In the present congress Mr. Tinkham has introduced a resolution "for the investigation of the notorious and gross disfranchisement existing in the United States and for the enforcement of the mandatory fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States."

The investigation is proposed as a "preliminary step to the census to be undertaken in 1930," Mr. Tinkham having stated in plain words that "honest and constitutional government in the United States does not today exist." Mr. Tinkham has laid the blame not only on the Southern Democrats but on Republican leaders, saying: "The Republican leaders of the House of Representatives joining with the representatives from the insurrectionary slave states of the South are responsible. The great cities of the north and west, whose population during the last 18 years has vastly increased, are now not lawfully, fairly and proportionately represented constitutionally and does not fairly represent the American people and American sentiments." Of the southern states, Mr. Tinkham says: "As the Negro population is more than one-third of these states, each white person in these states has at least one-third more political power than each white person in the other states . . . That the Negro is denied the vote in these states is not only admitted, but is a matter of common knowledge nationally and internationally . . . Negro disfranchisement is more of a fraud upon the whole country than it is upon the Negro . . . Shall fraudulent majorities in southern states elect the president and control the congress by violation of the Constitution and its nullification?"

Representative Tinkham is a graduate of the Harvard college and law school, has been a member of the Boston Common Council and Massachusetts legislature, and since 1915 has represented Massachusetts in the House of Representatives. He is a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants and was the first American to fire a shot against the Austrians after the United States had declared war in 1917.

Miss Consuela Cross, a student at the University of Omaha, left Friday night for her home in Kansas City, Mo., to spend the holidays with her parents.

Miss Ruth Collins leaves tonight, accompanied by her brother, E. E. Collins, to spend Christmas with her parents at Shenandoah, Ia.

ROCKEFELLER JUNIOR GIVES $25,000 FOR AFRICAN Y. M. C. A.

New York City—A gift of $25,000 by John D. Rockefeller, jr., for the erection of a Y. M. C. A. center in South Africa for the native Negro population was made public here recently.

Mr. Rockefeller has for some time been interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. in South Africa and his gift toward the erection of a building was made after careful study and investigation. Concerning the work in Africa, he declared:

"This work has now reached a stage which justified considering the erection of a headquarters building to serve as a center for the training of Negro leaders for service of the native population."

COLORED MASTER BARBERS

BOBBED HAIR By R. C. Price

Of two evils, naturally it is always better to choose the lesser. As between having no hair at all on one's head, and wearing hair that has been legitimately purchased, possibly the latter course is the more esthetic.

I must emphatically insist, however, that it is not the most hygienic. The piling of false hair and other artificial aids to pulchritude upon the scalp that is already handicapped still further inhibits its chances for anything like normal activity.

If a woman's hair is short and scanty, it is far better for her to wear it cut short and to endeavor to stimulate an increased growth by giving attention to the scalp, rather than to wear false hair, or locks which only heat and sweat the head, and which by their own weight drag upon the feeble hair they are designed to fortify.

Of late years there has developed a cult which believes in bobbed hair, a fashion, if I remember rightly, that was made popular by Irene Castle, the famous danseuse. This is probably an adaptation of the old Dutch cut, used from earliest times to keep the tangled tresses of children from still further tangling.

This style of hair dressing is sensible, hygienic, and exceedingly attractive with most types of women, and I can heartily recommend it as evidence of sound common sense.

It is one of the many things that go to prove that the world is becoming saner and more intelligent in its dealings with all matters that have to do with physical welfare.

FLOYD SHACKLEFORD MAY APPEAR HERE IN POWERFUL DRAMA, "BABYLON"

"Babylon," the drama of satire by John Stevens McGroarty, staged at the San Gabriel Mission playhouse, Monday, October 17, for an indefinite run with matinees every Thursday and Friday afternoon, played to a packed house every night. The players, though hampered by the material given them, ranged from the essentially amateurish to the capable. First honors might well go to Fred Shackleford, who played the dumb slave, "Pekah." He was vital and mighty to look upon, he did a bit of pantomime well and he voiced no lines. His silence was a benediction.

Here is the story of Babylon, an ancient city of 500 B. C. done on a modern note with characters speaking in slang and satirizing "we moderns." The play is quite entertaining and is staged effectively, with Fred Shackleford the only Negro actor and formerly an Omaha boy, one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Shackleford, 2115 Ohio street, giving interesting and powerful performances.

The action of the play, "The Garden of Bazuzu" in Babylon in the year 500 B. C. with the characters, "Bazuzu," a get rich quick promoter; Rimmon, a scribe; Rasuh, a young gentleman of Nineveh; Horus, a friend of Bazuzu; Rihki, a mail carrier; Daniel, a Hebrew prophet; Pekah, an Ethiopian slave, played by Floyd Shackleford; Zebini, a chate-laine; Okhabata, secretary to Bazuzu; Nine, the cooing dove; Ziria, Baba, Naba, Cirbela, singing girls to Belshazzar; Tasrammath, the king's dance, with Teumar, Assura, Susiana, Elama, the dancing girls of the palace, and Ansch, the chief musician; Hapi, Hatshep, and Seta are slaves of Nin. Thus you can picture the great play, which is directed by Serge Cukrainy in ballet, Salvador Nuno in songs, Edward Sterling, stage director, and Ida L. McGroarty, technical directress.

This news comes direct from Floyd Shackleford, sending clippings from the Los Angeles and San Diego papers, and the entire program of the play, special to The Monitor, so his many interested friends and school-mates may know of his progress. He also sends a letter to his parents and all Omaha friends. "Babylon" will probably come to Omaha in the near future.
