 administrator of the aforesaid estate, has filed a report of his doings as such, and asks that the same be approved, and that he be discharged from further obligation therein, and that the tion of the assets belonging to said estate as may seem just and equitable; and to assign the dower of the widow herein, designate the heirs entitled to a share in said estate, and to grant such other

In the district court of Custer county, Nebr., in the matter of Ole J. Estby, deceased. Order to show cause. The cause came on for hearing upon the petition of M. C. Warrington, administrator of the estate of Ole J. Estby, deceased, praying for license to sell the following real estate, to-wit: s 1/2 sec. 24, and s 1/2 sec. 2, and the n 1/2 sec. 17, all in town 18 N., of R. 17 W., in Custer county, Nebr., or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $507, for the payment of debts against said estate, and the further sum of $150, said sum being a monthly allowance of $10 per month to Carrie Estby, the widow of Ole J. Estby, deceased, and the costs of administration, there not being sufficient personal property to pay the said debts and expenses. It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the court house in Broken Bow, Nebr., on the 19th cause why said license should be granted to said said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses. Dated this 30th day of September, 1900. HOMER M. SULLIVAN,

It Once Was Lost, but Now I Have Found it.

Where? At my door. At the Eagle Grocery. What in the world is it, my dear? It is at the Eagle Grocery, a mammoth stock of Groceries, and at the lowest prices you ever heard of. The Eagle has been reading the papers and keeping posted on what was being offered for sale. They don't say anything about Terbacker and Candy, and other good things like that. It is not pickle dishes you want now, it is Candy. The Eagle has 2,000 pounds of candy for sale cheap. Everybody is invited to call and get my prices. Remember the place, on the big corner, just east of First National Bank.
