

"EYE DONT'S"

Don't "fool" with your eyes. If they bother you in any way come in and I'll tell you what the trouble is. Don't select your own glasses at the counter, but go to one who has made a study of the eye and its conditions. Thorough examinations free of charge. Don't "think you need glasses" because some friend has told you so. If your eyes have gotten so bad that you are telling friends about them they may need the most careful attention of a competent Optician.

Chaplain Mailley's lecture Monday night on the Philippine islands was both instructive and interesting. The crowd while fair was not as large as it should have been. It is reported that some parties in town undertook to make it a failure by circulating stories derogatory to the meeting in order to prejudice as many as possible from attending, which did not fail in having its influence. Such dastardly proceedings show how low some can stoop to satisfy their prejudice. But with all the opposition the receipts were sufficient to meet the expenses and left Co. M., for whose benefit it was given, a nice little surplus.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams; she was born in Worth county Mo; she was married February 16 1898 to James Mason, and they lived in Buffalo county until fall when they moved back to Custer county where she has always lived since she was six years old. She leaves a husband, a little son, Everett 16 months old, father, mother, two brothers and three sisters to mourn her loss; they were all present at her bed side except one sister who lives in Hayes county. Two little girls were born to them on March 21st; one died on the 23rd and the 30th, both are buried in the same little coffin in the Boxelder cemetery. At the request of the deceased her body was taken to Ansley where services were held in the Methodist church, Rev. Forsyth officiating, and she was laid to rest beside her brother in the Ansley cemetery. She also requested that her babies be taken and laid beside her.

She talked to them all. Told them all what to do; She said she was going For them all to be true. And at last she would meet them They would all be together, Where no parting can come, Where nothing can sever, She would follow her babies And be with her brother, For them not to mourn, But to love one another, And keep each to her, Life's sorrows and care Try to make each one happy, This was her prayer.
