

FOR WOMAN AND HOME

CURRENT READING FOR DAMES AND DEMOISELLES.

Some Notes of the Modes—A Rainy Weather Costume—Ladies' Tea Gown—Plaid Wool and Velvet—Untidiness in Women Inevitable.

HOW the new woman will revel in the new arrangement for comfort set forth by some far-seeing designer of woman's toggery!

A plain cloak of cravenette the usual length is worn with this rig, and when rubbers and a soft felt hat in the English shape is donned miliary is ready to battle with the fiercest elements and to successfully rout that dire enemy, mud.

Ladies' Tea Gowns. Fawn-colored cashmere and golden-brown velvet are here charmingly combined with a handsome plain front of pale yellow satin.

Mildred and others have asked how one may become a successful author. Answer: First and foremost, one must have something to write about.

is stiffened with an interlining and lined with the yellow satin, or this portion can be omitted if a less dressy effect is desired.

Ladies' Underclothing. It is one of the most hackneyed of expressions that "fine feathers make fine birds." Our dames and demoiselles have striven with all their might to outdo their feathered friends in outside apparel.

Authors' Successes. Mildred and others have asked how one may become a successful author. Answer: First and foremost, one must have something to write about.

Escort. W. B. asks: "If a lady's overshoe comes off in the street, and she will muddy her hands by replacing it, ought her escort to do it?"

Just Like a Man. Mrs. Somebody, who lives on Thirteenth street, has an infant son who is just beginning to walk.

Bedroom Rugs. A pretty little amateur artist has made for herself a pair of charming bedroom rugs. The material is burlaps, lined with old carpets, to give it body.

Plaid Wool and Velvet. A plaid street dress, in which red and brown predominate. The skirt is open each side, the front to disclose a plaiting of brown velvet.

Deafness Can Not Be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

How to Set Up a Christmas Tree. As generally set up the Christmas tree is a rather shaky affair, top-heavy, and in constant danger of being tipped over when it is touched.

Gloves must fit well. They may not lie in loose folds or "bag" in the fingers. Neither may they fit so tightly as to cause the buttons to burst, the seams to rip, the palm to split.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

Easy Circumstances. A young man inherited $50,000 from an aunt, and by a course of extravagance and speculation was pretty soon at the end of his fortune.

Confession and Hard Work. Indoors, particularly in the sitting posture, are far more prejudicial to health than excessive muscular exertion in the open air.

A FAMOUS PAPER. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION has become famous because there is hardly a famous man or woman in Great Britain or the United States who does not contribute to the paper each year.

There is a new disease known as "potterism." A man who plays cards all night gets it.

Hegeman's Camphor Ice with Glycerine. The original and only genuine. Cures Chapped Hands and Faces, Cold Sores, Etc.

"No Foolin'." ST. JACOBS OIL DOES NOT "FOOL 'ROUND"; IT GOES STRAIGHT TO WORK ON PAIN AND DRIVES IT OUT AND "SHUTS IT OFF" FROM RETURNING. THAT'S BUSINESS.

And the Band Played On. "Roma," announced the imperial messenger, "is burning." The Emperor Nero evinced interest. "The conflagration is general," continued the officer.

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being.
