does expectant mothers so much good is because it is an external liniment, to be applied upon the outside, where much of the strain comes. It helps because the pores of the skin readily absorb it, and it comes into direct contact with and is absorbed by the parts involved. Morning sickness is quickly banished, and nervousness is kept completely away. The sense of dread and foreboding is not experienced, even during labor itself. Explanation of Sunday School Lesson . BY REV. ONO. O BURNS.

Feb. 25, 1800, Jesus Rejected at Nazareth-Luke 4:16 30.

GOLDEN TEXT-"He came toto his own a his own received him not."

After remaining a few days in Sychar gaining new desciples, Jesus wended his way on through Samaria into Galilee. In the early part of his Gali ean ministry this lesson took place. It was natural for Jesus to visit this home town, where he had spent nearly thirty years of his life. It was not with a sinister motive that he went back to Nazareth to preach. He had won prominence for himself at Jerusalem and it was fittings for him o carry the same tidings of his Messiahship to his old friends and neighbors. The Sabbath morning on which our lesson took place was one long to be re membered by the people who attended service that morning in the synagogue As the trumpet sounded from the roof of the synagogue calling the people to service, Jesus as had been his custom went o the synagogue. Many recollecti na must have rushed upon him as he walked to the sypagogue. Heretofore be bad been only a peasant boy, only a carpenter, but now he was no longer a listener but a teacher. As it was customary to nvite visiting rabble to preach, Jesus, haring won such renown in Jerusalem, Cana and Capernaum, was invited to preach. He took the roll of Isaiah, and unroled until he came to the 61st chapter and read. This was his text "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath appointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance te the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord," Bolling up the scroll he handed it back to the attendant, and said "this day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears " We do not know the substance of his sermon, but it must the ta'es of many a Western Leonihave been on the words above recorded. Many sermons had been preached in which they assembled at the sound that synagogue but never any like this of boots and saddles, is now the one. No donbt Jesus bad listened to many day, uninterestsng sermons delivered from that platform. Spiritual sermons and unspiritual. The people had heard Sabbath after Sabbath but none like this. All Isaael waited for the news of the comming of the Messiah Jerusalem had its eyes strained, watching for his comming; now at last, tide ings are brought to Nazareth by the Messiah himself that the Messiah has

The people wondered at the words of grace as they flowed from his divine lips Strang indeed that the words of prophecy should be fulfilled in the little village of Nazareth. As his old neighbers were astonished at his words so ever since the world stands not only astonish ed at, but to admire his words and the works of his kingdom.

The eighteenth and nineteenth verses of our lesson express the general trend of his life. He came also to real the broken hearted. "Jesus did this while going about preaching. He called Lazarus from the dead, and thus made happy the home in Bethany. But all through these centuries, Jesus Christ has been binding up wended and bleeding hearts; hearts bored down with sorrows of siand troubles Take out of the world the comfort of the Christian religion and at once is furnished a world of broken bearts. They knew his father, sisters and brothers and were unwilling to accept the words of grace that flowed from his lips. It was ever so-a prophet without honor in his own country. He tells them of the beathen widows in the time of Elijah who was cared for and preserved while many widows in Israel were not because of unbelief. He also recalled to them Nasman the Syrian who was cured of his leprosy while many lepers in Israel were not cleansed because of unbelief. Angered at these words spoken against them, his old friends and townsmen rush upon bim, cast bim out of their city and would have cast him down from the cliff upon which Nazareth stood but he passing through their midst went his way. Nazareth rejected him as Israel afterwards did. "He came to his own but his own received him
