ESTRAY.

Strayed from my place six miles northeast of Hemingford, the last of March, one iron grey bald-faced mare, weight about 1100. A liberal reward will be paid for recovery of same.
A. FELDER.

Having purchased of J. M.
Trout his Shire stallion, "SAXON KING" and his French coach stallion, QUINAULT, I will stand them during the season at my farm, six miles west and two north of Hemingford. Terms, $5 to insure. These stallions are too well known to need further description.
A. S. ENYEART.

As we go to press the telegraph announces the nomination of W.
J. Bryan of Nebraska, for president, on a free silver platform.

Ben Moore, of Sioux Co., drove in to town today.

Rev. Wunderlich drove down to Alliance Sunday.

Harve Goodenough went to Crawford the Fourth.

Miss Georgia Miller was quite ill the first of the week.

Henry Winten and wife, were in the city Wednesday.

Jim Hunter shipped a car load of fine cattle Tuesday evening.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J.
Earnest, Tuesday, July 6, a girl.

Miss L. Ramsey, of Ardmore, S. D., was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Mable Reck, of Allinace, was visiting Mrs. Geo. Sparks week.

Mrs. L. B. Fenner is visiting her husband at Gering this week.

Miss Mabel Curtis has returned from visiting her sister at Hay Springs.

Messrs. Theo. and Fred Neeland were Hemingford visitors Tuesday.

Zeke Mabin had a wagon load of fine new potatoes on the market yesterday.

Mrs. W. D. Johnson is attending the teachers' institute at Alliance this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Killeen returned Tuesday from a few days visit at North Loup.

Mrs. John Sullenberger, of Marland, visited Hemingford during the past week.

James Hollinrake came down from Edgemont Wednesday night and will remain over Sunday.

Dick Bevan raffled off his bicycle Tuesday. 20 was the lucky number and S. P. Tuttle was the holder.

Alex Muirhead closed a term of school at Belmont Friday. He is visiting Hemingford friends this week.

J. C. McCorkle returned from Marion Co., Iowa, Sunday morning, and will remain indefinitely.

Ed House the irrepressible life insurance man from Broken Bow, was calling on our business men Wednesday.

The families of J. A. Smith and Dan Mauck left Wednesday morning to attend the Adventist camp meeting at Crawford.

Martin Posvar, of Lawn, had the misfortune to lose a little 4-year-old girl by death, which occurred on the 3d. and was caused by a severe burn on the throat, resulting from the upsetting of a pan of hot lard.

We acknowledge the receipt of an editorial complimentary ticket of admission, good for ourself and wife to the Nebraska State Fair to be held at Omaha, from Aug., 27th to Sept., 5th 1896.
The same is duly appreciated.

Rev. A. E. Ricker, of Chadron, will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening in exchange with the pastor. The Lord's Supper will be administered directly after the morning sermon.

There will be a Missionary Entertainment at the Methodist church next Sunday evening, to which every one is invited.
The exercises will consist of recitations, Bible reading and papers, interspersed with inspiring songs.

Mr. Olney Kendall, of Rushville, nephew of Rev. Kendall, is visiting in the city.

A merry party of picnickers, consisting of the Gilman, Sweeney and Hammond families have gone to the river today.

Messrs. Ed Wildy and Harry Pierce, accompanied by the Misses Miller and Loer, celebrated the Fourth at Belmont.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. I. E.
Tash, on July, 3, a daughter.
Weight 10 pounds. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Mrs. Sherwood attended the Missionary dinner at Miss Susie Frazier's on Wednesday, and from there went to Alliance on business.

Anton Uhrig and family, accompanied by Miss Anna Wohlens and Rev. Wunderlich, spent the Fourth on the Running Water.

Miss Nellie Goodenough returned from Hot Springs, last Saturday night, there not being enough pupils enrolled to make a success of the summer school which she had gone to attend.

This morning we received for publication, a very interesting, letter from the Hon. J. G. Maher, dated "Convention Hall" Chicago, giving an account of the convention, but regret that it was received too late to print.

Miss Neeland is conducting the eighth annual session of the Box Butte Co., teachers' institute at Alliance this week. B. F.
Gilman has charge of her office keys during her absence. See him if you have business at the office.

Rev. J. H. Davis, the Baptist evangelist, who has been holding tabernacle meetings here for nearly two weeks delivered a very patriotic and instructive discourse in the tent on the 4th.
The meetings were closed on, Sunday night, with 10 accessions to the church.

Eli Gerber drove over to Ger-ing last week, accompanied by Prof. Fenner who will serve as one of the instructors at that place. Mr. Gerber says that alfalfa, is the only crop that is doing well under irrigation.

S. P. Tuttle and L. R. Corbin returned Tuesday evening from their overland trip to the North Platte Congressional convention, covered with glory, mosquito bites, and sand burrs. They modestly claim the honor of nominating the next Congressman, having cast Box Butte's six votes at the critical moment for Hon. A. E. Cady the nominee.

The State of Nebraska vs G. C.
Alexander, was the title of a case before Judge Olds, at his office in the blacksmith shop yesterday.
The complaining witness John Potmesil, alleges that the defendant, did on or about July 6th, abstract and take from his herd one red female calf three days old, and of the value of $7.00 gold standard.
Constable Harry Pierce arrested Alexander and brought him before the court. The State requested a continuance until Saturday but the prisoner stated that he desired to attend the populist convention on that day, so the case by agreement was set for Monday, while Constable Harry Pierce fills the place of stepmother to the calf.
Alexander says it is a case of mistaken identity, and that if the calf belongs to Potmesil, it was inadvertently taken, which we hope may be true.

Mr. S. I. Wright, of Canton, was in town Friday night. He reports crops, out in Liberty Precinct as being unusually good.

Up to the hour of going to press this paper was democratic, but what its next issue will be, in view of the action of the National convention, the "devil" only knows and he is in Chicago.

Bob Garrett brought in some fine samples of wheat and oats, from his well improved farm near Berea, on Monday. The grain measures five feet in height, and Bob says they are the result of deep plowing. The grain which he disced in not amounting to much.

Dick Bevan is home again and heartily welcomed by his many friends. Dick is a very economical young man, and in order to save the fare from Crawford took a steerage berth on the bumpers, of No. 46. This proved a very hot dusty place, but the fireman took pity on the tourist and turned the engine hose on him, and continued the shower bath interspersed with chunks of coal, cobble stones etc., until the train arrived in Hemingford, and without waiting for the train to stop, he gave a leap which would have cleared the right of way, had not his head made connection with a bank, and which rendered him "spacheless" for awhile. Dick says, "I bate the bloody corporation out of $1.50 any how."

W. H. Hubbell a prominent stockman of the Sand Hills, with headquarters at Alliance was murdered at Lakeside Sunday morning. When the deceased was found life was not extinct, but he did not recover sufficient consciousness to utter a word.
He was lying on his back, and had both hands in his pockets and legs crossed. The only wound found on him was a gash about 2 1/2 inches long a little to the left of the crown of the head, with a hole through the skull nearly one inch long, from which any fair man would necessarily conclude that the wound was made by a blunt instrument or weapon, and that Hubbell was murdered. He was not murdered for what money or valuables he had on his person, for nothing had been disturbed. Certain parties in the hills are suspected, and Sheriff Sweeney and other friend of the dead man expect some development soon.

It is generally and justly conceded that on the recurrence of the glorious Fourth of July, that the patriotic and enthusiastic small boy shall be allowed a great deal of latitude in his conduct and granted privileges not accorded to him at any other time; but when these privileges are abused, and exceeded as they were on the morning of the Fourth by Bertie Gilman and a few other small thoughtless boys, it is time that public opinion should demand a halt.
The offence to which we refer, was that, of firing guns and cannon crackers, at an unseemly hour, under the bed room windows of slumbering citizens.
Neither the aged, the sick, the schoolma'am nor the minister were exempt from their thoughtless and unearthly racket. The offence will be condoned this time, but the parties are warned that a repetition of it may result in consequences serious to themselves.
