

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of child-birth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

Ryno.

(Omitted last week.)

Farmers are very busy haying and threshing.

C. H. Landreth has commenced threshing near Ryno. Wheat yields about nine bushels per acre.

The intense heat was broken yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon, by two light showers, reviving corn and pastures.

Nasby acknowledges a pleasant visit on Monday from Alexander Gritton, formerly of Ryno, Nebr., but now of Galena, Kansas. His health is good, having aged very little in appearance during his five years' residence in Kansas.

C. H. Landreth is threshing near Ryno. Wheat yields from four to nine bushels per acre.

C. G. Empfield and his mother, and sister Nellie started on last Saturday enroute to Pennsylvania, to visit among relatives.

Instead of going to York county to thresh, Messrs. Pickett, Polkey and Rush went to Merna valley and Custer Center, finding work at remunerative wages. They inform us that wheat yields from 8 to 17 bushels per acre.

What's the matter with Nebraska; four fair rains since last writing, and a wind storm last Thursday evening, thrown in to cool the atmosphere? Ground thoroughly soaked, pastures remind us of May; corn better than expected. No hauling; all busy haying, cutting corn and threshing. Stand up for Nebraska.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, in Turner valley, August 22d, Mr. Ross George and Miss Fannie Scott, Judge McMullen officiating. These young people are well and favorably known, and start life's wedded bliss with the best wishes of their many friends. They were kindly remembered with many presents, both useful and ornamental.

L. M. Pickett showed us some corn that is hard to beat. He planted one grain in a hill, at distance usually planted. He says it was in roasting ears before other corn showed ears. He husked two hills, each stalk had two ears a foot long; one stalk had six suckers with five good ears and a fair sized rubbin; the other had three suckers and a large ear on each.

District Court.

District court convened Monday afternoon, Judge Sullivan presiding. The first case called up was that of Thos. Haley and Wm. Redding, who are charged with burglarizing the store of Mrs. B. J. Tierney, of Anney, on the night of the 24th of July. The case is being prosecuted by County Attorney Kirkpatrick and C. H. Holcomb. J. B. Smith is attorney for the defendants. The trial of the case was not concluded until Tuesday afternoon. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty after being out three hours. The names of the jurors in the case are J. O. Taylor, J. A. Hall, D. C. Konkle, W. W. Tooley, John Flinn, A. Gustafson, Keute Lee, Joe Weeth, Geo. Williams, A. D. Marquis, J. M. Amos and W. A. Bence.

Nebraska G. A. R. Car.

The Nebraska G. A. R. car for Broken Bow started Saturday morning for Chicago, accompanied by a number of the members of the G. A. R. of the county and their families. The names of those who started from here, as near as we were able to learn, were State Commander John Reese, Geo. Carr, G. N. Rawson, Jas. Dooley, C. W. Booth, A. H. Shoemaker, J. B. Klump, H. W. George, A. W. Drake and wife, C. M. Blowers and wife, A. D. Brown and wife, W. H. Thompson and wife, Enoch Newburn, Mesdames P. A. Walton, A. J. Robertson, Ed. McComas and Eddie Mayer. Mrs. McComas will go on to Bellfontaine, Ohio, to visit at her old home while gone. Eddie Mayer will go on to New York, to his mother's people, to go to school.

The fellow who was arrested on the 18th inst., on complaint of S. P. Groat, charged with attempt to steal a buggy and team, was released from custody on the 25th, on motion of County Attorney Kirkpatrick, for lack of evidence. The man, while in the city, gave two or three different names, but was arrested under the name of F. M. Williams. He hired a team at the Groat barn, stating that he had a ranch near Arnold, and was going to sell some cattle. He had no money to pay for his lodging or for the team, but suggested that he had a draft for $180, but the proprietor declined to cash it. After Williams had been gone with the team for a short time, Mr. Groat saw some parties from Arnold, and on learning that no such man or ranch was in that vicinity, had a warrant issued for Williams' arrest. He was overhauled near Merna, and brought back. Being unable to secure any evidence against him, he was released.

Resolutions of Respect and Condolence by the Mason City Baptist Church.
Sister May Jackson-Wood was born April 14, 1880, died July 7, 1900, age 20 years, 2 months and 23 days. She professed faith in Christ, and was baptized into the fellowship of Mason City Baptist church by Rev. Lewis, July 15, 1894, where she remained faithful and consistent in all relations of life, until death claimed her as his own. May was a true and noble christian woman, and was resigned to the will of God.

Resolved, That in her death the church and family sustained a great loss, the church a faithful member and a devoted worker, the family a lovely daughter and affectionate sister. That the church enter into deep sympathy with the family and friends of the deceased. To the husband, father, mother and three sisters we say weep not for May, for she is at rest, but follow her example, as she followed Christ.

That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family, and copies sent to the Mason City Transcript and CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN.
