Royse's majority exceeded the anticipations of the most sanguine.

E. R. Purcell is all that is left of the demo-pop crowd that crowded so lustily before election.

The republicans presented to the voters a good ticket, and their nominees were most handsomely endorsed at the polls.

Those republicans who joined the fusion party because of their disbelief in partisan politics, now have their pains for their pay.

Those who felt called upon to oppose the republican party and its nominees so severely, will now have time to meditate upon the wisdom of such a course.

Judging from the result of Tuesday election, partisan politics does not stand in the way of the voters when the party does not seek their franchise by resorting to deception.

That "Handfull of republicans", whom the Chief claimed constituted the republican caucus, demonstrated at the city election that it must have been a pretty good sized hand.

As the law recently passed provides for the election of city marshal in cities of the second class, hereafter the candidates for mayor will stand no chance of losing votes on account of a supposed deal with this or that one who may be an aspirant for appointment.

"Deception won't work," remarked a leading democrat Wednesday morning. "Hereafter I will not go into a fusion deal on the pretense of having a 'citiz'n's ticket.'" The facts are, the people have been fooled so often on that kind of a deal that they are getting their eyes open.

Governor Poynter has deservedly brought upon himself the indignation of the patriotic element of the state in his veto of the resolution passed by the legislature, complimenting the First Nebraska regiment for the heroism manifested in the battles in which they have been engaged in and around Manila. The unprecedented act not only shows the Governor devoid of patriotism, of which every true and loyal son of America is so proud, but it proves him too coarse to conceal his hypocrisy. In his veto message he attempts to excuse his contemptible act, and uncalled for insult to the Nebraska boys, by impeaching the motives of the President for maintaining the honor of the government, in protecting those who by the incident of war with Spain fell to our charge. But in his veto message Gov. Poynter has only been the mouth piece of the more ultra of his party whose every effort since the President was forced into the war with Spain has been to discredit his efforts and impeach his motives, simply and for no other reason than political prejudice. I am not as old as some of my readers, but I have a vivid recollection of a class of the north during the war of the rebellion who were too cowardly to go to war on either side, whose delight was to abuse and maligne President Lincoln and impugn his motives and attempt to ridicule the Union soldiers by calling them Lincoln's hirelings. They would not so much as lift their finger to have prevented the disruption of this government, nor have signed resolutions endorsing the bravery and success of the Union Soldier. Is not Gov. Pointer and a large number of the leaders of his party sons and daughters of those same sires? Why should we be surprised if the unregenerate boy follows in the footsteps of his rebellious father? Rather should we be surprised if he did not. Father's and mothers who have sons in the Philippines, enduring the horrors and privations of war for the honor of their country. God and humanity be not deceived. Gov. Pointer is not alone in his views, he only voices the sentiments of the leaders of his party in refusing to commend our brave heroes for their valor. Could a fiend from the lower regions of hell withhold his applause in the presence of grand and noble manhood bleeding and dying on the field of battle in honor of his country. The morbid crowd, it is said, did jeer and rail on Christ when, upon the rugged cross he gave up his life for the sake of humanity. For them there there is some excuse. They were ignorant and Christ prayed for their forgiveness, for they knew not what they did. Is it possible that there are those in the 19th century who hold and aspire to the highest offices within the gift of the people, who from the lack of knowledge are excusable, who can not comprehend the depth of gratitude we owe our own brave Nebraska boys? They are offering themselves a sacrifice in defence of the flag and the honor of our nation. Who knows but they are the pioneer missionaries who, in the providence of God, are blazing the way for the missionaries of the Gospel, who will civilize and lead millions of those barbarians into the light and liberty of christianity.

Refuse to commend our own Nebraska sons! No more noble, no more brave, no more patriotic blood ever coursed the veins of any country. Refuse to commend your own sons for unparalleled patriotism? Not such a sire has no such sons. Grapes are not gathered from bramble bushes, neither are patriots born of traitors. Parents and patriots, when you lay your head upon your pillow of down tonight, in offering your prayers for the protection and safe return of our boys, will you not lay aside all your partisan prejudice in your solemn moments, when none but you and your God know your vow, and inquire of yourself how long you will disgrace our state by electing men of a party embracing such principles, to office.

A Tribute to the Nation's Dead Heroes.
President McKinley has issued a proclamation ordering the national flag on public buildings, forts, camps and public vessels of the U. S. to be placed at half mast today, in memory of the fallen heroes of the American army and navy. At two o'clock today the bodies of the officers and privates who were killed in Cuba and Porto Rico during the late war with Spain, who were not given a private burial by friends, will be buried in the National cemetery at Arlington, Va., at a high time all proper military and naval honors will be paid the dead heroes.

Gov. Poynter vetoed the item of $2,000 in the appropriation bill, which provides for investigating the books of the state officials. The Governor was evidently afraid to face the search light turned upon the acts of his pals in office.

Get in the band wagon. The Republicans have started to the front with a down hill pull in Broken Bow and the tide will sweep the county next fall.

Bussey and a Foot Pad.
Charles Bussey, of this city, who recently returned from Manila, where he had been serving as a private in the First Nebraska volunteers, has re-enlisted and has been sent back to the Philippines. Private Bussey was discharged some months ago, but was ambitious to return to the service. He considered the hospital corps as offering the best opportunities for advancement, and last week went to Chicago, passed the necessary examinations and was sworn into the service of Uncle Sam in the hospital department.

Before leaving Chicago, Bussey demonstrated to a crook that a soldier boy was a bad thing to run up against. He had been in a restaurant and in settling his account showed a large roll of bills. When he left the place he was followed by a bad looking specimen of levee tough. Though it was broad daylight, Bussey suspected the man was a hold-up. He accordingly went to the Illinois Central depot, deposited his money with a friend and sallied out to meet the robber. He had proceeded only a few feet from the station when he met the tough face to face. The bad man stepped up to him and placed a gun against his breast and said "Shell out!" Bussey, without a word, grasped the revolver with both hands and wrested it from his assailant. The would-be robber broke into a run and Bussey put the gun, an ugly looking 44, into his pocket. The incident attracted but little attention as few people saw the short scuffle and those who witnessed it did not suspect the cause. Bussey kept the gun and will use it against the Filipinos.—Champaign Co. (Ill.) Herald.

Every Month

there are thousands of women who nearly suffer death from irregular menses. Sometimes the "period" comes too often—sometimes not often enough—sometimes the flow is too scant, and again it is too profuse. Each symptom shows that Nature needs help, and that there is trouble in the organs concerned. Be careful when in any of the above conditions. Don't take any and every nostrum advertised to cure female troubles.
