Populist County Convention.

The once powerful organization, known as populist, came together in this city Monday under the call of a county convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, that will select delegates to the national fusion convention to be held at Sioux Falls, May 9. J. R. Rhodes being absent the meeting was called to order by E. R. Purcell. A temporary organization was effected by electing Tom Holiday chairman and E. R. Purcell secretary.

The following committees were appointed on organization: C. W. Beal, E. S. Finch and S. Gates. Order of business: John Cooney, J. R. Forsyth and C. G. Empfield. Resolutions: W. J. Taylor, A. B. Hartley, W. G. Eastman, J. J. Tooley and Fred Cummings. Credentials: H. J. Shin, C. M. Blowers, J. J. Downey. On motion, all resolutions were referred to the committee.

AFTERNOON. The convention reconvened at 2 o'clock and was opened with Prayer by Rev. Epley. The committee on organization reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent. The report was accepted. W. A. Overman was elected assistant secretary. The report on credentials showed all precincts represented but Grant, Elim Hayes, Triumph and Elk Creek. Report adopted.

While waiting for the committee on resolutions speeches were made by Jesse Gandy, C. W. Beal, and Rev. Epley. The committee recommended a resolution instructing the delegates to the state convention to use their influence in selecting delegates to the national convention that would support only populists of national reputation for presidential candidate, but provided further in case the democratic convention would accept one of the populist nominees on the presidential ticket, that in that event the pop national committee would be authorized to withdraw one of the nominees and substitute the democratic nominee instead.

The resolution was vigorously advocated by Holiday, W. J. Taylor, Hartley, Cummings, W. G. Eastman, Cooney, and others. It was opposed by Jeffords, E. Taylor, L. W. Cornish, C. W. Beal, Dietz, Ream, and others. A lively time was had for about two hours when the matter was compromised by passing a substitute offered by C. W. Beal which instructed the delegates to work for the nomination of any one who sympathies are with the populist party, which means any body that the leaders can make a deal with regardless of his party principles. The substitute was carried by a vote of 143 to 51 1/2.

Resolutions were also passed favoring female suffrage in the Philippines and another adopting the initiative and referendum theory, as reported by J. D. Ream. On the female suffrage resolution the women were given the privilege of the floor and Mrs. T. E. Wheeler and Mrs. C. Pickett addressed the convention. The work of the convention was then soon concluded by electing 24 delegates to the state convention and naming the central committee men.

FROM PHILADELPHIA TO PARIS. (Special Correspondence by F. Rogers.)

PARIS, March 1, 1900. We sailed from Philadelphia November 4, 1899. By we, I mean the party brought together by the Rev. Mrs. Cass Ferguson of Fuzon, Arizona. It was supposed to be a party of ladies only but how a "male" happened to get into it is more than I know, although I happen to be the unfortunate one. It does not take long to get acquainted with people on a steamship. Before we had been aboard twenty-four hours I think every fellow knew the other and his family history. It was well that we did, too, for we were bound to be together for thirteen days on a rough sea.

There were twenty-seven women aboard the Belgeland, a thing which I could not understand, a thing which I could not understand by sailors a very bad omen. To make it worse there were about ten Lutheran missionaries aboard making in all thirty-six. Perhaps I forget to mention that the Mormons, or Latter Day Saints, as they call themselves, were all missionaries. However, one very wise old "Sant" who was said to have had several wives assured us that a boat with "Sants" aboard had never been known to sink, so naturally we felt quite safe.

During the day, when the weather permitted, we were always on deck playing some game. The favorite game was "shuffle board" or "deck billiards." The game is all right on ship board where there is nothing else to do, but on land it would be a dry game. In the evening the men, all but the "Sants," would collect in the smoking room and tell stories. I think that was the best regulated smoking room in the world. One man, the largest aboard, and he was always in the smoking room, was elected captain and master of ceremonies of the smoking room gang. Any one who failed to report to him once each hour during the day was fined a shilling. In the evenings after dinner each fellow had to tell a story, sing a song or dance a jig. And so the time passed very nicely until the eighth day, when the storm struck us.

I have always wanted to "see" a storm at "sea" and I must say that I had my wish fulfilled to the greatest extent. It began on Friday night Nov. 8, about twelve o'clock, and the first thing it did to us was to smash two port glasses on the port side of the ship and give some people a shower bath. All day Saturday, the tenth, it raged and the captain said we stood just an even chance of staying on top or going to the bottom. Many people were badly soaked but I enjoyed myself thoroughly during all. I guess it must have been on the strength of what the old "Sant" told us. A great many people were so sick that they wished we would go down. Sunday was almost as bad as Saturday although there was not such a high wind (Concluded next week.)

MARRIED—At Farmer's Restaurant Broken Bow March 10, 1900, Harry Wright and Mrs. Myra Austin both of Sargent, Rev. Horaday officiating.

Mrs. Austin is well and favorably known as one of the young teachers of Custer county, and a daughter of A. R. Damon of Sargent. Mr. H. Wright is a young man of education strictly moral and industrious and enjoys the esteem of his acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will occupy the farm near this city vacated by S. Brady. X

MARRIED. CLAY—AMSBERRY—Wednesday evening, March 14, at the residence of the bride's parents J. W. Clay of Ansley and Minnie M. Amersberry of Broken Bow, Rev. S. C. Cadwell officiating.

The bride is the oldest daughter of ye scribe. Since her graduation from the Broken Bow High school, in '94 she has been teaching. We think she is one of the best girls in the county. The groom is a young man of good reputation and is a farmer by occupation. After the ceremony, supper was served to a number of guests, who with but a few exceptions were the young associates of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Clay were the recipients of a number of valuable and useful presents. The occasion was made more pleasant, by the appearance of the Boys' Broken Bow Band who serenaded the company and joined in the festivities of the hour.

OBITUARY. Miss Emily Welman was born January 19th, 1823, in Harrison county, Indiana. Was married to Charles Sands, Sept. 14, 1843; to them were born seven children four of which are still living. She united with the Baptist church in 1844, and lived a faithful and consistent Christian in the church for 56 years, at which time the Master said it is enough, come up higher. She passed away peacefully at her son's, B. B. Sands at Custer Center, Nebraska, Sunday, March 4th, 1900, aged 77 years, 1 month and 15 days.

Mother is gone! Jennie has called her, and she has gone home, Home to that "country" where troubles and trials never come.

She never will come to us, But we may meet her on that "Golden Shore." Where together round the throne we'll sing, And part no more here.

She has crossed the dark river before us, She has crossed it, but not alone, For Jesus, the boatman, has taken her spirit And carried it home, to that blessed home.

Mother is gone! Gone to her rest in that "glorious land." She stands ready to welcome us, when on that side of Jordan we stand.

Then together we'll walk the golden streets, Never more to say good bye. —E. N. FORTE.

Spring and Summer Opening 1900. I wish to announce to the public that my line of Millinery and silks will be complete by Saturday March 24th and Monday March 26th and prices to suit every one. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mrs. THOMSON.
