

Women are Like Flowers.

Healthy and strong they blossom and bloom. Sickly, they wither and die. Every woman ought to look well and feel well. It's her right and duty, but she might as well try to put out a fire with oil as to be healthy and attractive with disease corroding the organs that make her a woman. Upon their health depends her health. If there is inflammation or weakening drains or suffering at the monthly period, attend to it at once. Don't delay. You're one step nearer the grave every day you put it off. Women can stand a great deal, but they cannot live forever with disease dragging at the most delicate and vital organs in their body. You may have been deceived in so-called cures. We don't see how you could help it—there is so much worthless stuff on the market. But you won't be disappointed in Bradfield's Female Regulator. We believe it is the one medicine on earth for womanly ills. There is as much difference between it and other so-called remedies as there is between right and wrong. Bradfield's Female Regulator soothes the pain, stops the drains, promotes regularity, strengthens, purifies and cleanses. It does all this quickly and easily and naturally. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. Bradfield's Regulator lies at hand. $1 per bottle at drug stores.

How to Measure Hay in the Stack.

The following is the rule employed by the government in measuring hay in the stack, and doubtless will prove convenient for many of our readers: "To find the number of cubic feet in a stack of hay, first measure the distance from one side of its base over the top to the base of the opposite; measure distance across the bottom, subtract the distance across bottom from the distance from base to base over the top, and divide the remainder by two, which gives the height of the stack; measure length and width together, and the result is the number of cubic feet in the stack. In a ton of hay that has been stacked thirty days or more, there are 422 cubic feet. In newly stacked hay the government measure is 512 cubic feet to the ton."

Democratic County Convention.

The democratic electors of Custer county, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in mass convention in the opera house at Broken Bow, Neb., on Friday, Sept. 14, 1900, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for county attorney, two candidates for representatives, and attending to such other business as may come before the convention. All persons, regardless of past political affiliations, who are opposed to the domination of trusts and the money power, who agree with the present administration in its policy of imperialism and colonial oppression, and who favor the constitution and the Declaration of Independence, are most cordially invited to attend and take part in the deliberations of the convention. By order of the county committee: M. C. WASHINGTON, Chairman. Dated Sept. 1, 1900.

Same low rate will apply to points in Southern Minnesota, Northern Missouri, and Central and Western Illinois. Tickets will be good to return any time within thirty days from date of issue. For further information, consult nearest ticket agent, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Nebr. ag23 4t

We will furnish the Kansas city Journal and REPUBLICAN for $1.25 per year.

As predicted by the REPUBLICAN two weeks ago, J. T. Arthur, the present member of the county board from Douglas Grove township, was turned down, and R. J. Mills of Westerville, was nominated. Sargent and Westerville township delegates were for Mills, and Douglas Grove remained loyal to its home man. Armstrong says he did not fix the job, but McArthur is conscious of the fact that some fine Italian hand did the job to the queen's taste, as he was completely ignored, except by his own township.

The G. A. R. Forwards Relief.

The country, on learning of the destitution of the people of Galveston, Texas, from the cyclone, promptly sent means for their relief. Among the first to answer the call was Judge Reese, commander of the Nebraska department of the G. A. R. The State Journal yesterday in speaking of the Judge's prompt action, says:

"John Reese, of Broken Bow, commander of the G. A. R., department of Nebraska, arrived in Lincoln yesterday, and immediately wired a contribution of $50 on behalf of his department to the department of Texas. The contribution was sent to Department Commander Charles B. Peck, of Houston, to aid the soldier sufferers of Galveston. The G. A. R. department of Texas is not large, but a great many of the 600 members live in Galveston, and it is certain that many old soldiers and their families suffered loss of life and property."

The County Fair.

The display in agricultural hall is fine. As the names of the exhibitors do not appear on the cards this year, there is no way of knowing who to give proper credit for the exhibit unless the exhibitor chances to be by and volunteers to give you the desired information. G. O. Waters has a fine display of grain, millet and vegetables. In fact, the entire exhibit in agricultural hall is of a high standard. We noticed some very fine Brown Leghorn chickens of Geo. Papineau's, but the exhibit in this department is not up to the standard in quality or quantity.

The exhibit in the fine art department is splendid, as well as in the school department. Some of the best work in the school exhibition we noticed was by the Wind-nagle children, in the King school district.

The lack of interest taken in the fair by the farmers is shown by the limited exhibition of stock. This (Wednesday) evening there are but five hogs, and two sheep at the west end. The exhibit of cattle is limited to two pens of Shorthorns, one of which consists of five head by L. McCandless, and the other of ten head by Henry Johnson.

If a purse was raised outside of the association to increase the premiums on stock, the same as is done for racing, it would bring a good exhibit of cattle, hogs and horses, which in our opinion should be the main feature of the fair. Race horses are numerous on the grounds, but few Custer county people have race horses to exhibit.

George C. Lovejoy Accidentally Kills Himself.

Tuesday evening of last week George C. Lovejoy, who was teaching the school in the Phelps district, five miles west of West Union, accidentally shot himself while out hunting. He had returned from school to his brother Frank's, south of the river. He tied his horse to the hay stack and went into the house and got the shot gun, and remarked to his sister-in-law that he was going out to kill some chickens. Night came on and he did not return. His brother becoming alarmed, informed the neighbors, and instituted a search for him. They found his body about eighty rods from the house, with a hole shot through it just below the heart. He had evidently started home, going through the timber claim, and from indications had stumbled over a dead limb. In the fall the gun was discharged, and the stock of the gun broken. He was a young man of excellent character, and highly respected by all who knew him.

On Sunday, Sept. 2, a large number of the friends of the families of F. E. Scott, of Turner Valley, and C. W. Fodge, of Prairie Hill met at the home of the latter to witness the uniting in matrimony of Ezra G. Scott and Miss Stella Fodge, Rev. L. L. Epley officiating. This young couple is among the best in Custer county, and start in life with flattering prospects. They will begin housekeeping in Turner Valley, attended by the best wishes of their many friends. The presents received at the wedding were:

C. W. Fodge and wife, $5 in gold; A. A. Shaw and Blanche Fodge, table cloth and napkins; Chas. Shaw, salad dish; Leona Harris, table cover; Ethel Coleman, sugar shell and napkin rings; Theresie Saffrank, set of silver teaspoons; Chas. Barrett and Eldon Todd, clock; Chas. Jefferson and family, set of silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Young, Galena, Kansas, berry set; Hattie McMurry and John Young, Henderson, Illinois, set of tea spoons and bedspread; Hattie McMurry, $5 cash; Bertha Barrett, picture and easel; Roy Pollard, vinegar cruet; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross, water set; Mr. and Mrs. Wright, table cloth; Jessie Pollard, berry dish; Mrs. E. Wind and daughters, table cloth and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaw, pair of towels; Mrs. May, Lamp, Stanley, Kansas; the Misses Fodge, half dozen towels; Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, pair of pillows; Howard Blowers, $1 cash; Bert McMurry and wife, $1 cash.

Saturday, Sept. 23d, a county convention will be held in Broken Bow. It is hoped that all the newly organized clubs, as well as the old ones, will send delegates, and that this convention may be conducive to much good for the cause of woman suffrage in Custer county. Work for the ensuing year will be fully discussed, and plans laid for carrying on this work. Every club should be represented, that there may be uniformity of work and purpose, and that the united efforts of the several clubs may bring good results.

Remember the date of the convention, Saturday, Sept. 23, 1900, at 10 a. m., 2 p. m., and 7:30 p. m.

It Once Was Lost, but Now I Have Found it.

Where? At my door. At the Eagle Grocery. What in the world is it, my dear? It is at the Eagle Grocery, a mammoth stock of Groceries, and at the lowest prices you ever heard of. The Eagle has been reading the papers and kept in posted on what was being offered for sale. They don't say anything about Terbacker and Candy, and other good things like that. It is not pickle dishes you want now, it is Candy. The Eagle has 2,000 pounds of candy for sale cheap. Everybody is invited to call and get my prices.
