CLOSE UPON AGUINALDO

American Bullet Believed to Have Reached Filipino Leader.

HIS HORSE COVERED WITH BLOOD

Major March, with Detachment of Thirty-Third Regiment, Overtakes Insurgent Party After a Long Pursuit Through the Rain.

VIGAN, Luzon, via Manila, June 3.—Major March, with his detachment of the Thirty-third regiment, overtook what is believed to have been Aguinaldo's party on May 19 at La Gat, about 100 miles northeast of Vigan. The Americans killed or wounded an officer, supposed to be Aguinaldo, whose body was removed by his followers. Aguinaldo had 100 men, Major March 125.

The American commander reached Laboagan, whither Aguinaldo had made his headquarters since March 6, on May 7. Aguinaldo had fled seven hours before, leaving all the beaten trails and traveling through the forest, along the beds of streams. Toward evening, May 19, Major March struck Aguinaldo's outpost about a mile outside of La Gat, killing four Filipinos and capturing two. From the latter he learned that Aguinaldo had camped there for the night, although exhausted and half starved.

Major March's men entered La Gat on the run. They saw the insurgents scattering into the bushes or over the plateau. A thousand yards beyond the town, on the mountain side, the figures of twenty-five Filipinos, dressed in white, with their leader on a gray horse, were silhouetted against the sunset. The Americans fired a volley and saw the officer drop from his horse. His followers fled, carrying the body.

The Americans, on reaching the spot, caught the horse, which was richly saddled. Blood from a badly wounded man was on the animal and on the ground. The saddle bags contained Aguinaldo's diary and some private papers, including proclamations. One of these was addressed: "To the Civilized Nations." It protested against the American occupation of the Philippines. There were also found copies of Senator Beveridge's speech, translated into Spanish, and entitled "The Deathknell of the Philippine People."

Major March, believing that the Filipinos had taken to a river which is a tributary to the Chico, followed it for two days, reaching Tiao, where he learned that a party of Filipinos had descended the river May 20 on a raft, with the body of a dead or wounded man upon a litter, covered with palm leaves.

There Major March reviewed his command, shoeless and exhausted, and picked out twenty-four of the freshest men, with whom he beat the surrounding country for six days longer, but without finding any trace of the insurgents. The Americans pushed on and arrived at Aparri May 29.

The officer shot was either Aguinaldo or his adjutant, and as the horse was richly caparisoned it is a fair presumption that it was Aguinaldo.

DEARTH OF PRETORIA NEWS.

Consensus of Opinion that the Boers Will Surrender.

LONDON, June 4.—A. m.—There is no direct news from Pretoria of late date than Thursday evening. General French's cavalry were then at Irene, eight miles south of Pretoria, and firing was heard there. Lord Roberts' message about secondary operations elsewhere and the situation at Johannesburg, dated at Orange Grove, a farm four miles northeast of Johannesburg, show that on Saturday at 9:10 p. m. he was twenty-five miles from Pretoria.

The correspondents with Lord Roberts have not got through a line about the operations after the occupation of Johannesburg. Official messages continue to come through, but press telegrams are held up, probably to avoid their giving even a hint as to what may be the pending operations. From the other side and their followers through Lourenzo Marquez comes a mass of statements, some contradictory, others obviously improbable, but all purporting to be facts.

Boring Artesian Wells.

PIERRE, S. D., June 4.—S. A. Cochran, state engineer of irrigation, has returned from Sully county, where he located sites for two artesian wells in Pearl township. It is expected to have the wells flowing before winter. Another well is being sunk in Sully county on the ranch of C. D. Banton, east of Onida, and the wells just located will make four for the county. The well sunk last year on the King ranch, near Onida, has demonstrated that the artesian flow can be secured in that county in sections where the different geological surveys have demonstrated by theory that such wells could not be secured.

Neely Papers are Signed.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Governor Roosevelt has signed the Neely extradition papers and they were forwarded to Washington tonight.

INDIA'S DEPLORABLE CONDITION.

Louis Klopsch Makes Statement of Scenes in England's Dependency.

BOMBAY, June 3.—Louis Klopsch of New York, publisher of the Christian Herald, who arrived here May 14 and started at once on a tour of the famine stricken districts, has returned, after traveling through the most severely stricken portions of the Bombay presidency, including Gujerat and Baroda. He makes the following statement regarding his observations:

"Everywhere I met the most shocking and revolting scenes. The famine camps have been swept by cholera and smallpox. Fugitives, scattering in all directions and stricken in flight, were found dying in the fields and roadside ditches. The numbers at one relief station were increasing at the rate of 10,000 per day.

"At Godhera there were 3,000 deaths from cholera within four days, and at Dohad 2,500 in the same period. The hospital death rate at Godhera and Dohad was 90 per cent. The condition of the stricken simply beggars description. Air and water were impregnated with an intolerable stench of corpses. At Ahmedabad the death rate in the poor house was 10 per cent. Every day I saw new patients placed face to face with corpses. In every fourth cot there was a corpse.

"The thermometer read 115 in the shade. Millions of flies hovered around the uncleaned dysentery patients. I visited the smallpox and cholera wards at Viragam. All the patients were lying on the ground, there being no cots. Otherwise their condition was fair.

"I can fully verify the reports that the vultures, dogs and jackals are devouring the dead. Dogs have been seen running about with children's limbs in their jaws.

"The government is doing its best, but the native officials are hopelessly and heartlessly inefficient. Between the famine, the plague and the cholera the condition of Bombay presidency is now worse than it has been at any previous period in the nineteenth century. Whole families have been blotted out. The spirit of the people has been broken and there may be something still worse to come when the monsoon breaks."

ST. LOUIS SUNDAY RECORD.

Dynamite Explosion Stops Car Line and Kills Hystander.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 4.—A riot of small proportions, during the progress of which a boy was fatally shot and a dynamite explosion marred what would have otherwise been an uneventful Sabbath. As a car on the lower Grove line of the St. Louis Transit company was passing the corner of Twenty-eighth and Calhoun streets a crowd of strike sympathizers began throwing rocks at it. An unknown man leaped from one of the windows of the car and fired a shot from a revolver toward the unruly crowd. The bullet sped over the heads of the mob and found lodgment in the breast of Peter Frank, a 16-year-old boy who was sitting in the doorway of his father's house, an interested spectator of the demonstration. A detachment of police dispersed the rioters and carried young Frank to the city hospital. The physicians say that the wound will prove fatal.

Kruger Near the Border.

LOURENZO MARQUEZ, June 3.—Saturday, President Kruger was still at Machadodorp, about half way between Pretoria and the Portuguese frontier, on the railroad between the Transvaal capital and Delagoa bay. Another large command was at Bronkhorst's spruit, about fifty miles from Pretoria, on the railroad leading to Delagoa bay.

The men killed and Engineer Bell live here.

BOERS HOLD PRETORIA

Siege of the Capital of the Transvaal. However, in Progress.

THE PEACE COMMITTEE OVERRULED

General Botha and Followers Probably Determined to Fight On—Nothing From Lord Roberts for a Day—Conflicting Reports of the Situation Are Heard at Lourenzo Marquez.

LONDON, June 2.—Lord Roberts continues silent regarding Pretoria.

Lourenzo Marquez, where all the news from the Boer side is rehandled, cables that communication with Pretoria is now suspended.

Some messages by courier have reached Lourenzo Marquez, but none of later date than Wednesday. These assert that the burghers are in a state of panic and that Pretoria is being controlled by a vigilance committee.

Lourenzo Marquez again sends the report that President Kruger has been captured.

The news blank gives rise to a suspicion that a citizens' committee at Pretoria may not have been able to carry out its plans for securing the peaceful entry of Lord Roberts and sparing the city the horrors of a siege.

A piece paper appeared to be in the ascendant and as soon as President Kruger and his cabinet left Pretoria to organize a new capital the citizens' committee persuaded the commandants of the forts to withdraw some of the troops from the defenses, perhaps with the view of keeping order in the town.

If messengers were sent to the British or the British, being two hours' march from Pretoria on Wednesday, entered it at any time prior to Friday noon, Lord Roberts would certainly have telegraphed this fact. Hence it looks as though there was a Boer force between Pretoria and Johannesburg.

These soldiers, trekking back toward Pretoria, some of them fresh from the fight with General Hamilton, would have brought a new element into the situation and probably have overruled the peace committee, taking the direction of affairs out of their hands. If this has happened the British may, as the Daily Chronicle says, see some "hard fighting" before the British flag flies over Pretoria, for if the Boers held only three forts standing close together on the hills south of the town they would be in a position to stand a siege.

The Boers, according to a special dispatch from Lourenzo Marquez, have re-entered the northeastern territory of the Free State and are engaged with the British near Ventersburg and Harmsburg.

It is reported from Amsterdam that the best rooms at one of the principal hotels there have been engaged for President Kruger's occupancy from June 25.

The Times has the following from Lourenzo Marquez, dated June 1:

"Reports of the most conflicting character are current here, due to the activity of the Boer agents. While one section declares that President Kruger has returned to Pretoria for the purpose of arranging terms of surrender, another asserts that the British have been repulsed outside of Pretoria. Nothing authentic is known here regarding Mr. Kruger's whereabouts or the situation in the Transvaal."

FUNDS TO FIGHT THE PLAGUE.

Business Men of San Francisco Start Out to Collect Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—In order to set at rest all reports that there is further danger from the bubonic plague and to protect their business interests the merchants of this city have decided to raise $50,000, which is to be expended in purifying the Chinese quarter. At a meeting this afternoon $30,000 was subscribed and a committee appointed to increase the amount to $50,000. More money will be raised if it is necessary, as the business men are in earnest and anxious to prevent the spread of the plague. The work of cleansing to such an extent that no one can say the slightest trace of plague remains.

The Trust Amendment Defeated.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The house of representatives today, after a lively debate extending over two days, defeated the joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment empowering congress to regulate trusts. It requires a two-thirds vote under the constitution to adopt an amendment to the constitution. The vote stood: Ayes, 154; nays, 131. The affirmative vote, therefore, was thirty-eight short of the requisite two-thirds, 192.

Five democrats, Campbell of Montana, Naphen of Massachusetts, Scudder of New York, Sibley of Pennsylvania and Thayer of Massachusetts, and one silverite, Newlands of Nevada, voted with the republicans for the resolution and two republicans, Loud of California and McCall of Massachusetts, with the democrats. These were the only breaks from party lines. The populists voted solidly against the resolution.

S. H. H. CLARK PASSES AWAY.

Well Known Railroad Man Dies at Asheville, North Carolina.

OMAHA, June 2.—S. H. H. Clark, a director of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, its former vice president and general manager, first vice president of the Texas & Pacific and the International & Great Northern, and formerly president and general manager of the Union Pacific, died yesterday at Asheville, N. C. Mr. Clark had been ailing for several years and since the reorganization of the Union Pacific road had remained in retirement at his residence at St. Louis. He was advised to go to Asheville early in the spring, but his relatives and friends felt that the end was near. He passed away in the presence of his wife and son. Mr. Clark was in his 68th year.

Mr. Clark had been in poor health for more than a dozen years, but had kept actively at work until about three years ago. During the Union Pacific receivership he was directed by Judge Henry Clay Caldwell to take a vacation and for several months he was at rest. He soon resumed the active direction of the affairs of the road as chief of the receivers and kept steadily in the harness until the receivership was terminated in the sale under foreclosure in November, 1898. Since that time he has been connected with the other roads of the Gould system, but has not been able to do a great deal of work.

The substitute passed the committee by a party vote and if it is agreed to by the senate the investigation will be undertaken by the committee.
