

MEN WHO HAVE DESERTED BRYAN FOR MCKINLEY

WASHINGTON WHEELS INTO LINE ON EXPANSION

Colonel Frank Wilkeson, formerly Populist member of the legislature of the state of Washington, and who was one time associate editor of the New York Sun, has rejected Bryanism. He says: "I am an expansionist of the most extreme type and believe in holding the Philippine Islands for commercial reasons as well as a military and naval base. I have paid taxes for thirty years to establish eastern manufacturing industry,—paid even under angry protest, because I lived in a region remote from all possibility of profitable manufacture,—and now, when Washington has a chance to establish a manufacturing industry to supply the people of Asia with finished products, I am a high tariff advocate. I want the industries of Washington diversified; I want our coast built up and commerce established. I want to see the consuming powers of the market of Asia increased, so that it will consume all the surplus wheat raised in Australia and on the Pacific coasts of the North and South American continents, and this will increase the price of wheat raised in the Mississippi valley, where I have a large farm. I believe that the success of Democracy will directly and disastrously affect my pocket; that it would if carried to a logical conclusion create industrial and commercial lethargy on the Pacific coast, and by curtailing the power of consumption of the foreign and domestic markets cause breadstuffs and provisions to fall in value."

Hiram Hammer, one of the ablest Populists in Washington (state): "I am a Protectionist. I believed that unless we had free silver, want and destitution would follow. The reverse is true. I believe that in the future as in the past that whatever legislation we obtain—that is, in the interest of all the people—must come through the Republican party."

John H. Slipper, Hamilton, Wash., one of the largest merchants in the Upper Skagit valley, and a Democrat.

Dr. M. B. Mattice, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., a leading physician and life-long Democrat.

A. Lyons, Burlington, Wash., an enthusiastic fusionist in 1896-'98.

C. E. Bingham, mayor of Sedro-Woolley, Wash., head of the banking house of C. E. Bingham & Co., who has always been a staunch Democrat.

Henry Thompson, Birdsview, Wash., an extensive rancher and old-line Democrat.

N. W. Carpenter, Mount Vernon, Wash., a large saw mill owner and a Populist.

J. B. Holbrook, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., bank cashier and an active Democrat.

Thomas W. B. Thomson, Hamilton, Wash., mine owner in the Upper Skagit, and a Populist.

Louis Kirkby, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., mail carrier and a Populist.

W. E. Schriker, La Conner, Wash., head of the Skagit County Bank and an influential Democrat.

Adam Huff, Birdsview, Wash., a rancher and strong Fusionist.

James Coplan, business man, Orting. Expansion.

Henry Beckett, Orting, assessor Pierce county 1896; elected on fusion ticket. Expansion.

H. P. Bulger, Tacoma, People's Party speaker and club organizer 1896; Republican organizer 1898. Expansion.

M. B. Harben, Seattle, fusion speaker and organizer 1896-'98. Member King County Republican Convention 1900. Expansion.

J. Lorraine, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I have always been a Democrat, but as regards the national ticket this fall I believe in letting well enough alone.

John F. Malloy, Oriskany, N. Y.—I have always heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, but this year my ballot will be cast for McKinley. I believe the country is prosperous now and in the proper shape for us to support McKinley. We do not want a change at this time. I can not go Bryan. When a man forces himself on the people as he did you may count me out.

R. B. Holman, Oriskany, N. Y.—I have never yet voted the Republican national ticket, but will do so this year. I don't want to see any change. Things are in good shape, and we should keep McKinley where he is.

R. Clawson, Oriskany, N. Y.—I am a Democrat, but I shall vote the Republican ticket this year, at least that is my intention at the present time. McKinley is a good man, and we have had good times under his administration.

H. G. Millington, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I am for McKinley. I voted for Cleveland the last time he ran, and got enough of it in his term, and shan't vote that way this year. McKinley is good enough.

Charles Lorraine, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I used to be a Democrat, but have changed in the last two years. It is better for the people to have McKinley. The times suit me better under the Republicans.

A. Platt, Oriskany, N. Y.—I have usually voted the Democratic ticket, but this year I am out for McKinley and he will get my vote. Times are good enough for me now and I don't propose to do anything that would tend to bring about a change.

J. Lorraine, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I have always been a Republican ever since the last presidential election. Think I shall vote for McKinley because the times are better now than ever before.

W. Dennison, Oriskany, N. Y.—I was a Democrat until four years ago. I shall vote for McKinley this year. We want a continuation of the good times.

H. B. Harrison, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I used to be a Democrat, but no silver business for me. I think I shall be a Republican hereafter. The Democratic politicians are playing for selfish ends and not for the good of the country. Croker was able to overrule the whole Democratic convention at Saratoga when everybody else wanted Coler for governor. Then he put an anti-trust plank into the platform and he is one of the head men in trusts. I shall certainly support McKinley this year, whatever I may do afterward.

P. W. Copeland, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I used to be a Democrat. It is hard to tell where the Democracy is nowadays. I think I shall vote for McKinley. I think that would be the wisest way.

Arthur Wright, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I am a Democrat, but I shall do as I did four years ago, vote for McKinley as the less of two evils.

Lewis Farmer, Clark Mills, N. Y.—I voted for Cleveland three times and four years ago I voted for McKinley. I have no use for Bryan. I am going to be a Republican. We had all the Democratic administration under Cleveland's last term that we wanted.

H. E. Palmer, Bridgewater, N. Y.—As a party we don't say much about free silver. I guess that is the wisest way. I am an expansionist. I don't object to that part of the administration's policy.

James A. Burgess, prominent stock buyer, St. Louis. Wants present conditions to continue.

Richard E. Hughes, St. Louis. Satisfied with present conditions.

Dr. S. P. Tuttle, St. Louis. Edward Crick, Forest Hill.

Frank Platz, Rogers City. Tariff.

Henry Hanson, Rogers City. Convinced on all national questions.

Ernest Adrian, Rogers City. Same as above.

S. L. Kilbourne, Union City. Money question.

W. M. Gow, Cadillac.

J. E. Henderson, Cadillac, court stenographer.

Olof Johnson, Swedish merchant, Cadillac.

J. H. Bearss, Yuma, lumber manufacturer.

Ed. Wilson, hardware dealer, Sherman.

Henry Bull, ex-alderman, Potoskey.

Isaac Toll, ex-village president, Potoskey.

William Dimmer, Copper Falls. Gladstone. Better times.

J. J. Gagner, insurance agent, Gladstone. Better times.

W. H. McDonald, hotel keeper, Gladstone. Better times.

Fred Falkins, stationery engineer, Gladstone. Better times.

John Malloy, city marshal, Gladstone. Better times.

Alex. Murker, Gladstone. Better times.

James Davis, Mt. Pleasant.

John Battner, Caldwell.

John C. Wood, Caldwell.

James Forquer, Caldwell.

Fred Fehlfley, Caldwell.

F. C. Dingman, Caldwell.

Alex. Worden, ex-alderman, Potoskey.

J. J. Reycraft, former Democratic candidate for mayor of Potoskey.

John Litty, Suttons Bay.

George Steinel, Jr., Suttons Bay. Cannot go free silver.

Dr. R. P. Burke, Empire. Cannot go free silver.

M. Oberlin, Bingham. Cannot go free silver.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATS ABANDONING BRYAN

Charles H. Schweizer, LaCrosse, Wis. Formerly chairman of the Democratic City Committee and city attorney: "I have never been a Republican and I have never been and am not now in accord with Mr. Bryan and his platform. Being convinced that Mr. Bryan's election would result in disaster to the country at large, presently or ultimately I must refuse to aid and comfort in any way those doctrines which are pregnant with evils. Nor can I find in the issue of imperialism any real excuse for supporting Mr. Bryan and impliedly endorsing his financial and Populist heresies, an issue raised to distract the attention of the voter, and especially Gold Democrats from these fallacies the dangers of which were so thoroughly exposed in the last election. The best interests of the country demand at this time the defeat of Mr. Bryan and his principles. I feel, therefore, that it is my duty to exert what little influence I may command in opposing his election, and to cast my vote as my convictions dictate, for McKinley and Roosevelt."

John Johnston, cashier of the Marine National Bank of Milwaukee, formerly the Wisconsin Marine Bank, the oldest banking institution in the West, and Alfred James, president of the Northwestern National Fire Insurance Company, both leaders of the Wisconsin Democracy, have declared for President McKinley. Messrs. Johnston and James have always been stalwarts of the party. They declare that many other Democratic business men are going to desert the Democratic party before the campaign is over. Mr. Johnston said: "Yes, I am a Republican, for the present, at least. In 1896, when Bryan was nominated at Chicago, free silver was made the issue of the campaign. I was opposed to free silver then, and have been ever since the issue was first presented to the American people. I think, were legislation enacted authorizing the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, the country would soon go to ruin. I am a staunch advocate of expansion. I am thoroughly convinced the acquisition of foreign territory in the manner outlined by the present administration will redound to the business interests of this country."

Sylvester Hartmann, the well-known grocer of Green Bay, Wis., who for years has been a staunch Democrat, returns from his European trip an uncompromising Republican and advocate of McKinley and Roosevelt. While

Mr. Hartmann has always been a sound money man and was forced to bolt the Democratic national ticket in '96, it was not until his recent visit to the old country and because of what he saw and heard there that he determined to cut loose altogether from the party of Bryan. "While," says Mr. Hartmann, "I love the Fatherland as the place of my birth, I must now as an American citizen place the interests of the United States first. I am not a politician, but if the people of foreign countries see in Bryan's election a cutting off of this trade from our merchants and manufacturers, then it is easy to see with which party the best interest of this country lies." Mr. Hartmann knows of two other business men of Wisconsin who went over to Europe Democrats and came back Republicans. One of them is a well known Manitowish merchant, the other lives in Port Washington. Mr. Hartmann believes that more Germans will vote for McKinley this year than did in '96, as they are all strongly against the upsetting of either the monetary system of the country or trade conditions.

IOWA DEMOCRATS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO FREE SILVER

E. G. Graham, mayor of Stuart, Iowa, and one of the leading democrats of western Iowa, who supported Bryan in 1896, has announced that he should support McKinley and the Republican ticket this year and will take the stump to advocate the election of McKinley. He stated that he did so because he was opposed to fusion; could not bear to be called a Populist, and that he had discovered that the prophecies of Bryan had come to naught. On the other hand, he said, every Republican promise had been fulfilled and the gold standard and protective tariff had changed the nation from a borrowing to a loaning nation. He said he regarded imperialism and militarism as a cloak to cover free silver.

W. W. Witmer, Des Moines, Iowa. Against free silver.
L. M. Martin, Des Moines, Iowa. Against free silver.
B. F. Tillinghast, Davenport, Iowa. Against free silver.
M. Ricker, Waterloo, Iowa. Against free silver.
J. P. Kieffer, Waterloo, Iowa. Against free silver.
W. J. Knight, Dubuque, Iowa. Against free silver.
W. J. Cantillon, Dubuque, Iowa. Against free silver.
Sam G. Sloane, Charles City, Iowa. Against free silver.
E. Duke Naven, La Porte, Iowa. Against free silver.
Hon. C. S. Eganck, Iowa City, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
Hon. John Everall, Elkader, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
Judge J. C. Mitchell, Ottumwa, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
F. M. Hubbell, Des Moines, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
George H. Otis, Monona, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
T. J. Sullivan, Elkader, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
Hon. G. L. Gilbert, Monona, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
Hon. George Scofield, Strawberry Point, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
E. Hagenan, Burlington, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
Jacob Epstein, Burlington, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
H. A. Mathe, Burlington, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.
C. H. Prenzier, Burlington, Iowa. Opposed to free silver.

Captain W. A. Duckworth, for years a leading Democratic worker of Keosauqua, Ia. Because expansion is the true Democratic doctrine, and that Bryan is no Democrat.

John Sullivan, Bridgewater, N. Y.—Guess I am more of a Republican this year. I shall certainly vote part of the Republican ticket.

Barnard Gagan, Bridgewater, N. Y.—I shall vote for McKinley this year. I voted for him four years ago, and shall do the same now. I am a Democrat, and when the Democratic party comes back to my way of thinking I will be with them again.

G. L. Randall, Bridgewater, N. Y.—I think it will be well to leave things as they are. I don't think a change would make it any better.

C. N. Neal, Bridgewater, N. Y.—I am a Democrat this year just the same as always, but I am not in favor of free silver. A man can be a Democrat and not in favor of Bryan. The times are good enough without taking any chances on a change.

William H. Barron, Bridgewater, N. Y.—I am going to vote the Republican ticket this year. We are getting along all right just as it is. A change would not be any improvement. I am very much interested in Mr. Brownell's candidacy and shall do all I can to help him.

Byron Rose, Sauquoit, N. Y.—I lived in Utica until a while ago, and when there marched with the Jacksonians and voted the Democratic ticket. This year I shall vote for McKinley for President. The times are good enough just as they are without any change.

C. L. Bowen, Sauquoit, N. Y.—I used to be a Democrat, and suppose I am counted so now, but in these times I am a Republican. What is the use of voting for Bryan and make things worse than they were under Cleveland? The times are good enough now.

Charles J. Bonaparte, Baltimore, Md., always an independent Democrat; objects to the "undoubted socialistic tendencies of the whole Bryan outfit."

Ernest Harvier, president of the Independent Democracy of the Fifth Assembly (N. Y.) district: "Whatever favor is due Mr. Bryan and his party for his emphatic denunciation of imperialism will be suppressed by their stand on the currency."

W. J. Puckett, assayer in charge of the mint, Denver, Colo., under President Cleveland: "I have always been a stickler for party, never having voted any other than a Democratic ticket. I shall now support the Republican ticket from top to bottom. I have many reasons for such action, but at present will only attempt to refer to one. Mr. Bryan boldly and publicly upholds the Philippine insurgents condemning the action of the administration, commending the action of the insurgent
