From the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—In reply to a request from the New York Herald for a statement concerning the democratic situation President Cleveland tonight sent the following to that newspaper:

Washington June 16.—I have no figures as to the probable action of delegates already chosen or to be chosen to the democratic national convention, but I refuse to believe that when the time arrives for deliberate action there will be engrafted upon our democratic creed a demand for the free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver. I cannot believe this because I know the democratic party is neither unpatriotic nor foolish, and because it seems so clear to me that such a course will inflict a very great injury upon every interest of our country, which it has been the mission of democracy to advance, and will result in lasting disaster to our party organization.

There is little hope that as a means of success this free silver proposition, after its thorough discussion during a political campaign, will attract a majority of the voters of the country. It must be that many of the illusions influencing those now relying upon the alleged panacea for their ills will be dispelled before the time comes for them to cast ballots. The adoption by the delegates to this proposition would, I believe, give to our opponents an advantage both in the present and future which they do not deserve.

My attachment to true democracy is so strong that I consider its success as identical with the promotion of the country's good. This ought sufficiently to account for my anxiety that no mistake be made at our party convention. In my opinion no effort should be spared to secure such action of the delegates as will avert party demoralization. It is a place for consultation and comparison of views, and those democrats who believe in the cause of sound money should there be heard and be constantly in evidence.

A cause worth fighting for is worth fighting to the end. If sound money democrats suppose there is danger of a mistake being made such danger should stimulate their activity in averting it instead of creating discouragement. I am very far from arrogating to myself a controlling influence upon the policy of my party, but as an unflinching democrat, who has been honored by his party and who desires hereafter no greater political privileges than to occupy the place of private in its ranks, I hope I may not be blamed for saying this much at this time, in the interest, as it seems to me, of the grand old organization so rich in honorable traditions, so justly proud of its achievements, and always so unflinching and brave in its battles for the people's welfare.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Henry S. Robbins, speaking of the president's views upon the democratic situation, said:

The democrats of Chicago are unreservedly opposed to the party's committing itself to free silver, believing that such a step would result in certain disaster. Even men who are identified with the silver wing of the party in this city believe that, but seem controlled by machine influence. It is gratifying to those democrats of Chicago who have thrown off the machine yoke and made a firm stand for honest money that the president has so expressed himself.
