Cable Traction Submarine Boat.

To enable tourists to cross the English channel without the inconvenience of seasickness, a Frenchman has designed a submarine boat, to be propelled by cable traction.

English the First of Languages.

Writing on the decline of the French language, Jean Finot points out that at the end of the last century French was the language spoken by the greatest number of civilized people.

Litigation.

No, the trillionaire would not litigate. Sooner would he endure an invasion of his rights. "Were I to litigate," he protested, "I should almost certainly be the cause of numbers of innocent lawyers dying rich!"

Says the London Graphic: "The king of Portugal, whom we have to thank for the friendly relations we still maintain with the little kingdom, is English in his tastes."

Lumber Needed in Pulp Mills.

It is estimated that of the 555,500,000 feet cut of logs in the Maine forests the present season 225,000,000 feet will be sent to the pulp mills instead of the sawmills.

Rhode Island's Fine New Capitol.

Rhode Island is the smallest state in the union in area, and its entire population is about equal to that of the city of Boston, yet this state has nearing completion a state capitol which is exceeded in cost by the capitols of few states and which good judges declare is equalled by none in architectural beauty.

Republican Township Caucuses.

As per advertisement, the republican township caucuses were held Monday afternoon, in the court house.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Roysse, and the object of the meeting stated.

On motion Mr. Roysse was elected chairman, and D. M. Amsberry secretary.

On the Sixth ballot W. J. Windnagle received a clear majority over all competitors, and was declared the nominee.

W. H. Osborne Jr. was nominated for clerk, J. M. Kimberling for treasurer; W. M. Vannice, assessor; J. J. Snyder justice, and L. E. Cole constable.

The nominees for overseers of the several road districts were as follows:

- District No. 1—Chas. Davis. District No. 2—John Kenoyer. District No. 3—L. McCandless. District No. 4—M. D. Callen. District No. 5—F. H. Arther. District No. 6—G. E. Cadwell. District No. 7—C. T. Wright.

The following judges and clerks of election were recommended: North Side—Jud Kay, L. J. Gandy and W. S. Boyse.

Clerks, C. R. Luce, Willis Cadwell.

South Side—C. Welliver, W. H. Shaokelford and Jas. Osborne for judges, and H. F. Kennedy and Frank John for clerks.

On motion a resolution was adopted, authorizing the township committee to fill any vacancy that might occur on the ticket by appointment.

Moved and carried to adjourn.

Weaver's Meeting.

General J. B. Weaver, of "greenback" fame, did not prove the winning card for the democrats that was anticipated by his fusion co-workers in this city Monday.

The general was here, but the crowds of former days failed to materialize. The brass band was employed to drum up a crowd at the court house, but even the sweet strains of music failed to draw.

J. C. BOWEN, The Grocer.

In the district court of Custer county, Neb. In the matter of Ole J. Esby, deceased. Order to show cause. The cause came on for hearing upon the petition of M. C. Warrington, administrator of the estate of Ole J. Esby, deceased, praying for license to sell the following real estate, to-wit: 8 1/4 acs, and 6 1/2 acs, of Sec. 8, and the 1/2 acs, and 1/2 acs, of Sec. 17, all in town 13 N. of R. 17 W. in Custer county, Neb., or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $507, for the payment of debts against said estate, and the further sum of $150, said sum being a monthly allowance of $10 per month to Carrie Esby, the widow of Ole J. Esby, deceased, and the costs of administration, there not being sufficient personal property to pay the said debts and expenses. It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the court house in Broken Bow, Neb., on the 19th day of October, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause why said license should be granted to said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses. Dated this 20th day of September, 1900. HOMER M. SULLIVAN, Judge District Court.
