

CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN

D. M. AMSBERRY, Publisher.

BROKEN BOW. - NEBRASKA.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Fire at Meridian, Miss., caused a loss of $300,000.

New York wants the democratic national convention.

The natural gas supply of Crawfordsville, Ind., has failed.

Freight agents of middle state roads contemplate advancing rates.

At Buffalo, N. Y., the ground is covered with a foot of snow.

Maj. Frank C. Armstrong, surgeon in the regular army, is dead at Manila.

The rubber trust will consolidate its factories at Peoria, Ill., and Akron O.

The physician of Evangelist Moody says he will recover in time with rest.

H. C. Frick is to become consulting partner in the Carnegie Steel company.

Near Cleveland, Tenn., James Mowry, a farmer, killed his wife and himself.

London papers comment freely on the president's message, generally favorably.

Philadelphia is making a strong effort to secure the republican national convention.

O. D. Saunders, a Kentucky school teacher, was stabbed to death by one of his pupils.

At Assumption, Ill., Amos Bailey committed suicide by blowing his head off with dynamite.

Bloodhounds have been put on the trail of the murderer of James Winchester of Vienna, Ill.

By the filling of Kimberley mines with water Cecil Rhodes is losing at the rate of $50,000 a day.

Julia Marlowe Tabor, the actress, has applied for a divorce from her husband, Robert S. Tabor.

Near South McAlester, I. T., two white men were killed by negroes with whom they were gambling.

A bill was introduced by Penrose of Pennsylvania to pension Mrs. Gridley, wife of the late Captain Gridley of the Olympia, at $100 per month.

The British bark Ravenscourt, eighty days from Panama, arrived at Port Townsend and will be sent to Diamond Point into quarantine. Yellow fever broke out at Panama, and nine sailors were stricken, four of whom died.

Senator Allison, chairman of the republican caucus of the senate, has announced the republican committee places in the senate. Its members are: Senators Aldrich, Cullom, McMillen, Hansbrough, Lodge, Perkins, Elkins, Spooner, Platt (N. Y.).

The western classification committee, representing the freight departments of eighty western roads, met in Milwaukee, the object being, it is said, to advance the classification of a number of commodities, principal of which are groceries and hardware.

The state insane hospital scandal of South Dakota culminated when seven attendants, composing the heads of nearly all the wards, handed in their resignations. The trouble grows out of charges of incompetency, drunkenness and criminal carelessness, resulting in the death of a patient, fire in one of the wards and an assault by one asylum physician upon another.

The George Washington Memorial association has made public a request that on December 14, 1899, the centennial anniversary of Washington's death, all the schools of the land will suspend the list of missing is close to 600. In the Second Northumberland Fusiliers six officers are reported missing. There are no details to the First Dorsetshire regiment of whose presence with Gatacre we learn for the first time that 306 men are reported missing and there are no details as to officers. It is impossible, therefore, to avoid the conclusion that we don't know the full extent of the reverse. The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire.

A GREAT BOER VICTORY

Defeat of Gatacre the Most Severe Repulse British Have Suffered.

A GREAT MANY PRISONERS TAKEN.

General's Force of 2,000 Greatly Reduced by Dutch Strategy - Many Officers Among the Wounded - British Commander Says He Will Wire the Full Casualties Later.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The war office publishes the following dispatch from General Forester-Walker at Capetown. Gatacre reports:

"Deeply regret to inform you that I met with a serious reverse in the attack on Stormburg. I was misled as to the enemy's position by the guides and found impracticable ground."

"Casualties, so far as known at the present, are:

"Second battalion, Irish Royal Rifles—Wounded: Lieutenant Colonel Eager, Major Eaton, Captain Bell, Captain Kelly, Lieutenant Stevens, Lieutenant Barnardston.

"Suffolk Regiment—Wounded: Second Lieutenant Maynard and twelve men. Missing: Captain Weir, Lieutenant Christie, Second Lieutenant Rodney, two hundred and ninety men."

"Fourth Field Battery—Severely wounded: Lieutenant Lewis and three men. Slightly wounded: Two men."

"Seventy-seventh Field Battery—Killed: One gunner, wounded; Major Percival.

"Northumberland Fusiliers—Missing: Major Stevens, Captain Fletcher, Captain Morely, Second Lieutenant Wake, Second Lieutenant Coulson, Lieutenant Radcliffe, three hundred and sixty-five officers and men."

"Royal Berkshire Regiment—Killed: One private.

"The remainder of my casualties will be wired as soon as ascertained."

LONDON, Dec. 11.—(New York World Cablegram.)—The post says:

"The good news which comes today from Ladysmith is more than counterbalanced by the very serious reverse encountered at Stormburg by Gatacre. The Boers in the latter movement offered no opposition till our men reached the impregnable position which they were defending, when they opened hot and unexpected fire."

"The engagement began at 4:15 a. m. Sunday and lasted till 7 when, after an artillery duel, our men withdrew and marched back to Molteneo."

"So ran the first dispatch, giving merely an impression of a fruitless adventure and leaving us utterly unprepared for the bare figures of our loss which came in the second report. All the advices that have so far reached us make the fight at Stormburg take rank after Nicholson Nek as the most serious reverse of the war. We don't yet know its full proportions, but judging from what we have the worst must remain behind. Already the list of missing is close to 600. In the Second Northumberland Fusiliers six officers are reported missing. There are no details to the First Dorsetshire regiment of whose presence with Gatacre we learn for the first time that 306 men are reported missing and there are no details as to officers. It is impossible, therefore, to avoid the conclusion that we don't know the full extent of the reverse. The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

LONDON, Dec. 11.—(New York World Cablegram.)—The post says:

"The good news which comes today from Ladysmith is more than counterbalanced by the very serious reverse encountered at Stormburg by Gatacre. The Boers in the latter movement offered no opposition till our men reached the impregnable position which they were defending, when they opened hot and unexpected fire."

"The engagement began at 4:15 a. m. Sunday and lasted till 7 when, after an artillery duel, our men withdrew and marched back to Molteneo."

"So ran the first dispatch, giving merely an impression of a fruitless adventure and leaving us utterly unprepared for the bare figures of our loss which came in the second report. All the advices that have so far reached us make the fight at Stormburg take rank after Nicholson Nek as the most serious reverse of the war. We don't yet know its full proportions, but judging from what we have the worst must remain behind. Already the list of missing is close to 600. In the Second Northumberland Fusiliers six officers are reported missing. There are no details to the First Dorsetshire regiment of whose presence with Gatacre we learn for the first time that 306 men are reported missing and there are no details as to officers. It is impossible, therefore, to avoid the conclusion that we don't know the full extent of the reverse. The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

"The moral of this unfortunate affair is that the worst mistake made in the war was the attempt to press home on the government the fact that men are wanted. Men must be sent, cavalry and horse artillery most especially, unless in sheer parsimony we are to throw away a corner of the empire."

EXPRESS ROBBERY AT CHEYENNE.

The Pacific Company Loses Several Thousand Dollars.

CHEYENNE, Dec. 11.—The details of a most daring robbery are just coming to light here. Last night between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, the office of the Pacific Express company was robbed of several thousand dollars in money, and, although officers set to work on the case immediately and the strictest secrecy has been maintained not a single clue has been discovered.

There is a small force of men in the express office at night to handle express on incoming and outgoing trains and when the trains arrive the men have been in the habit of locking the office. This was done last night as usual and when the express men returned twenty minutes later the north door, or city entrance, was open, as was also the safe door. The discovery was made that all of the money contained in the safe was missing.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large shipment of gold which was to have gone to one of the banks in central Wyoming over the Cheyenne & Northern this morning, but the officials will say nothing about the matter. Indications point to the fact, however, that the loss is considerable.

The express office force is under surveillance and the robbery is being thoroughly investigated.

Officials of the express company refuse to state the amount of money taken, which is reported to be between $5,000 and $25,000. It is reported that the safe contained a large