ONE COSTUME FOR FIVE PLAYS

Mary Anderson Tells the Trials of Her-Barly Stage Career.

Andereen's first appearance on the does not see any room for doubts stage and her second performance-"a heart-breaking interval," writes Mrs. De Navarro in the January number of the Philadelphia Ladies' Home Journal, manner in which the free silver Manager Macauley of Louisville, Ky., element was turntd down at the offered her his theater again for a week and she presented the chief roles lu five plays-"Fazlo," "The Hunch- 'be convinced of this fact when back," "Evedne," "The Lady of Lyons" the Nebraska delegation take and "Romeo and Juliet." Of the firs; week's engagement she writes: "At the end of the weak I was in debt to the vention .- Lincoln Herald. manager for the sum of $1, the houses having been large enough to only cover running expenses. All I gained by a week of hard work was a sad heart and a very sure throat. Besides, creditors became unpleasantly importu- they will have to spend the greatsate, for my scanty wardrobe was not yet paid for.

"This consisted of a white satin dress, simply made, which did service for all the parts. It sparkled in silver trimming for Juliet; was covered with pink roses for Julia; became gay in green white lace for Pauline. The unfortunate gown owed its many changes to the nimble and willing fingers of my in its metamorphoses. A train of velveteen, a white muslin dress and a modern black slik gown (which, like Mrs. Toodles, we thought would be so useful, but which had to be discarded after blind to public opinion. Its first appearance) completed my wardrobe-surely a meager one for five plays of five acts, each requiring at least twelve gowns.

"We had built up financial as well as artistic hopes for that week and were disappointed in both. But it proved more successful than was at first thought, for shortly after Ben De Bar, formation about western farm one of the greatest Falstaffs of his time, engaged me for six nights at his St. Lenis theater. At the end of that time I found myself in his debt for the sum price is twenty five cents per year, of $600, but the houses had steadily improved and the press was filled with long articles enthusiastic about the Puture."

When It Rans Counter to Muscular Force In Uniform.

"Look here, mister man!" began a patrolman as he walked up to a tramp who has been hanging around the postoffice and accosting pedestrians, "you want to move on out of this!"

"You mean you want me to move on?" queried the tramp. "Yes, I do!"

"Well, that is guite a different matter. While I do not want to move on, you wish me to, and as you represent force I must go. Did it ever occur to you how out?"

"What do you mean ?"

"You order me to move on. I move.

Love Laughs Again.

Mayma Pence and Frank Stanley are to be married. The engagement was announced recently in Anderson, Ind. paping $2,775. This puts an end to a romance in which bloodhounds and all kinds of stage effects have played a part. Sinnley, during the time he has been paying attenharassed by his rivals, who stole his horse and buggy on several occasions, as a last resort, they cut off and stole Mayme's golden tresses one night while half a dozen other litigations followed. The hair was never found.

Stole a Barn.

Something of a new record was established by thieves in Adams county. Washington, last week. They stole a big barn belonging to the coupty muditor, pulling it down during the 101-31-36 might, loading it on wagons and hauling it to parts as yet unknown.
