Democratic State Ticket.

For Supreme Judge, T. J. MABONEY, of Omaha.

For District Judge, W. S. ASHBY, of Holdreth.

Democratic Judicial Convention.

The Democrats of the 15th judicial district are respectfully requested to meet in delegate convention at CHADRON, NEB., Oct. 10, 1895.

Democratic County Convention.

The democrats in the various precincts of Box Butte County, Nebraska, are requested to select delegates to attend a county convention to be held at the court house in Hemingford, Nebraska, on September 21, 1895, at 1 o'clock P. M.

Co. Judge, Sheriff, Clerk, Treasurer, Superintendent of Schools and one Commissioner for the third district.

The several precincts are entitled to representation in said convention, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Number of Delegates. Includes Alliance (21 Liberty), Boyd (2 Nonpareil), Box Butte (5 Runningwater), Dorsey (12 Lake), Lawn (7 Snake), Wright (4).

The Committeemen in the various precincts will attend to calling caucuses in their respective precincts at such time and place as may in their judgment seem best.

It will also be the duty of this convention to select a county central committee and a chairman thereof for the ensuing year.

Democratic Caucus uses.

The democratic voters of Box Butte precinct will hold a primary at the Collins school house Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1895, at 7 P. M., sharp, to elect five delegates to attend the county convention to be held at Hemingford, Sept. 21, 1895, at 1 o'clock P. M.

MAHONEY, Ashby and Ames are good clean men. No better nominations could have been made.

SOME of the republican dictators in this county are oiling the machine? But how much good will it do?

If Mr. Coxy, of Ohio, is defeated for governor this fall, he will remove to Oklahoma and run for Congress next year.

THE Democratic State Convention at Lincoln last Thursday was one which every democrat in the state is proud of. It seemed like an old-time Jackson-Jefferson convention.

C. J. SMYTH announces that he will resign the chairmanship of Billy Bryan's Brigade.

Gering Courier (Rep): The days of the free silver fallacy have gone glimmering.

Democrats of this county were not represented in the silver state convention, but will be in the regular or administration convention.

The following is an extract from Hon. R. S. Bibb's talk at the democratic state convention.

Mr. Bibb was escorted to the stage and introduced. He expressed gratitude for the honor of being permitted to preside over a most magnificent convention, representing a party standing for the principles of Jefferson, for the liberty of men, equal and just taxation, for all that is good and against all that is bad.

"The party stands for the integrity, he said, and especially for the financial integrity of the government. It stands for sound money, and against the pernicious policy of republicanism in taxing the poor for the benefit of the rich. A man cannot be a democrat and be anything else.

"An alleged 15 to 1 convention was held in Omaha recently," said Chairman Bibb. Sixteen to one what? Sixteen populists to one milk and water democrat.

"No!" yelled a delegate, and the convention whooped, shouted and showed other indications of going wild.

"There is only one democratic party," exclaimed the speaker.

"And we're here," shouted a delegate. Chairman Bibb continued to throw hot shot into the ranks of free silver-demos.

"Go it, you blamed little thing," yelled the farmer, weary with chase; you'll find out the difference when suckling time comes.

This story brought forth a storm of applause.

REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the Fifteenth judicial district of the state of Nebraska are hereby requested to elect and send delegates from their respective counties to meet in convention at Valentine, Neb., September 17, 1895, at two o'clock P. M.

The basis of representation will be the same as at the state convention and is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Number of Delegates. Includes Boyd (6 Keya Paha), Box Butte (6 Rock), Brown (5 Sheridan), Cherry (6 Sioux), Dawes (9), Holt (11), Total (57).

J. A. TROMMERSHAUSER, Chairman.
