Ryho.
BORN--To Mr. and Mrs. George O. Smith, on last week, a son.
Mr. James Young and family, of Galena, Kansas, are visiting among relatives near Ryho.
Weather very warm; threatens rain this (Tuesday) morning. Fine for haying and threshing. Wheat yields from one to five bushels per acre, as far as heard from; corn better than anticipated, pastures good and cattle in fine condition.
Miss Luella Cooper entertained her many friends on Monday night, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. After spending a short time in social conversation, and partaking of a toothsome supper, all returned home, wishing her many more happy birthdays.
Nesby acknowledges a pleasant visit from Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan today. He has again regained his health. He informs us that he and Mrs. Brennan had a close call from drowning near the mouth of Ash creek, after last week's terrible rain. The water is usually but a few feet deep, but now a raging flood twenty feet deep and thirty feet wide, into which he unthinkingly drove, the buggy sinking, and they floated off into the raging flood. Mrs. Brennan caught him around the neck; he tried to swim, tramp and struggle, until they reached the shore. The horses turned in the water, and reached the shore on the same side that they had entered, none the worse.

Call for Custer County Populist Convention.
To all populists in Custer county, Nebraska, that are opposed to fusion with either of the old political parties, and to those who believe in the cardinal principles of populism, as set forth in the Omaha, Cincinnati and Grand Island platforms, that demands direct legislation, public ownership of all public utilities, government ownership of railroads, and a people's government instead of a party government; and to all those who are true to the principles of populism, and are willing to sign their names to a declaration of principles setting forth their intention to act in good faith, and to support the candidates nominated at Cincinnati, Ohio, and Grand Island, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in a mass convention at Broken Bow, Nebraska, on Friday, September 7th, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating one candidate for county attorney; and to select delegates to the congressional convention of the Sixth congressional district; also to select delegates to the senatorial and representative conventions; also to elect a full set of township committeemen for each precinct.
The place and date of holding the Congressional, Senatorial and Representative Conventions will be made public at the County convention.
Those who wish to stand up and fight for equal and exact justice for all men are cordially invited to attend this convention and meet with us on populist principles.
A. B. HARTLEY,
State Central Committeeman for Custer County.

"HOME VISITORS"—A NEW EXCURSION.
Two Days when Nebraskans Can Go East at Half Fare on the Burlington.
Two "home visitors" days have been announced by the Burlington—good from all over Nebraska to points in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, on which the regular "home-visitor" rates of one fare plus $2 for the round trip will be good. The tickets will be good for thirty days.
"I have announced these rates that the people of Nebraska, many of whom come from these states, will be encouraged to go back to their homes on a visit this fall," said John Francis, general passenger agent of the Burlington, when asked to explain the difference between home-visitor's and home-visitor's excursions. "Most of these people came out here a few years ago, and have done pretty well. Now, if they go back to their old homes this fall with good clothes on their backs, and plenty of money in their pockets, as most of the Nebraska farmers can do, and tell their stories of the big crops raised in Nebraska, it will result in their inducing thousands of relatives and friends to come to this state and locate.
"The dates are September 10 and 26, the tickets being good for thirty days. On the two following days, September 11 and 27, the roads in Illinois will make low rates to points further on east, so that people desiring to go to Indiana, Ohio or other states further east, can avail themselves of low rates all of the way through. I want to tell you that this is one of the biggest movements ever inaugurated to bring people to this state."—Omaha World-Herald.

Notice to Hunters.
Under the law, the shooting or hunting of prairie chickens or grouse before the first day of September in any year is prohibited, and the statute provides a fine of $5 00 for each and every bird killed, and provides the same fine for any one having in his possession any prairie chickens or grouse prior to the first of September, without proof that he killed them. Under the law, it is made the duty of the county attorney, the county sheriff, and the various constables of the county, to see that this law is enforced, and a fine and penalty is provided in case they fail to do so. The chickens are so small that they cannot stand any show for their lives, and should be left alone until they are large enough to have some show to take care of themselves. I hope that all parties will bear this law above referred to in mind, and refrain from hunting until after September 1st, but will say that in case the law is violated, and there is evidence upon which to base a prosecution, that the parties violating it will be prosecuted vigorously, and that complaints respecting the violation of this law will receive the same attention as the violation of any other criminal laws of the state. I have been informed that in different localities of the county some few parties have been violating the law, and I wish to say to those parties that if they persist in doing so, that they take their own chance of having to pay for their chickens at $5 00 a bird.
Very truly yours,
L. E. KIRKPATRICK,
Co. Att'y.
