Mrs. L. B. Fenner is visiting at Dunlap.

Miss Mabel Curtis was an Alliance visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Uhrig and daughter Nettie visited Alliance Saturday.

Mrs. McFadden is visiting at Custer City, S. D., this week.

L. A. Robinson, of Chadron, orders the HERALD sent to his address.

Miss Anna Neeland visited in Alliance a couple of days this week.

Misses Mary and Josie Friel departed for Lead, S. D., Thursday morning.

W. C. Cavin, the McCormick collector, was in town Friday and Saturday.

Revs. Wunderlich and Thoen attended Lutheran conference at Edgemont this week.

J. T. McGrew did not stay long in Denver and is now at Champa, New Mexico.

J. C. McCorkle has moved his family out to J. A. Hunter's ranch for the winter.

Mrs. Dr. H. H. Bellwood, of Alliance, was a pleasant caller at this office Thursday.

Frank Book, section foreman at Girard, had his eye injured by a flying spike last week.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Rev. A. C. Wanderlich to Miss Anna Wohlers.

E. C. House, the genial representative of the New York life insurance company, has been in town since Saturday.

A social dance was given at the home of Jas. Hunter Friday evening and a pleasant time is reported.

Geo. J. Scharrf returned from Iowa Monday. He spent a few weeks at Norfolk on his return, working in the sugar beet factory.

The Kroesing boy who was lost in the storm Monday night of last week was found dead near Dunlap Friday. Funeral services were held Sunday.

Jos. Carey came down from Deadwood Wednesday where he has been holding down a good job for the past nine months.
He will return in a few weeks.

James T. Byrne, one of the old settlers of this county, came down from Hill City last night and will remain a few days. He called and deposited $1.50 for the HERALD.

True Miller, son of Co. Coroner W. K. Miller accidentally shot himself in the leg last Wednesday.
Dr. H. H. Bellwood, of Alliance, was called to the ranch and has made the young man as comfortable as possible.

The publisher acknowledges receipt of an invitation to attend the sixth annual ball given by the Crawford Fire Department in Syndicate opera house, Crawford, Thanksgiving evening.
Prof. Gungl's orchestra will furnish the music and no doubt it will be an enjoyable affair.

The great comedian, John Dillon, and a capable company, will be at Alliance Friday evening Dec. 4th. Mr. Dillon's fame is world-wide. Everybody has seen or heard of him, and his visit to any city is an event of unusual interest. It is more than likely that a goodly number will attend from here.

District Court.

Judge W. H. Westover conceded the adjourned September term of court here last Tuesday.
There has never been a judge in this district that has so expedited court matters as does Judge Westover and under him the court expenses are kept at a minimum.
The jury was called up Wednesday morning but there being no jury cases it was discharged at once.

The case of the State of Nebraska vs James Brantner was dismissed at the cost of defendant.

State of Nebraska vs Grant C.
Alexander continued upon a showing that a material witness for the defense could not be obtained this term.

A bill of exceptions was granted in the Bank of Hemingford cases and they will be appealed to the supreme court.

Huston vs Huston, decree granted and costs taxed to defendant. The mother to have the custody of the child.

Pearson vs Pearson, divorce, decree granted plaintiff.

COURT NOTES.

Reporter Maher is on hand and spreads a "halo of glory" about himself as he pictures the late political struggle in the state and Douglas county. John narrowly escaped having his eyes scratched out when he suggested to one of the lady witnesses that she would have to talk so he could hear her.

Among the attorneys present from out of town we noticed Messrs. Hampton, Sullivan, Smyser, Mitchell, Berry, Nole man, Simonson, of Alliance, Fanning and Daley of Crawford, Habegger of Chadron, Kaley of Omaha, Pettis of Lincoln, and Swabury of Wahoo.

The lawyers are a jolly set of fellows and seem to have all enjoyed the term of work. Kaley of Omaha and Maher are conceded to be the story tellers and some of their yarns would come very nearly having the desired effect on Engineer McDermott.

Ike Marshall came up Thursday with a very sober face but his complete exoneration of the charge against him sent him home with a smile like a half moon.

The divorce case of Mrs. Fannie Huston vs Dean R. Huston drew the only crowd during the term. The evidence only proved an incompatibility of temper and it seems that these young people should have been happy together.
Neither one of them had a case against the other. The case occupied all of Thursday afternoon and evening.

Co. Treasurer Miller and Mr.
Sherwood were in attendance at court Thursday.

Engineer "Pete" McDermott made an everlasting "stand in" at the county seat. If Pete would run for a county office next fall we will guarantee him the vote of every man, woman and child in Hemingford.

John Sexton entertained the boys Thursday with a complicated key. John says its the key to the whole situation. He is a pleasant gentleman and is always a welcome caller at the county seat.

Many stringent criticisms were heard relative to the escape of the cattle rustler, Ira Nelson.

It is reported that Reporter Maher is thinking serious of engaging in the brewery business at Omaha. John you ought to get maraud and stop your foolishness.

The "liars" i. e. the World-Herald men hold the championship over the "lawyers" in whist during the term.

The following Alliance people were here as witnesses in the Huston case: Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Whinney, Mr. and Mrs. McDermott, Mesdames Tillett and Van-Court, Misses Mae Sloss and Tillie Wilcox, J. R. Sexton, W. A.
Payne.

E. M. Todd, H. J. Ellis, Beck, John Carmicle, L. E. Sickles and A. J. Simonson of Alliance attended court.

Rev. Father Brophy, the first Catholic priest of Chadron, left last week for Ponca, Nebraska.
It is with deep regret that the members of Father Brophy's parish part with their old pastor. He came to northwestern Nebraska eleven years ago when the country was new and sparsely settled; the church was without organization, but he went to work with energy and as a result of eleven years of ceaseless toil he leaves a fine church property in this city and a flourishing congregation. Besides he erected churches in Sheridan, Box Butte and Sioux counties, nine in all. No one has been more closely identified with the early history of this country than he, and his kind heart and progressive spirit have endeared him to the hearts of his people.—Chadron Signal-Recorder.

Father Brophy has a host of friends in this county who wish him success in his new home.

There will be held in Hemingford, Nebraska, a Bible institute, conducted by Rev. Frady, beginning Jan. 20, 1897 and continuing in session four days. The work of the institute will be a study of four Gospels—the life of Christ.
Circulars concerning the institute may be had from Rev. Hazelton, Rev. Preston, C. J. Wildy or Mr.
Sherwood. Everyone is invited to attend. A large class is desired.

A meeting concerning the institute will be held at M. E. church next Tuesday evening Nov. 24, 7:30 p. m. Everyone come.
Anna Neeland, Sec.

The Northwestern Nebraska Educational Association will meet in Crawford in Crawford, Neb., Nov. 27. A good program has been prepared and a inspiring meeting is anticipated. Every one interested in educational work is cordially invited and teachers are requested to attend.

Anna Neeland, Sec'y.

Photos.

While your family is all at home and in health—why not have their picture taken together—maybe you would not part with such a picture at any price in a few years.
