

Sketches of Judge M. B. Reese, a Resident of Nebraska for Twenty-three Years.

Judge M. B. Reese has been a resident of Nebraska twenty-three years. He is a native of Illinois, having been born in Macoupin county in 1839. He received a common school education and, being desirous of further culture, attended a seminary for two years, paying his own expenses. During that period he developed the spirit of independence and self reliance characteristic of all men who attain eminence. His father was a farmer and the son followed the same occupation until he was 24 years old. Meanwhile Mr. Reese had married and settled down, but an accident occurred which disabled his arm for life. He found it impossible to continue on a farm.

Mr. Reese then commenced the study of law. Shortly after the breaking out of the war he enlisted, but when he came to undergo the physical examination necessary, much to his chagrin, he was rejected because of injury referred. He then again applied himself to study of law and was admitted to practice in March, 1865. He practiced in Osceola, Ia., until 1871, when he came to Nebraska.

Mr. Reese settled in Plattsmouth and remained there about two years. Although he was building up a good law practice, he was forced by the ill-health of his family to move away from the river. He then went to Saunders county, establishing himself over sixteen years, and achieved a state reputation.

He was elected a member of the state constitutional convention in 1875 and assisted in framing our present state constitution.

In the following year Mr. Reese was chosen for state senator by the republicans of his district, but he declined the nomination. In the fall of 1876 he was elected district attorney of the then Fourth judicial district and was re-elected in 1878 and again in 1880, practically without opposition.

In November 1882 Mr. Reese resigned his position, lacking two months of holding it six years. In the fall of 1883 he was nominated for position of supreme judge and was elected, remaining on the bench for six years, the last of which he served as chief justice. His career as supreme judge is well known.

After leaving the bench he established himself again in the practice of law in Lincoln.

Last winter he was a candidate for United States senate and was voted for on ever ballot. At one time he stood a very good show of election.

About six years ago Judge Reese was appointed dean of the law department of the State university of Nebraska, which position he still holds.

A Converted Populist Speech.

Chaplain Mailley, of the First Nebraska Regiment who went to Manila a populist, chanced to be at Omaha during the republican state convention. On being discovered among the spectators he responded to an enthusiastic for his presence on the platform. He made the following brief speech.

"I have never even voted a republican ticket," he declared, "but I belong to a church that believes that while the light holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return. I am glad to have the privilege of addressing a convention of a party that believes that the world do move, that believes that shoes large enough for the boy may be too small for the man. In time of peace I am for the administration when it is right. In time of war, when the time for talk is over and the time for action has come, then I am for the administration, right or wrong. I have followed the old flag over the rice fields of Luzon with the best regiment that Uncle Sam ever sent to the front, and I propose to follow it here. There was never a time when the republican party had so great an obligation resting upon it as it has at this time. The issue of this contest will not be settled in the Philippines, but right here at the ballot box. And I have come home to vote as I shot."

The Bee says "the cheers that continued almost incessantly while Chaplain Mailley was speaking, burst into a storm of cheers as he closed, and for five minutes the enthusiasm of the delegates was literally riotous."

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

A WINNER NAMED

Judge M. B. Reese Nominated by Acclamation as a Candidate for Supreme Judge.

At the republican state convention at Omaha Thursday, Chief Justice M. B. Reese, dean of the state university, was nominated by acclamation for judge of the supreme court. The nominee had previously served as a member of the supreme court for six years, and in that time was the admiration of the people of the state. For six years he has been dean of the state university, and to accept a position again on the supreme bench means to him a sacrifice of $500.00 a year. He refused to be a candidate, but when made the nominee he has agreed to accept as a matter of duty. No stronger or more popular man could have been nominated. In speaking of his nomination, the State Journal says:

The republicans of Lincoln are jubilant over the nomination of Judge M. B. Reese for judge of the supreme court. Expressions of satisfaction are heard on all sides, and especially from members of the bar. The attorneys consider him an able lawyer, and that qualification is the first point they look to. The members of the party generally know him as an honest man, a man above reproach. The politicians of all parties realize that he is one of the strongest nominees ever placed before the people. He is known to his friends as an open-hearted man, and a model of good citizenship. His sociability and approachableness has made him many friends. Every young man who has gone out of the university law college, regardless of political views, has nothing but the highest praise for him. One who has been intimately associated with Judge Reese for many years, said: "He is the best man it has ever been my fortune to know. He is great enough to shine by the side of the most exalted in the nation, yet he has never become so exalted that he could not place himself on the level of the most lowly man, woman or child."

The attorneys who discuss the matter admit that there is no comparison between the eminent fitness of Judge Reese and the mediocre ability of ex-Governor Holcomb as a lawyer. There is also no comparison in the matter of ability to make a campaign. Judge Reese is a fluent speaker. He is energetic, and makes a good impression by his speech and by his appearance. Ex-Governor Holcomb is admitted to be a very poor talker, and his ponderous speeches have frequently emptied houses. The fusionist leaders are still at a loss to know what to do with the mud batteries which they have prepared for the republican nominee.

The following is the famous fair warning article by Judge Edgar Howard in the Papillion Times a few weeks ago prior to the nomination of Silas Holcomb for Supreme Judge. Varily danger has beset their path and distraction will follow in November.

"Nebraska ought to be kept in the popocratic column this fall and always. Democrats are ready to make any and every sacrifice to that end. However it may just as well be understood now as later that there are in the state more than fifty democratic and populist newspapers that will never lift a hand to defend any man whose record is tarnished in connection with any ballot recount fraud, any house-rent steal, any pass-bilking. The Times and every other democratic paper in the state will give loyal support to any clean populist, should the populists be given the nomination for supreme judge, but we beg our populist friends not to insist on the nomination of a man whose record is so bad that we could be forced to take a defensive position during the campaign. Let us have a clear candidate for supreme judge, be he populist or democrat. Danger will beset our path in Nebraska in case our forces shall give the nomination to any man of unsavory repute. There is no necessity for encountering any such danger. There are scores of clean jurists in the popocratic ranks.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

What has become of the imperative populist demand for a reduction of the salaries of public officers both county and state that was heard so often in the early days of populism before any populist had tasted the sweets of office? Does anybody know of a single populist state or county official who is now demanding a reduction of salary? This demand for reduction of salaries, having served its purpose of fooling the people, has joined company with the demand for abolition of passes and they both have now "gone glimmering, like a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."—G. I. Republican.

Historic Gavels.

The Modern Brotherhood lodge, of this city, has two historic gavels that are relics of the Spanish-American war. One was presented to the order by Claude Pickett, of the Third Nebraska regiment, which he procured while in Cuba, and sent home to the M. B. A. lodge as a memento of the occupation of Cuba by his regiment. The other gavel was sent to the order by W. D. Grant, hospital steward of the First Nebraska regiment, while in Manila. It was made from the wood of one of the Spanish vessels, sunk by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay.

Wedding Bells.

The parlor of the home of Mrs. R. Klatt, residing five miles north east of Anselmo, was the scene of a modest wedding ceremony September 23d, by which her daughter Ida was united in marriage with Cary W. Layton, Rev. W. H. D. Hornaday officiating. The groom is one of our returned soldiers from Manila, who is well known and highly respected by all. The bride was becomingly attired in a creamy white of some soft, clinging material, trimmed in cream satin and chiffon, with tiny white roses in her hair. She is known as one of our sensible and lovable girls. The happy couple will reside in the north part of town at present. May their future life be filled with sunshine and happiness.

Opening Announcement, Wilson Bros.

Oldest Established Grain Firm in Custer County.

Having purchased the west elevator in Broken Bow together with cribs and coal sheds, will commence business at that place on Monday, Oct. 2nd; under the management of Mr. J. J. Wilson of this city. Thanking the public for their liberal patronage for many years past at their other stations in the county, and trusting that an earnest effort at fair dealing has merited the same, they respectfully solicit a fair share of trade from the citizens of Broken Bow and the surrounding county.

Republican Caucus.

The republican electors of the city of Broken Bow are hereby called to meet, in the court house, Friday September 29 at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination of two justices of the peace two constables, assessor and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. I. A. Reneau, Chr. Com.

Cattle For Sale.

One thousand head of one, two and three year old steers also eight hundred head of stock cattle. For particulars enquire of W. C. Gregory. tf.

Farms for sale and lands for rent. Now is the time to get a farm cheap, as the cheap farms are all going and prices are commencing to advance rapidly. J. G. Brenizer.

THE NATIONAL-AMERICAN WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION AND THE NEBRASKA EQUAL SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

Will hold a convention in Broken Bow on the 3rd and 4th days of November, 1899. Able speakers will be present and an entertaining and instructive program will be provided. Call for convention and program will appear later. By order of Committee.

The pain of a burn or scald is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It also heals the injured parts more quickly than any other treatment, and without the burn is very severe, does not leave a scar. For sale by all druggists.

Letter List.

Following is the dead letter list for week ending Sept. 26th, 1899.

Mrs. Anna Joy. Mr. J. D. Cunningham. Mr. O. E. E. Huff. Mr. John Combs. John Foxworthy (dead). Miss Annie Boile (letter).

Parties calling for any of the above will please say "advertised." L. H. JEWETT, P. M.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.

This is to certify that I have had chronic diarrhoea ever since the war. I got so weak I could hardly walk or do anything. One bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me sound and well.

J. R. Gibbs, Fincastle, Va. I had chronic diarrhoea for twelve years. Three bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me. S. L. Shaver, Fincastle, Va.

Both Mr. Gibbs and Mr. Shaver are prominent farmers, and reside near Fincastle, Va. They procured the remedy from Mr. W. E. Casper, a druggist of that place, who is well acquainted with them, and will vouch for the truth of their statements. For sale by all druggists.

House for Sale.

The J. S. Kirkpatrick property, three blocks from public square: also a good bicycle for sale. Enquire of J. C. MAULICK.

GOOD ENOUGH TO TAKE.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medicine for the cure of coughs, colds, lagrippe, croup and whooping cough it is unequalled by any other. It always cures, and cures quickly. For sale by all druggists.

Wm. F. Hopkins,

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER.

Plans and Specifications on short notice. Material furnished and buildings completed cheaper than any man in the state. Satisfaction guaranteed as to plans and specifications.

DR. R. H. McCROSSON,

RESIDENT DENTIST.

Chas. W. Hakes, M. D.

HOMOEOPATHICIAN,

Successor to Dr. M. C. Blystone.

Office over Chrystal Drug Store. Calls promptly answered from office, day or night.

Every Month

there are thousands of women who nearly suffer death from irregular menses. Sometimes the "period" comes too often—sometimes not often enough—sometimes the flow is too scant, and again it is too profuse. Each symptom shows that Nature needs help, and that there is trouble in the organs concerned. Be careful when in any of the above conditions. Don't take any and every nostrum advertised to cure female troubles.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

is the one safe and sure medicine for irregular or painful menstruation. It cures all the ailments that are caused by irregularity, such as leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, nervousness; pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. By regulating the menses so that they occur every twenty-eighth day, all those aches disappear together. Just before your time comes, get a bottle and see how much good it will do you. Druggists sell it at $1.

Send for our free book, "Perfect Health for Women." THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. ATLANTA, GA.

CLOTHING,

All New, and of the Latest Pattern,

W. H. PENN & CO'S.

We have the finest line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Etc.

We bought these goods direct from the factories, and are able to sell them as cheap as any house in the county. The advantage we have over our competitors is that our stock is all new, and we have no shelf worn or second hand stock. All these goods are up to date in style, and quality second to none. We are located in the Realty block, south side square. Call and see us. We are prepared to lead our competitors, in quality and prices.

W. H. Penn & Co.,

Broken Bow, Nebraska.

We carry the following kinds of coal:

De Nigger Head,
Canon Lump,
Maitland,
Eastern Hard,
Splint and Sheridan.

FOR THE BEST COAL, GO TO

Foster & Smith Lumber Co.

W. L. RULE, Mgr.

Telephone No. 79.

Peale & John

HAVE A LARGE QUANTITY OF

PEACHES AND APPLES,

which they are selling low. Their

Queensware

IS AS FINE AS CAN

BE FOUND IN THE

CITY

—See them for Bargains in—

VEGETABLES.

Hello, there, are You Coming to the Big Show?

If so, you will see Geo. Willing, with the Peninsular, Plinished Steel Range High Closet; it is a beauty, at a moderate price. It makes my competitors howl. Also the Cast Stove, from $11.00 up.

The ESTABLISHED OAK Heater is a world beater—it made the other fellow change his line last year. It holds fire 60 hours. Hundreds are in Custer county.

Just received a carload of the celebrated Studebaker Wagons—best wagon made; also Racine Banner & Bradley Buggies and Spring Wagons. Deering Binders won't work in winter.

WHITE SEWING MACHINES—Five different styles. They are king of all machines.

HARDWARE—A large and complete stock.

GUNS—A big stock, from $10.00 up; Winchester, Marlin and Spencer Repeater.

LANTERNS, HOME-MADE TINWARE, best Washers, etc.

FURNITURE—A large and complete stock; Bed Suits, Couches, etc.

THE LACLEADE BICYCLE for $25.00, equal to a $40.00 wheel.

Good and reliable goods, low prices and square dealing always do the business which I have had for eleven years here. When in need of goods in my line, see me; will save you money. You will have some corn and millet to bind. I have some full weight Deering white Sial Twine left that has given such good satisfaction to every farmer. No, I am not smooth enough to sell short and inferior twine. No matter what you buy of Willing, it is as represented.

Geo. Willing.

F. C. WORSALL, President. J. A. HARRIS, Cashier. A. J. ROBERTSON, Vice-Pres. W. D. BLACKWELL, Ass't Cashier.

Farmers Bank of Custer County,

BROKEN BOW, NEB.

Transacts a General Banking Business. County Claims and Warrants Bought.

The County Fair,

—AT—

Broken Bow, Neb.,

October 3, 4, 5 and 6.